Judge, Mrs. Lane to 'free lance' Europe

By Lula Jones Garrett

Judge and Mrs. E. Everett Lane will be off on a free lance tour of Europe on March 6, sailing on the Greek S. S. Queen Frederica for Athens, Greece and a cruise of the historic islands, mediate stops at Gibraltar, mediate stops at Gibraltar, Palermo, Naples and Messina. From Greece, the Lanes will go to Istanbul, Turkey, from where they will fly to Rome, and will visit Florence, Pisa and Venice. Thence to Madrid, Barcelona and Seville in Spain.

Included in the itinerary is a visit to Lisbon, Portugal. Then they will go to Paris and to Saarbrucken, in Germany, where they will visit Mrs. Lane's niece, Charlotte Wesley, who is there appearing in opera. The Lanes' next stop will be Munich, then on to Vienna, Austria and Berlin. After a visit in Cologne, Germany, they will wind up their tour in London. They will be gone four or more months.

DR. FLEMMIE KITTRELL, who heads the department of home economics at Howard University, drew any number of Baltimoreans to Washington, Saturday.

She and Phyllis Tilley entertained the Hampton Pals (a club of Hampton Institute alumni) in the fabulous new home ec building on the H.U campus.

Over from here were Gwendolyn Lewis, Melissa Perdue, Pattie Page, Lois Carter, Catherine Royster, Inez Kent, Thelma Rice, Vernice Wyne, Mae Parrish, Zella Washington, Catherine Adams, Estelle Thomas and Thelma Rice. Joining them were Gladys Cunningham and Fanny Stewart of Washington, and Marion Overton of Philadelphia.

Alpha Zeta Chapter of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority plans began the annual observance of Finer Womanhood Week, Saturday with a program at the Anna Mae Hunter Home for the Blind, where they presented sheets to Mrs. Hunter.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Beatrice G. Pitts with the youth groups of the sorority participating.

On Sunday they worshiped with the members of Gamma Chapter at the Morgan Christian Center. On Saturday a luncheon will be held at the Forest Manor at which time a few of their members, Mrs. Goldia Ford and Mrs. J. Ethel Hodges, who have recently retired from Bon Ballaire Public School System, will be honored. Mrs. Isolene Crowner is chairman of the luncheon committee.

The week's activities will be culminated with a public meeting and tea at the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Sunday

Miss Pamela Leach, a junior at Wellesley College, Massachusetts, will be the speaker. Chapter members who attended the regional conference in Long Island last fall were greatly impressed by this youthful and dynamic speaker at the regional luncheon and invited her to Baltimore for this observance. She will speak on the subject "Women and Youth Unite for Freedom."

During this public meeting Mrs. Mary Carter Smith, school librarian, will be honored as Alpha Zeta's "Woman of the Year for 1965." Miss Brenda Thompson, "Miss Morgan," as "Zeta of the Year" and Miss Montana Morton, a student at Douglass High School as "Girl of the Year." Mrs. Beatrice H. Hall is chairman of the finer Womanhood Week Activities and Mrs. Mary B. Hurt is basileus of the chapter.

Plans also were completed for their spring dance which will be held on Friday, April 30. Mrs. Beatrice G. Pitts is chairman of this project.

Mrs. Mary B. Hurt presented a certificate to Miss Beatrice A. Mayo as a life member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Present at the meeting were:

SORORS OF Alpha Gamma chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority (Morgan State College) had a cute motif for their Founders' Day program, recently.

They held forth in the Student Union. Had a theme "World Spotlight on Delta." Dressed as Delta Airline stewardesses, and had their passengers pretend to be on a trip around the world via aid. The pilot pointed out where Delta women are serving in various countries, with special note to chapters in Sierra Leone and Liberia.

Their speaker was the national treasurer, Thelma Daly.

In connection with the National Library project of the sorority, Alpha Gamma chapter is sponsoring a reading club, "Ride the Winged Horse." The purpose is to cultivate the reading interests of young people, and the theme is from the Greek myth of Pegasus and the Flying Horse.

This reading club will meet in the Madison Avenue branch of the YWCA each Saturday beginning with the 27th and through April 10, from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The session Saturday will be an orientation period. Mayor Jean Cole, president of the Baltimore Alumni chapter, and children's librarian at the Central Branch of
