LOCAL MATTERS

Truck Burns.—While enroute from Centreville to Chestertown one day last week, the Red C oil truck ignited and was destroyed by fire in a few minutes. The driver of the truck had just gotten off when the fire occurred. The fire occurred in front of the farm of Mr. J. C. Seney, about two miles from Chestertown.

Liberty Loan Campaign Opens In Kent County.—The campaign to raise Kent county's quota of the Victory Liberty Loan commenced Tuesday evening, when an enthusiastic meeting was held in Firemen's Hall, Chestertown, and addresses were made by E. J. Colgain, Esq., of the Baltimore bar, and Captain Frank B. Hines, the latter speaking in the highest terms of the work done in France by the Kent county boys. Farson's band rendered some good music. Subscriptions aggregating about $11,750 were taken. The work of raising Kent's quota is being rushed. See adv. in this issue for other meetings.

A Fine Herd of Cattle.—Mrs. Mary Moorris, wife of the late Walter T. Morris, wife of the late Walter T. of the finest herds of cattle in the county. Dr. G. Allen Jarman recently tested 48 head of cattle for tuberculosis, without any evidence whatever of that disease. Five years ago Dr. Jarman made the same test for 60 head of cattle for Mr. Morris with the same result. Dr. Jarman says this shows that when a herd of cattle is free of tuberculosis and no new cattle are brought in and the animals are kept under sanitary conditions, there is not likely to be any tuberculosis appear in the herd.

Young Fox Hunters Who Know The Business.—While Kent County has a great many fox hunters who know the sport in every detail, there are few if any of the fox hunters of Kent county who have "anything" on Mr. Harvey Brice, son of Mr. John Brice, of near Rock Hall, and Mr. Arthur Burris, son of Mr. A. B. Burris, of Quaker Neck. Both Messrs. Brice and Burris, Seniors, are old fox hunters, and these young men have a right to be good at the game. Mr. Brice's uncle is Mr. George Brice, well known here, and manager of the Peapack Hunt Club, New Jersey. He is said to be one of the leading fox hunters of the world. Both these young men ride superbly and know the tricks of renard well. It is a pleasure to hunt with them, because they know just where the fox is going and what to do in every emergency.

A Lively Fox Hunt In The Fifth District.—One of the biggest fox hunts of the year was pulled off in the Fifth District on Monday last by Mr. Harvey Brice, Mr. Arthur Burris, Mr. H. T. Richardson and others. A fox was started a few miles from Mr. Brice's home at about 9 a. m., with the wind blowing almost a gale at time. The well-trained hounds of Messrs. Brice, Burris and Richardson and the hounds of the Chestertown hunters hung to the trail with a persistency that promised an interesting affair and in less than three hours, the hounds set such a pace that the fox was forced to seek refuge in a hollow tree. By the time the fox went to cover, the small crowd that had started the race had reached major proportions, there being about thirty present when Mr. Harvey Brice extricated the fox from the tree. Mr. John Brice took the animal to his house and released her. The hunters then went to Eastern Neck Island to resume the race. The well-seasoned dogs of Messrs. Brice, Burris and Richardson there demonstrated their superiority over the other hounds, with the result that after a period of about four hours in the afternoon the Chestertown dogs were well in the rear. It was a great race, however, and even the women who were present enjoyed it.

Church Leaders Perfect Plans For Big Drive.—Prominent churchmen and laymen enlisted as campaigners to put through the centenary program of the M. E. Church for world relief work Wednesday perfected plans for a whirlwind tour through cities and towns in Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, West Virginia and Virginia, and the District of Columbia, to inaugurate a drive for humanity dollars. We will have more about this work later.

Fountain To Be Hanged.—Isaiah Fountain was found guilty of criminally assaulting the 14-year-old Talbot Co. girl at Easton Thursday afternoon, and Judge Adkins passed the death sentence upon him. The jury was out but eight minutes. The case was one of the worst in the history of the Eastern Shore. The trial began on Monday, but that night at about 10.30, the negro, after being taken from the court room to the jail, escaped through a rear window while the officers and the sheriff were holding a mob back. Then began a chase which has not been seen on the Eastern Shore in many years. The net of the law was spread over the peninsula which made the man's escape almost impossible. Sheriff Carter, Deputy Perkins and the other local officers assisted in the hunt and were a few miles away from the man at the time of his capture at Hartley, Del., on Wednesday. From there he was taken back to Easton, and it was thought that an attempt to lynch him would be made that night. Great crowds thronged to the town from all over the shore, but no attempt at lynching was made.

Lumber Questions.

"Why should I bother about where my builder buys his lumber? Isn't that his affair?"

Well, remember that you are going to live in the house, and he isn't. It's better to bother now than to be unhappy for years because you didn't.

And remember that a contractor who gets his lumber from a twenty-five-year-old concern is most likely to be a contractor who builds to last.

There are other good lumber firms—we know it; but you will wear out several good tires before you find one better.

No lumber is perfect. At the best you have to take some chances. Why take more than you have to?

Some day you'll build. Build to last. See that the lumber comes from CULP.
