Gray Day turns to Gay Day at Morgan

with Lula Jones Garrett

It may have started out a gray day, but it certainly ended a gay one for Morgan State College homecomers, Saturday.

The homecoming activities, of coures, had actually started on Friday evening. There was a jam session of the Vets' Club in the gymnasium early that evening, followed by a pep rally. The Varsity "M" held forth later in the Canteen.

And early Saturday morning the Morgan ladies were completely ignoring the rain outside and being very festive in the lobby of the Murphy Fine Arts Building as they poured coffee for the scores of returning Morganites.

After the game, and its attending activities, they returned to the Fine Arts Building, for an Alumni Coffee Hour . . went on to dinner in the Refectory, and were entertained by the various sororities and fraternities at "At Homes" in various buildings.

NOW THE GAME was over, and the "Old Gang" had gathered at the manse in Morgan Park of the Talmadge Hills.

Coach "Marse" (Hill) had been the "Man of the Day." Marking his retirement from coaching (but not from the Morgan Staff) the Alumni had applauded him, had gifted him with a beautiful plaque, and this was a time for reminiscing . . for sipping . . for feasting.

The Barry Joneses were there from New Haven, Conn., Dr. and Mrs. Pervis Williams, the Richard Sowells, Bruce Brown and the Samuel Tyrees from Washington were about. Dr. and Mrs. Leroy Walker from North Carolina College, Durham; Theodore Still and Mrs. M. Lively from Philadephia, Joe and Dottie Bostic from Brooklyn, N.Y., Lee Bostic, attorney, and Mrs. Bostic Fred Berry (Mrs Hill's father) from Lynchburb; Lillian Brown from Jersey City, Patrick Walker from Cheyney, Pa., were all there. There, too wee the Talmadge Hills, Jr. from Washington, and their three - month - old daughter, Talmira.

And ofcourse, a flock of Baltimoreans, including the Edgar Ewings, Dr. and Mrs. Louis Harmon, the Elmer Pattersons, Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams, the Kenneth Browns, Coaches Earl Banks and Jesse Thomas, the Brutus Wilsons, Aretha Mayo and Rapp Wheatley. The party, in the tones of yesteryear, was mellow.

MR. HILL had also been gifted by the Varsity "M" men at their dinner meeting Friday evening. This party also drew a number of out-of-townes, including the Patherson team, Joseph W. and Joseph T. Cassidy from White Plain, N.Y. Robert Tweatt James Austin and Herry E. Smith came from New York, Andrew Robinson from Washington, and Pat Walker from Delaware were also there.

Localities participating included Mathew Marcus, Leroy St. Thomas, Irvin St. Thomas, Irvin Locust, Ernest Lindsey, Waters Turnin, Bertham Harrington, Osborne Dixon, Thomas Hasty, Jr., J.J. Hurt.

Also Norwell Hunter, William Gardner, James H. Williams, Alphonso Cottman, William Hurdle, William Gantt, Hugh P. Hughes, Elmer Patterson, Russell Young, Ernest Chester, Robert Matthews, Richard Roberts, Liston George, Donald Patterson, who is president of the club; Flan Couch, treasurer; and Dr. James Priest, vice president.
