UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

We received a very interesting letter from Captain J. Thomas Kibler the other day and print below a portion of it. It is dated April 4 and written in Vallendor, Germany. It is as follows in part:

Well here we are in Germany with the good old ball season coming on. We are planning to have a big season in athletics over here, but, oh, boy, how I would love to be home. It looks now as if the regular army is going to be here for some time. Our big league opens next Wednesday afternoon. We have eight clubs in our league, playing two games a week. We should have some good baseball. I have charge of all athletics in our regiment and I will coach the divisional team also, and I guess I will play a little also, as I am still full of "pep" and I believe I can still hit them. I believe my hand will trouble me some, but I believe I can soon get used to handling the ball with three fingers.

We have had very bad weather for baseball up to date, but we look for some good weather soon.

We are right on the Rhine, only three miles from Coblenz, and it is very pretty, but the old Chester river would look mighty good to me right now.

I am certainly glad the W. C. boys had a good basketball season, and I hope they can do as well in baseball. I am certainly pulling for them all the time.

I guess most all of the town boys are home by this time and I know they are mighty glad to get back.

Well, I hope they soon get the peace terms all signed, as we may get a chance to come home then.

Remember me to all the boys, and wishing you all the luck in the world.

Lieut. Norman Crouch, of Garden City, N. Y., was home for Easter the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Crouch.

Sergeant Frank Jarman, of Camp Meade, has been home for the week.

Private Harold Matthews, of Camp Meade, has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Matthews, this week.

Lieut. William Earl Stephens, formerly of Kent County, and age 28 years, who died of meningitis in France November 27, received his assignment to an officers' training school for bravery. Definite news of his service overseas has been received by his mother, Mrs. Beatrice Stephens, 5028 Irving St., Philadelphia, from his comrades. Lieut. Stephens was formerly long distance manager of the Keystone Telephone Co. and was commissioned a lieutenant in the Signal Corps in May, 1917. He resigned in August because he wanted immediate overseas service and enlisted in Co. G, 109th Infantry. At Camp Hancock he he was promoted to sergeant in the signal platoon and went to France with other non-commissioned officers in advance with a special division. During a night attack on July 14-15, telephone lines were broken down by shell fire six times and each time Lieut. Stephens re-established the service. For this and other heroic work in the second battle of the Marne he was recommended for promotion and sent to an officers training school. Upon graduation on Oct. 8, he was assigned to the 125th Infantry as second lieutenant while that regiment was at Gesnes, France.

This battle was over difficult ground, making it hard to maintain communication. Lieut. Stephens was relieved Oct. 22, and in the two weeks' fight maintained perfect telephone and radio communications. On Nov. 1, he went into battle again and remained there until the peace armistice was signed. On his way to the zone of occupation he fell ill and on Nov. 3 was sent to the Third Corps Collecting Hospital, where he died. He is buried in the American section of a French cemetery at Longwy.

He is survived by his mother and two sisters, Mrs. R. G. Ringgold, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. F. G. Winters, of Oaklyn, N. J.

—That the native birds are one of Kent county's most valuable assets is patent. Destroy them and in a few years the destroying insects will overrun the vegetation, plants will cease to thrive, and crops cannot be raised. So universally is this fact being recognized that more and more are people coming to the point where they expend untiring effort in the preservation of bird life.
