UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

Dr. Eldridge Eliason, brother of Mrs. H. W. Vickers, Jr., and formerly of Chestertown, is on his way home from France, where he has done good work in the hospitals in aiding the wounded and maimed.

Prof. Owen C. Blades, Messrs. J. H. Sides, J. S. Kreeger and a number of other Chestertown Masons attended the unveiling of a beautiful monument to Roscoe C. Leonard, of Cambridge, on Sunday. Mr. Leonard was aboard a ship and was swept overboard during a storm on April 11, 1918. Secretary of State Thomas W. Simmons and other prominent gentlemen were present and made addresses.

Captain J. Frank Hines, who we noted as having recently arrived home from overseas, is in Chestertown on a furlough for fifteen days. Captain Hines was connected with a field hospital in France. He left a large and extensive practice and enlisted when the nation needed his services and did good work to help the suffering who had been stricken on the battlefield. So well did the government appreciate the splendid work of Captain Hines that he was promoted from a lieutenancy and had the war continued he would doubtless have gone much further. Captain Hines' many friends in Kent county will be pleased to know that when he receives his discharge from the army he will return to Kent county permanently and resume his practice.

The following letter is from Private W. S. Starr, a Kent county boy, who is now at St. Gewais, France, to a friend in Kent county:

Dear Friend:

Well, old boy, how is everything around old Galena? I guess it has changed so I will hardly know it when I return. Ha! Ha!

I have sent you several cards from up here. This sure is one pretty place. I think it must be the garden spot of France. I was up to Chamonix yesterday and saw Mt. Blanc. It is about 15 miles from here and guess what, I had some ice cream up there—the first I have seen or tasted since I left the states and you can bet I enjoyed it. There is about 20 of us up here on a seven-day leave. George Biddle and Frank Merchant are the only others from around home that are here.

We are right up on a mountain. The engine can only push one coach load of us up at a time so you can imagine how steep it is to get up here.

Am having a wonedrful time—get up in the mornings when we feel like it and go to bed when we get ready. There are plenty of girls here, both French and American (Y. M. C. A. girls). Most all the French people here can speak fairly good English. We also get all we want to eat and drink—wine, beer and something stronger if you want it.

The latest report is we are to sail for the states in June, but I have heard we may sail a little earlier. If I could have it as good as I am having it now the balance of my time over I wouldn't mind staying one bit.

A letter from Sergeant Colin F. Duyer, who is in France, says that he expects to be home by June 1. He says his division was recently inspected by General Pershing, the King and the Queen of Belgium and several other high dignitaries. General Pershing said the 29th Division had a record to be proud of. He says he expects to leave France May 10 and says he expects to land in Baltimore.

Sergeant Joseph Lambert has been honorably discharged from the army.

Private George W. Hatcheson has been honorably discharged from military service.

Betterton has the honor of having as a visitor at this time Private Carvel Warram, who received 22 wounds. He was one of the first to answer the call of his country and his name goes down on Kent's imperishable list of heroes. He is but nineteen year old. Private Warram is seriously wounded, having lost an eye and has other facial mutilation.

Chestertown M. E. Church has two new stars in the service flag in honor of Messrs. Eldridge and Hiram Eliason. The flag now contains 44 stars.

Private Lee Gill has been honorably discharged from service.
