Mississippi leader to speak for NAACP

The Rev. Robert L. T. Smith, pastor and civil rights leader from Jackson, Miss., will be the main speaker for "Get Out the Vote Rally" at Sharp Street Memorial Methodist Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts., this Sunday at 2:30 p.m.

Senator J. Glenn Beall and senate aspirant Joseph Tydings, and other Democratic and Republican candidates running for office in the Nov. 3 election, have been invited.

Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, president of the Baltimore Branch NAACP, announced that this will be a major effort by the NAACP to have its' members and friends in Baltimore community meet the candidates and learn first-hand the NAACP position on the other important issues.

The Rev. Mr. Smith is the Pastor of St. John's Baptist Church. He has been instrumental in the organization of the Freedom Democratic Party and has been a political candidate for office, holding the distinction of being the first colored person to run for Congress since Reconstruction.

THE REV. Mr. Smith is the father of 11 children, and has himself been a victim of recurring reprisals because of his forthright civil rights stand.

The public is invited and urged to make a special effort to come out to this important rally. Ministers around the city are cooperating in mobilizing support.

Dr. W. W. Payne of Wayland Baptist Church and Rev. George Baynard, pastor of Shiloh Christian Community Church, will be parging in the program, and the choirs of these 2 major congregations will provide music.

Shields-Wise wedding held

Miss Maxine Wise and James H. Shields Jr., were married Saturday night at St. Philips Baptist Church, 1001 N. Capitol St. with Wilbert C. Cole, minister, officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wise, 2428 First St., NW, was given in marriage by her father.

Her gown was white satin floor-length with a neatly fitted bodice, long sleeves with a full skirt.

She wore a long veil but no jewelry and carried a white satin Bible covered with white orchids.

Mrs Barbara S. Hungerford was matron of honor and Misses Sarah Etheridge and Carolyn Wise, sister to the bride, were bridesmaids. George Lee Crosser was bestman.

Mrs. Lavone Williams played the wedding music.

Mrs. Sheilds, a graduate of McKinley High School, is employed in the Patent Office Personnel Office, while Mr. Shields, also an employee of Patent Office, is a graduate of Phelps and Armstrong Schools, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Shields Sr., 1006 New Jersey Ave., NW.
