PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Mrs. A. E. Coleman and son returned from a visit to her former home in Annapolis on Thursday.

Mr. Raymond Wilkins, who has been in the army, returned to Chestertown Wednesday and is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Jesse Medders.

Mr. Charles B. Dodd, formerly of Chestertown, now of Cincinnati, Ohio, is the guest of relatives in Kent Co. this week. Mr. Dodd is superintendent of a large printing concern in Cincinnati at a salary of $4000 a year.

Mrs. Lizzie Ayres, of near Sandy Bottom, is one of Kent's oldest ladies. She is 94 years old and is in good health.

Mrs. Scheld and daughter, of Sacramento, California, were guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. Allen A. Harris.

Mrs. Bonn Towner is confined to the bed with a bad cold at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Malcomb.

Circuit Court In Session.—The adjourned term of the Circuit Court for Kent County convened yesterday, Friday, morning with Judge Lewin W. Wickes on the bench. The dockets were called and cases assigned for trial. Mr. James G. Beck was made foreman of the Grand Jury, which is composed of the following:

Grand Jury—J. G. Beck, E. T. Massey, L. W. Ford, G. E. Sutton, A. L. Sparks, John Wilson of Wilfred, William Clark, W. J. Maslin, L. C. Wilson, C. H. Price, H. F. Owens, J. D. Bacchus, W. E. Leary, Jerry Miller, E. W. Emory, O. W. Spry, S. G. Roseberry, B. F. Davis, J. C. Wood, H. P. Jones, W. E. Brown, T. J. Donohoe, A. T. Deshane.

Petit Jury.—F. H. Cornelius, C. L. Jarrell, W. R. Strong, H. W. Anderson, Britton Townsend, H. S. Dempsey, Edmund Hurtt, G. W. Mann, G. R. Rouse (excused), F. C. Wilkins, E. J. Watson, W. L. Faulkner, F. X. Kraft, R. L. Wallis, Wm. B. Willis, W. H. McKee, J. W. Downey, A. H. Malsberger, G. W. Sutton, F. E. Duyer, W. H. Hadaway, Henry Rosin, R. A. Kennedy, J. S. Kreeger, William Wagner.

When we went to press the case of C E. Kirby vs. Frank Lester Co., appeal from Robert Moffett regarding damaged fruit received by Mr. Kirby from the above company, was being heard. R. G. Parks for Mr. Kirby; John D. Urie for the Frank Lester Co.

Grange Notes

Still Pond Grange invites the ladies of Kent to meet at the Grange room on Friday morning at 10 a. m., May 2. At that time Miss Stevenson, of the State College, will "hold school," for the day, and the ladies will bring their lunch and spend the day with her. She plans to talk on the "Best Way to Plan Meals so as to Make Kent Co. Boys and Girls Show the Best Development." Incidentally, the fathers and mothers will be helped to.

So, ladies, remember, that although we are not in our second childhood yet, there is still much to learn in the 4th R in education, i. e., right living, and we want to get all we can about it. This is not confined to granges, it is an open meeting for all, at which time we may expect to get a real house-cleaning in ideas, and brush away many cob-webs of ignorance.

And you have heard about the 16 for 1? No one is too old, or too young! More about it next week!

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Mr. Frank Hurlock has taken the agency for the Cambridge laundry.

—The Queen Anne poultry farm shipped by parcels post recently 1750 baby chicks.

—Mr. Harry Lambert caught seven fine shad Wednesday morning in front of Chestertown.

—Early risers yesterday morning saw ice, which did considerable damage to tomato plants.

—The Cotillion Club of Washington College held an Easter Hop in the College gymnasium last evening.

—The Victory Loan trophy train will be in Chestertown May 7, arriving 1.15 a. m. and leaving 12.30 p. m.

—The Third District of Queen Annes county has thirteen bona fide candidates for office at the coming primaries.

—Julian Barr, a farmer residing near Elkton, killed an immense eagle recently that measured 6 feet from tip to tip.

—The Senior Class of the Rock Hall High School will render the play, "Standing By," Friday, May 2, at 8 p. m.

—George Morris, a traveling salesman from New York, lost his wallet containing $100 in this section Monday last.

—Mr. P. V. Hendrickson is advertising a pair of good mules, 3 young mares and some good Holstein springers for sale.

—Gale & Parsons, of Rock Hall, have moved their broom factory from the farm to Benjamin Coburn's Hall, opposite the wharf lane.

—Messrs. Hackett and Boone, of the School for the Blind in Baltimore, were in Kent this week and made speeches in different parts of Kent.

—Julius H. Barnes has been appointed wheat director of the United States by President Wilson. He will direct the handling of the entire 1919 wheat crop.

—The asparagus growers in Kent and Queen Annes counties will hold a meeting in Chestertown Thursday next, May 1, at 3 p. m., to discuss the problem of shipping asparagus.

—Mr. Harry Willis' name was unintentionally omitted from the copy sent us of the Betterton Victory Loan Committee. Mr. Willis is one of the committee.

—Many Chestertown young men and young ladies attended a big dance in Centerville on Monday night and danced well on into the early hours of next morning.

—The Fifth District of Kent County can boast of the best peach orchards in Kent. They are well kept and will no doubt produce a good yield of luscuscus fruit.

—Mr. Knoll, who recently purchased a lot on the river from Mr. E. R. Anthony, has begun the erection of a bungalow. Mr. Harry Cannon is doing the work.

—The contract to complete the state road to Rock Hall has been awarded to Mr. McLaughlin, formerly of the Holt Construction Co. The contract price is $76,800 for the 3 1-2 miles.

—Posters have been received in Chestertown and posted about Kent county announcing a big meeting in the interest of the League of Nations to be held tomorrow afternoon at Easton.

—Mr. W. C. Sutton has sold to a gentleman from Norfolk the big auto passenger bus which the firm of Graham, Sutton & Clements formerly operated between Chestertown and Tolchester.

—The strawberry patches of Kent are now in full bloom with prospects for a good crop. Verily the growing crops and the coming summer promises happy times for Kent people who enjoy good eating.

—F. J. H. Krackle, Public Service Commissioner of New York City, says that if the present rate of growth of that city is maintained that in 1950 the city would have a population of over 12,000,000 persons.

—Mrs. Adelia Powers has the highest average in the civil service examination for the Millington postmastership to succeed the late W. F. Collins. The people of Millington are awaiting the appointment with interest.

—The Kent County colored athletic meet was held in Chestertown on Monday and many local colored boys are proudly wearing medals, which denotes that they were somewhat superior to their brethren of the country.

—Mr. Harvey Brice, of near Rock Hall, has the prettiest and largest cherry tree that we have seen in Kent. It is mammoth in size and is literally covered with beautiful blossoms. We predict a good yield of cherries for Mr. Brice and family, as well as plenty of good food for the robins and other birds.

—Fish have been distributed as follows in Eastern Shore waters recently: North East River, 40,000,000 yellow perch; Battery Flats, 6,400,000 yellow perch; Elk River, 4,600,000 yellow perch; Chesapeake Bay, 28,150,000 white perch; Elk River, 23,500,000 white perch; Battery Flats, 23,500,000 white perch; Susquehanna River, 5,500,000 white perch; North East River 12,000,000 white perch.

—Thousands of men who entered the war perfect physically are now cripples for life. These men will be taught a method of earning their living by the government. They must begin all over again. The government merely asks you to lend your money at a fair rate of interest to help pay the expense. Will you hesitate to subscribe to the Victory Liberty Loan? We think not.

—The Chestertown Candy Kitchen has moved into its new quarters on the corner of High and Queen streets. This progerssive firm has made big improvements in the place and have quarters that are equally as attractive as in the Sparks Building. Mr. A. L. Sparks, who will occupy the store next to the Candy Kitchen temporarily, has moved some goods and will remove the balance next week.

—The plowing done by the tractors at the tractor demonstration given at the farms of Mr. Marion Malcomb and Mr. Julian Jones on Wednesday afternoon proved satisfactory. A large number of farmers were present and we heard much favorable comment on the work of each tractor. All did their work well. They plowed at the rate of about 1 acre an hour at a cost of less than 50 cents.

—Chestertown will have day current beginning July 1. This will be quite a convenience for Chestertown people.

—The statement in the copy furnished us last week for the Victory Loan adv. that that space had been donated by the Chestertown Bank of Md. and the Kent Co. Savings Bank was an error made by the secretary of the committee. The space is donated by the Victory Loan committee. We have been requested to note the correction.

—Mr. Nick Carter, the state road police, is pretty active these days, when many city autoists who come down the shore think they can use the state roads of this section as a speedway. Mr. Carter was put on the road to stop speeding, which endangers the lives of others, and he says he intends to do it. He is a brother of Sheriff Carter.

WEDDINGS

As was forecasted in this paper Saturday, the wedding of Mr. Henry Gill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Gill, of Chestertown, to Miss Ruth Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Allen, also of Chestertown, occurred last Saturday morning at 7 o'clock, Rev. J. L. Ward, pastor of the Chestertown M. P. Church, performing the ceremony at the parsonage. Miss Nellie Massey, a cousin of the bride, and Mr. Robert R Hill, uncle of the groom, were present. Mr. Hill took the happy young couple to Elkton, where they took the 8.32 train for Baltimore, where they have been spending their honeymoon. Miss Allen is one of the most charming young ladies of the town, and has been one of the efficient telephone operators at the telephone office here, while Mr. Gill is the linotype operator at the office of the Chestertown Enterprise and has been assisting Mr. J. L. Loud in his ice cream parlor for many years.

The wedding of Lester W. Baldwin, Esq., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, of Chestertown, to Miss Irene Cecile Pinney, of Pensacola, Florida, took place Wednesday at that place Mr .and Mrs. Baldwin will reside in Baltimore.

The wedding of Miss Mary Carolene McKee, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McKee, and one of Chestertown's popular young ladies, to Mr. G. H. Ellett, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Ellett, of Aberdeen, took place at St. Paul's Rectory, in Wilmington, being performed by Rev. Father Waldron, pastor of St. Paul's Church. The bride wore a blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried violets. They returned to Chestertown yesterday, Friday, and reside in one of the Wickes' houses on Cannon St. They received many handsome presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Hamilton, of Betterton, announce the marriage of their daughter, Emily Anne, to Mr. Edgar Duvall Brownley, of Winchester, Va., on Monday April 7.
