GETTING THE BOYS HOME

We are mustering out fifteen thousand men a day, an dat this rate it will take ten months to demobilize our army.

It will cost over three billion dollars to bring the boys back and feed and care for them until it is done.

That gives us an idea of the size of the job.

Do you want the boys brought back?

Your subscription to the Victory Loan is the answer.

Loan opens April 21st.

LOCAL MATTERS

Tractor Demonstration.—There will be demonstrations of several tractors on Wednesday, April 23. One of the demonstrations will take place at Mr. Julian Jones farm on the state road near Chestertown and the other demonstration will take place at the farm of Mr. Marion Malcomb near Morgan Creek bridge. Should Wednesday be rainy, the demonstration will take place Thursday, April 24. Several different makes of tractors are expected to be demonstrated at each farm.

Burned To Death.—Mrs. Thomas, who has been living with Miss Belle Smith, near Smithville, this county, fell on a hot stove in the kitchen on Monday and was burned to death. Sheriff Carter was to have taken her to the hospital in Cambridge Wednesday for treatment. She was subject to epilepsy and it is thought she was suffering from one of these attacks at the time of the distressing accident. Mrs. Thomas was from Delaware, and came to the Smith home a short time ago.

Red Cross Will Give Information.—There will be some one every Tuesday from 2.30 to 4.30 p. m. at the Red Cross Chapter House in Chestertown to give any assistance or information possible to soldiers, sailors or any of their families. Please bring all the information you possess with you such as dates, numbers and addresses. If the following will call at the Red Cross Chapter House they may find out why their checks have not been received: Josephine Brown, R. F. D. 1 Chestertown; David Corsey, Chestertown; Annie Corsey, Chestertown; Laura Ford, Kennedyville.

An Exciting Game of Duck Pins.—On Wednesday evening, April 16, Fairlee's team of duck pin rollers challenged the Peerless Fertilizer Co. for a game of duck pins. Fairlee was represented by Messrs. Wm. G. Smyth, T. Barclay Kilbourne, Charles Jessop and Conlyn Noland. The Peerless Fertilizer Co. was represented by Messrs. D. B. Ford, Jesse Medders, Howard B. Strong and Clarence Newcomb. After rolling five games Fairlee was defeated by over 30 pins in total amount. A return game will be rolled shortly and Captain Smyth has promised better luck for his team. Each game was warmly contested to the last.

Kent Boy Making Good.—Kent boys will make good anywhere if you give them half a chance. Mr. Wilmer Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Coleman of Chestertown is the latest Kent boy to make good for the Government. Mr Coleman is superintendent of the printing department of Hog Island, the great government shipyard at Philadelphia. When Mr. Coleman accepted the position as superintendent of the printing plant at that place, it was only in its infancy and did only small jobs of printing. Under Mr. Coleman's superintendency, the plant has developed to such an extent that it now does nearly all its own work, and many dollars are being saved to the government.

Marriage License Issued.—A marriage license was issued on Thursday by Clerk of the Court A. Parks Rasin for Miss Ruth Allen and Mr. Henry Gill, both of Chestertown. Miss Allen is the attractive and accomplished young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen and is one of the efficient telephone operators, while Mr. Gill is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gill, and is the linotype operator at the office of the Chestertown Transcript. He was formerly an employe of the Transcript, where he learned the printing trade. It is reported that the wedding will take place today, Saturday, and that Rev. J. L. Ward will perform the ceremony, after which the happy young couple will leave for a week's honeymoon trip to New York and elsewhere. Both Miss Allen and Mr. Gill have a host of friends, and The Transcript joins with them in wishing the young couple many years of happy and prosperous married life.

Dr. L. E. Barrett Weds.—The home of the Misses Terrell, Elkton, was the scene of an important wedding at noon Wednesday, when their niece, Miss Lidia O. Terrell, daughter of the late John M. Terrell, became the bride of Dr. Louis E. Barrett, one of the most prominent ministers of the Wilmington Methodist Episcopal Conference and for seven years pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George P. Jones, pastor of Elkton M. E. Church, and was witnesed by the families of the contracting parties. Immediately after the wedding Dr. and Mrs. Barrett left for Chestertown, and they are now residing at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rote on High St.

Prof. Rickey In Kent County.—Prof. Harry Rickey, formerly of Chestertown, now connected with the Poultry Department of the Maryland College of Agriculture, was in Kent county this week. Prof. Rickey is an expert in the chicken business and has spent many years in the largest poultry plants of the United States. The object of his visit to Kent county is to keep in touch with the chicken raisers and give them the necessary information that will help to make the business a success. Prof. Rickey will be glad to give any information if you will get in touch with him. Prof. Rickey inspected the big poultry plant of Messrs. W. H. Truslow & Son on Wednesday and was much pleased with it.

Lumber Questions.

"Why should I bother about where my builder buys his lumber? Isn't that his affair?"

Well, remember that you are going to live in the house, and he isn't. It's better to bother now than to be unhappy for years because you didn't.

And remember that a contractor who gets his lumber from a twenty-five-year-old concern is most likely to be a contractor who builds to last.

There are other good lumber firms—we know it; but you will wear out several good tires before you find one better.

No lumber is perfect. At the best you have to take some chances. Why take more than you have to?

Some day you'll build. Build to last. See that the lumber comes from CULP.
