Lumber Questions.

"Why should I bother about where my builder buys his lumber? Isn't that his affair?"

Well, remember that you are going to live in the house, and he isn't. It's better to bother now than to be unhappy for years because you didn't.

And remember that a contractor who gets his lumber from a twenty-five-year-old concern is most likely to be a contractor who builds to last.

There are other good lumber firms—we know it; but you will wear out several good tires before you find one better.

No lumber is perfect. At the best you have to take some chances. Why take more than you have to?

Some day you'll build. Build to last. See that the lumber comes from CULP.

Navy Leads Again.—Subscriptions to the Victory Liberty Loan were 100 per cent at the opening of the Navy Recruiting Station, Baltimore, on Apr. 21, 1919. Every member of the force, both officers and enlisted personnel, subscribed to a bond as soon as the campaign opened. The Navy Recruiting Station is helping in every way to make the last great loan a tremendous success. The work at the Recruiting Station has increased materially and Maryland is keeping her place in Navy Recruiting. At the present time special efforts are being made for seamen, machinists' mates, hospital corpsmen and colored mess attendants. For further particulars apply to the Navy Recruiting Station, Calvert & Lexington Sts., Baltimore, or the Sub-Stations, at Cumberland and Hagerstown.

Baldwin-Pinney Nuptial Event.—One of the biggest weddings of the year at Pensacola took place last Thursday evening when Miss Irene Pinney, a prominent and attractive young lady of that city, became the bride of Ensign Lester W. Baldwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Baldwin, of Chestertown and a member of the Baltimore bar. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin left for an extended wedding trip which will include points of interest in the south and northeast and will later go to Baltimore, where they will reside. The Pensacola Times contained a lengthy and interesting account of the wedding and among other nice things regarding the bride said: "The bride, who is of an exquisite type of brunette beauty, was a vision of girlish loveliness in her wedding dress, fashioned of heavy white satin, elaborately draped, with court train and tulle sleeves. She wore a long tulle veil, becomingly arranged cap effect and caught with sprays of orange blossoms and carried a large arm bouquet of bridal roses showered with lillies-of-the-valley. After the ceremony the guests assembled in the dining room where the bride's cake was cut and refreshments served.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

The following letter is from Private George D. Jamar to his sister, Mrs. Mildred Crouch, of Kent County:

I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know I am still living and well, and hope that you and the rest are the same. Well, there isn't anything to tell you because nothing ever happens up here (Darn, Germany), where we are and it is enough to give a fellow the blues. It is the same thing, day in and day out. If something would only happen so that a fellow could cremate a few of these Dutch once and a while, a fellow would not long for home so much. Well, I have been over seven months the 14th of this month. My company, myself included, was under shell fire for 45 days and when our Uncle Samuel is ready to take me home I am right with him. I don't know when that will be because our regiment is in the Army of Occupation and it looks like the O. A. is S. O. L., if you know what that means.

Mr. Jamar enclosed a picture that was an excellent likeness of himself.

Sergeant McCready Biddle, of Crumpton, returned to the home of his parents minus the second finger on his right hand last week. Sergeant Biddle lost his finger last fall when in battle, his own rifle exploding and taking away the finger. He frequently wrote his parents with his left hand stating that his right hand was in bad shape. He went to France with the 313th Infantry in July last and saw considerable active service. Other than the loss of his finger he is in good shape.

The daily papers of Tuesday stated that all the Maryland soldiers and replacement troops of the 29th Division are due at Camp Meade by May 18. It means on the face of it that the 115th Infantry and the men from Maryland in all other units of the 29th will be on Maryland soil in about two weeks. The major part of the Kent county boys are in this division.

Private Charles Rodney received his honoarble discharge from the army and is now at his home in Rock Hall.

Sergeant Merritt Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brown, of Chestertown, is on the way home from France.

Mr. Roland H. Crewe, son of Mrs. Sarah C. Crewe, of Betterton, has been released from active duty and is now attending the University of Paris.
