AME's in 149th meeting at Trinity and Bethel

Through Sunday, the 149th session of the Baltimore Methodist Episcopal Church is being held at Trinity AME Church, E. Hoffman and Collington Ave., and Bethel AME Church, Lanvale and Druid Hill Ave.

The session opened Wednesday morning at Trinity with the annual sermon and communion. Speakers included Bishop Frederick D. Jordon of Nashville, Tenn., and Dr. McCoy Ranson, historian of the church

Wednesday evening a Men's Night program was held at Bethel and Thursday evening the laymen of the church met.

• • •

UPCOMING activities include a Youth Night this evening (Friday), a Saturday morning conference of the Workers for Kittrell College and the noon elections of the Conference Missionary Women.

Saturday afternoon will feature a laymen's assembly and a tea from 5 to 7 p.m. at Trinity.

Highlights of the program will be the address by Bishop George Baber, presiding prelate of the Second Episcopal District, Sunday morning.

Sunday afternoon a public forum composed of civil rights leaders will be presented.

Day sessions are being held at Trinity and the evening and Sunday meetings at Bethel.

In its resolutions, the conference has taken a strong stand on civil rights and support of the President's poverty program.

A housing authority, set up by the conference, will participate in government housing planning to work for low cost housing, nursing home and homes for senior citizens.

Plans are also being made for the 150th celebration of the conference in 1966 in Baltimore and Washington.

The Baltimore Conference, birthplace of African Methodism, has 75 churches and 15,000 members in Baltimore, Washington and parts of Maryland.

Rights groups to show support for housing law

The Federation of Civil Rights Organizations announced today it will stage a "for" demonstration at City Hall 5 p.m. Monday.

FCRO spokesmen stressed the point that this will be a demonstration "in support of favorable action" it hopes the City Council will take at its regular session.

The ordinance is sponsored by Mayor Theodore McKeldin, who kept his promise that he would enact such legislation if the General Assembly failed to act. It did.

Edward Chance, former chairman of the local CORE, is coordinator of the demonstration which he described as "Not a protest, nor a demonstration against anything."

"Rather it is to show our support for Council men who are making an effort to provide fair housing opportunity for all citizens of the community," he said.

Cooperating groups include:

• • •

THE NAACP, Urban League, Interdenominational Ministers Alliance, Catholic Interracial Council, Civic Interest Group, American Civil Liberties Union and Baltimore Fellowship, Inc.

Dr. Furman L. Templeton of the Urban League is acting chairman of FCRO.

Fire Co. hit in actress's death

CHICAGO (UPI) — A suburban Fire Department Thursday was accused of "complete negligence" in battling the fire which killed actress Linda Darnell.

The charge against the Glenview Fire Department was made by Mrs. Muriel J. Harding, a neighbor who turned in the alarm when flames gushed from the living room of the home where Miss Darnell was visiting.

Mrs. Harding testified at an inquest held in the Cook County Morgue. She said firemen were late in answering the alarm, couldn't get their equipment on, and were forced to take Miss Darnell to the hospital in a police car because the door of an ambulance jammed.

Provident tea to benefit new hospital

Proceeds from the 18th annual tea and fashion show of the Provident Hospital Auxiliary are ear-marked for new equipment for the dietary department of the hospital.

The tea will be catered by the diet department under the supervision of Edgar Allen, director of dietetics at the hospital.

This new equipment will be transferred into the new Provident Hospital.

Mr. Allen is proud of the fact several of the employees in the diet department are participating in evening courses in dietary management sponsored by the Adult Division of Schools.

Westinghouse given new missle contract

U.S. Sen. Daniel B. Brewster announced Tuesday that the Department of the Navy Special Projects Office has issued a $4,500,000 contract to the Westinghouse Electric Corp. in Baltimore.

This will be primarily a study project for development efforts related to the fleet ballistic missile system, and 70 percent of the work will be done in the city.

However, a spokesman for the company told the AFRO that because it is a development project at this stage, employment at the corporation will not be substantially increased.

Mayor proclaims this 'JAC Day'

Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin has proclaimed today (Friday) as "Junior Association of Commerce Day" in honor of that organization's successful bid to obtain for Baltimore the 1967 national convention of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce.

AFRO readers will recall this association's efforts spearheaded the move that kept the H.G. Parks Co. here, in a reversal of a city refusal of sale of urban renewal property to the sausage manufacturing organization.

South Baltimore Notes

By WALTER W. E. HILL

Mr. and Mrs. William Polk are spending the week-end in Ohio visiting relatives and friends.

Graduation will soon be at hand for Mrs. Rita Mason, who will have completed a course in nursing on May 27.

Sympathy is extended to the bereaved family of the late Mrs. Lottie C. Hill, 1005 S. Sharp St., who died on April 16.

Mrs. Reginia McCoy on her recent birthday was showered with many goodies from fellow workers and friends.

The Easter Monday egg hunting was canceled at Star of Bethlehem AME Church due to weather conditions.

Miss Yvonne Harrison visited relatives and friends in New York City.

Home Neighborhoods and Communities are had by your participation in the Police Community Relation Council meetings. Next one is April 27 at 8 p.m. (S.W. Dist.)

Morgan student in campus mishap

Miss Annie McGhee, a Morgan State College junior in science education, was taken to Union Memorial Hospital Thursday afternoon after a mishap on campus that occurred when the trailer on a telephone company truck worked itself loose.

The hospital said Miss McGhee would be released Thursday, indicating her injuries were not serious.

The incident occurred off Cold Spring Lane near the Student Union Building.

Reds refuse peace parley

TOKYO — Communist China officially rejected the appeal by neutral nations for unconditional peace negotiations on Vietnam. Peking, in an editorial in the semi-official Peking People's Daily, said the appeal was a "deliberate attempt to absolve the United States from its crimes."

Watts testimonial

Upwards of 600 persons have paid in advance for tickets to the testimonial banquet for Judge Robert B. Watts on Wednesday, April 28, at Blue Crest North.

The 'thank you' affair is being co-chaired by Samuel T. Daniels and Mrs. Emma Michael. Members of the committee represent a cross-section of the community.

Testimonial headquarters are at 130 7 Eutaw Place. A few tickets are still available.

TEA MODELS for the 18th annual event sponsored by the Provident Hospital Women's Auxiliary will be the Pinnie Ross models and they will display fashions from the "little nothing garments" through home attire to the go-anywhere fashions. An audience of 3,000 is expected for the tea and fashion show. A receiving line forms at 3:15 p.m. and will include Dr. Saul Perdue, chairman of the hospital board and Henry Whyte, hospital administrator. Mayor McKeldin and Congressman Sikes will be among the guests. Models attired are Mesdames Pinnie Ross, Barbara Owens, Rosetta Johnson and Maggie Watkins. Standing are Miss Rae Ross, Pixie model; Mrs. Ruth Tibbs, chairman of volunteers and guest model; Miss Willie Bland, fashion commentator; Miss Betty Sims and Miss Mildred Dorsey.

Zoning Bd. allows new homes on Forest Pk. Ave.

Approval to construct two semi - detached one - story dwellings at 4116-16½ Forest Park Ave. was granted Tuesday by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals.

Also okayed at the weekly board meeting was a request to house 16 families at 1427-31 McCulloh St.

Here are other cases heard in which the board granted its approval:

1001 - 1003 Hillman St. — storage building; 3503 Foster Ave. —non - resident doctor's office; 1701 W. Lexington St. —used clothing store; 6122 Rusk Ave. — construct shed; 5940 Belair Rd. — erect sign; 911 N. Carey St. —first floor non - resident doctor's office.

• • •

REJECTED by the board were thee cases:

851 N. Bentalou St. — use basement for coin machine laundry; 2901 Erdman Ave.—construct one-story addition; 725 Deepdene Rd. — front addition.

The board also ruled against a negative appeal which would have prohibited the construction of some detached dwellings at 3306-08 Rosalie Ave.

No hearings are scheduled for the coming Tuesday.

2 play areas approved for Madison-Park North

Final approval for the construction of two playgrounds in the Baltimore Urban Renewal and Housing Agency's Madison-Park North was given by the agency's commission Wednesday.

The projects will be under supervision of the Department of Recreation.

One is in the area of Brookfield Ave. near Lenox, and the other adjacent to a school in the Brookfield Ducatel St sector.

In other business, the commission granted priority to the Marvin Gilliman, Van Arkel and Moss Co. for the development of housing construction on a vacant tract north of Howard St. in the vector of Park Ave. and Bolton St.

Plans are for either high-rise or low apartments, or perhaps other form of housing, this phase is still undetermined, with construction to begin this fall.

• • •

WHETHER THEY will be for sale or rental and at what income level also remains undisclosed.

Still in other business, Richard Steiner, BURHA director, requested and got commission approved that no further renewal planning be conducted in the Mount Vernon area north of Eager St., until the residents demonstrate they are ready to support such a program.

The decision was the result of controversial meetings with neighborhood associations in the area in February and March.

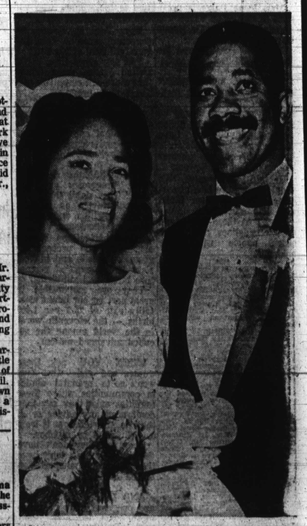
League of Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Baltimore City announces that it is located at Sutton Place, 1111 Park Ave., Baltimore 1. "We have moved to a new location in order to offer better service to the community," said Mrs. W. Newton Long Jr., president.

Inmate testing resumes at jail

With the cooperation of Mr. Hiram L. Schoonfield, warden of the Baltimore City Jail, the City Health Department has re-instituted a project for tuberculosis and syphilis case-finding among inmates.

The project had temporarily been discontinued a little over a year ago because of new construction at the jail. Past experience has shown that jail prisoners have a high incidence of both diseases.



CECIL COOPER, city school teacher, and his bride, the former Miss Elizabeth Wyche, are shown following their marriage in Baltimore, last week.

Sterno Seller Acquitted

LONDON — Diplomatic observers said the French boycott of the Southeast Asia Treaty Oranization (SEATO) conference in London next month could weaken SEATO and U.S. policy in Vietnam.
