The annual convention of the Kent county Sunday School Association was held on Tuesday in the Betterton M. E. Church with morning, afternoon and evening sessions. Of the 22 schools in the county 18 were represented. There were 58 Sunday School delegates and 275 registered. The ladies of the church served a delicious dinner and supper in the basement of the church free to all.

According to information from various churches of the Maryland Conference of the M. P. Church, in which there is now being conducted a drive to raise $250,000 as the conference's quota of the million dollar fund, more than half of the amount was raised on the first day of the drive, which was last Sunday. It is evident that the Maryland Conference will far exceed its quota.

Heinz, the Pickle Man, Once Visited Chestertown

The Baltimore Sun on Thursday gave an account of the death of H. J. Heinz, president of the Pickling and Preserving Corporation of Pittsburg, which concern has international prominence. The death of Mr. Heinz brings to mind his first and only visit to Chestertown. Mr. Heinz was a Methodist Protestant and this denomination has a church in Pittsburg that cost over $200,000, and he being one of the most important members dominated the trustees of the church and having heard that Dr. D. L. Greenfield was a very fine preacher, came to Chestertown on the B. S. Ford one Saturday evening accompanied by one of the stewards of his church, went up to the Voshell House and registered, but dio not tell any one what his mission was, and that evening he and his companion walked all over town, and being strangers, they were regarded with quite a good deal of suspicion. It so happened on that Saturday night that some one broke in a store in Chestertown and the officers' minds naturally reverted to Mr. Heinz and his companion, and when he was approached on the subject he immediately stated who he was and said that he did not come to Chestertown to rob a store, but that he did come for the purpose of robbing Christ M. P. Church of its minister, which he did, and Dr. Greenfield, the following conference year, went to Pittsburg and officiated as pastor for a period of three years.

STILL POND

The devotional service of the Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Miss Mabel Norris. Topic for the evening, "Institute Jewels."

Mr. Harry Jones, of Smyrna, Del., spent last week end at his home here.

A number from here serranaded Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Robinson on Wednesday evening. After the serranade a pleasant evening was spent with singing and music, after which ice cream and cake was served in abundance.

Grange Notes

Fairlee Grange held a most interesting and enjoyable special meeting on Wednesday night. About 50 were out to supper. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Harris were among the visitors. Once more we had the good old garner, edited by Mrs. Maurice Bramble, read by Mrs. Tilghman Hudson. The programme was as follows: Singing by Grange; duet by Misses Gertrude and Laura Reese; monologue by Miss Dorris Bell; solos by Miss Ruth Corey; first part of the Garner; talk by Mrs. Harris on community singing; solo by Mrs. Bell; second part of the Garner; song, "Home Sweet Home," by the Grange.

A special meeting of Fairlee Grange will be held at the home of Mr. Ed. Corey Wednesday, June 4, 7 o'clock. All Fairlee Grangers are requested to be present.
