Charge Viets provide bodies for U.S. war

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI) — A Drake University professor in a debate with U. S. State Department officials said Wednesday the Vietnamese people are providing "the bodies" for a war conducted by the United States.

Dr. Dwight Saunders, professor of economics, took part in a debate with two State Department officials who were at Drake to explain the American policy regarding Viet Nam.

Saunders said, "This is not their war—this is our war. They are the bodies."

Thomas F. Conlon, representing the State Department's Office of Southwest Pacific Affairs, replied that the North Vietnamese support the Communist policy which is "power grows out of the gun."

Conlon, in the debate, reiterated remarks he had made earlier at a University convocation. He said the Vietnamese situation was a "test case for international security. If Viet Nam is overcome, we are convinced this will only shift the battlefield to another underdeveloped country. We do not wish to see a repetition of the Early Young, special assistant to the director of Vietnamese Affairs of the Agency of International Development, said the government of North Viet Nam is "honestly trying to meet the needs of its people."

New satellite changes orbits

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — A Titan-3A "switch engine" rocket carrying two satellites raced into one orbit and then nipped into another Thursday in a record series of space acrobatics calling for two more path changes.

The sleek Air Force booster, keyed to America's soldier-in-space program, first soared into an orbit ranging from 108 to 125 miles high and then shot into an egg-shaped orbit expected to reach about 1,725 miles above earth.

Dr. Sam faces jail again

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — The Boston, Mass., attorney for Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard said Thursday the "odds are excellent that Sam Sheppard will stay out of prison and I will see that he does."

F. Lee Bailey arrived here in the wake of a federal appeals court order that could send Sheppard back to Ohio penitentiary for killing his wife, Marilyn, July 4, 1954.

SPORTS FANS!
I Bet You Didn't Know

By Robert Plater

Here's a quiz for you on boxing . . . It looks easy, but very few people — even the real good sports fans—can answer all parts correctly . . . Here are five heavyweight boxing champs . . . Joe Louis . . . Jack Dempsey . . . Max Baer . . . Rocky Marciano . . . Floyd Patterson . . . Name the men each one beat to win the championship in the first place

Here are the answers: Louis — James J. Braddock; Dempsey — Jess Willard; Baer — Primo Carnera; Marciano— Joe Walcott; Patterson — Archie Moore.

Ever wonder which golfer has made the most holes-in-one in history . . . Many of us would be happy to get one or two in a lifetime, but the record is held by pro golfer Art Wall . . . In his career, Wall has made more than 30!

What's the record for a big league baseball team winning the most games in a row? . . . The Giants set that mark in 1916 when they won 26 straight . . . Oddly enough, they did not win the pennant that year.

I bet you didn't know . . . that Gage Gentlemen's Corner for Spring 1965 has the most important evolution in styling of men's apparel—the New Shaped Look comes in sharkskins, . . . shadow plaids, and stripes blending with the best elements that crete the effect of elegance and dash.
