RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Passed By The Kent County Bar In Memory of The Late Judge Albert Constable

Whereas in his own way and in his own time it hath pleased Almighty God to call to its Eternal Home the soul of our deceased brother, the late Albert Constable, Chief Judge of the Second Judicial Circuit of the State of Maryland, we desire to express in a lasting form the sense of our grief at his passing and our earnest recognition of the life of a good man a just judge; therefore

Be It Resolved, That the Bar of Kent County sincerely laments the death of the late Albert Constable, which came at an age when his full powers were fast developing, when life seemed to hold for him those rewards and honors which are so dear to the man whose life has been so lived as to equip himself morally and mentally to fill such a high judicial office and to dispense justice evenly and impartially, with the profound knowledge of law which he possessed to a high degree, as had become recognized throughout the State during the six years he was a member of the highest court of the State of Maryland. In the same spirit he administered the law in the Nisi Prius Courts in the five counties of this circuit, in each of which he was well known and greatly beloved by all citizens with whom he came in contact at the sessions of the respective Circuit Courts where he was uniformly regarded with esteem, respect and honor, and where his loss will be peculiarly felt, not only by the citizens but by the court officials, and by all who had occasion from time to time to meet and know him. The highest regard was entertained for him personally by members of the bar throughout the state who met and knew him while sitting in Maryland's Court of Appeals. It is his just meed to say that his life touched each spot within the bounds of the state of Maryland. He had most pleasant relations with the leaders of the bar in all the counties of the state—by all of whom he was no less loved and respected than by the members of the bar of the five counties comprising the Second Judicial Circuit.

A man of unblemished integrity and character who lived his life in the open light, he leaves behind him a name and character of which his family and his fellow citizens may well be proud. As a young man his life was bright and clean. He was fortunate to have studied the great principles of law under the direction of a remarkable father, who himself was from early life a leader of the bar of the state of Maryland. He had a large and varied practice. His clients were his friends and they placed in him unbounded confidence. As a citizen he did his duty as he saw it, with the firmness and decision which always betokens the just and upright man. After his elevation to the bench no one saw any difference in his bearing and demeanor from that which he had, as a private citizen, always observed as a gentleman and as a Christian.

To his family we extend our warmest and deepest sympathy in their sore trial, and we ask that these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the court as a lasting memorial of his life and example, and that a copy be sent to his widow and family as an expression of the feelings of the members of the bar of Kent County in their bereavement.

The Flow of Meat

Two-thirds of the live stock in the United States has to be raised in the West.

One-half of the consumers of meat live in the East.

In other words, most of the live stock is one or two thousand miles distant from most of the people who need it in the form of food.

Fifty years ago, when live stock was raised close to every consuming center, the country butcher could handle the job after a fashion.

But the job got too big.

Now millions of animals have to be moved hundreds of miles to millions of people. Somewhere on the way they have to be turned into meat.

The packers solved the problem. They set up plants where the "live haul" and the "meat haul" were in the right balance. They built up distributing systems—refrigerator cars, refrigerating plants, branch houses. They saved time, money and meat everywhere. The stockraiser benefited in better markets and higher prices; the consumer, in better meat and lower prices.

As the country grew, the packers had to grow, or break down. Because of its present size and efficiency, Swift & Company is able to perform its part in this service at a fraction of a cent per pound profit.
