DON'T SEND THEM, BRING THEM was the request parents and guardians received from Morgan State College, and 388 responded to the Parents' Conference Saturday, when they entered freshmen. Baltimoreans included, left, Mrs. Sarah Peacock and son, Nathaniel; center, Miss Jennifer A. Thomas, who pins identification tag on her father, James Thomas, as Mrs. Thomas looks on; and at right: Coach Earl Banks gets pat on back from President Martin D. Jenkins as he is introduced to R. Samuel Dillon, member of the Maryland House of Delegates, speaker at the faculty dinner given by Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins (second from right) Saturday.

388 parents at conference and to register Morgan freshmen

When the 900 freshmen arrive on the Morgan State College campus Saturday, there were 388 parents who arrived with them.

A full day of conferences, a luncheon, and a reception had been planned for the adults, who were asked to attend Morgan's Third Conference for Parents and Guardians of New Students.

Parents had a chance to meet administrators and teachers, meet other parents, and to learn first-hand what Morgan expects of their sons and daughters.

* * *

PRACTICAL information such as academic requirements, counseling services, housing and financial aid formed a part of the discussions. The conferences were held in the Murphy Fine Arts Auditorium from 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

While the adults were attending the conference, freshmen and other new students began their introduction to College Week with a tour of Baltimore, luncheon, and a Recreation Hour.

Among the faculty and administrators who addressed the freshmen were Dr. Martin Jenkins, president; Dr. Waters E. Turpin, Dr. Harold Delaney, and Thomas R. Cripps.

Dr. Ruth Brett is coordinator of Student Personnel Services.

OVER CLAY - LISTON:

WBA 'world' falling apart

Kentucky to accept closed-circuit TV

(UPI) — Kentucky Boxing Commissioner Bob Evans has reversed his position and said he would approve closed circuit televising in Kentucky of the heavyweight rematch between champion Cassius Clay and former titleholder Sonny Liston.

"As long as the Massachusetts Boxing Commission is going to approve the fight," Evans said, "There's no reason why I should hold out against letting it be televised to Kentucky."

EVANS pointed out that he was one of the two delegates to the World Boxing Association (WBA) convention last month who voted against banning the bout. Later, he changed his vote to make the ban a unanimous action by the WBA.

Clay and Liston signed contracts for the fight Monday in Boston. It is scheduled Nov. 16 in Boston.

* * *

EVANS SAID Massachusetts Boxing Commissioner Hyman Greenberg was one of the most vehement opponents of the rematch at the convention in Norfolk, Va.

"I can't understand why he should go back on his position," Evans remarked. "When that kind of thing happens, it seriously weakens the whole structure of the WBA."

Illinois nixes ban on fight

CHICAGO — (UP) — The Illinois Athletic Commission does not feel itself bound by the World Boxing Associations lifting of Cassius Clay's heavyweight title, its chairman indicated.

Joe Triner said, "We have always felt that titles are won or lost in the ring."

* * *

TRINER SAID although the Illinois Commission is a member of the world body, "We disagree whenever we think they're wrong. We don't feel bound by their decision."

Triner said he agreed Clay should not fight Sonny Liston, as the WBA contends, but only because Triner thinks Clay should fight former champion Floyd Patterson before having a return match with Liston, from whom Clay won the title.

* * *

TRINNER SAID he opposed WBA plans to include Chicago heavyweight Ernie Terrell in eliminations to entrhone a new champion.

"Terrell is a very good prospect but he needs a little more time," Triner said.

Musial picks Phils, Orioles

SALT LAKE CITY, (UPI) Former baseball great Stan Musial said Tuesday he felt the Philadelphia Phillies and the Baltimore Orioles had the best chances of winning championships in their respective leagues.

Musical, appearing in Salt Lake City for a youth physical fitness rally, said the Phillies had a commanding lead which would be difficult to overtake. He said the St. Louis Cardinals would give the Phils a run for their money.

Referring to the American League race, he said he felt Baltimore would win "because the Orioles have good pitching and seem to have everything going for them."
