THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

Published Every Saturday Morning at Chestertown, Md.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RITCHIE, of Baltimore, announced his candidacy this week for Governor of Maryland. Mr. Ritchie's announcement has been expected for some time.

FOR the first time since 1911 the Republicans are in controll of both houses of Congress. Representative Gillett, Republican, of Massachusetts, was elected Speaker of the House to succeed Speaker Champ Clark, and Senator Cummins, of Iowa, was elected president pro tempore of the Senate.

IT looks very much now as though the Woman Suffrage Constitutional Amendment will pass. It received a substantial majority vote in the lower house Wednesday and has gained two votes in the Senate, Senator Harris, Democrat, of Georgia, and Senator Hale, Republican, of Maine. It failed in the last Senate by one vote. The Maryland delegation split their vote—Linthicum, Democrat, Andrews and Zihlman, Republicans, voted for it; Cody and Benson, Democrats, and Mudd, Republican, voted against it. The amendment after passing Congress, will come before the voters of the states for ratification.

CONGRESS convened in extra session on Monday. The President, in his message to that body, called particular attention to the necessity of passing the appropriation bills, and recommends the lifting of the ban on wine and beer. He says:

"The demobilization of the military forces of the country has progressed to such a point that it seems to me entirely safe now to remove the ban upon the manufacture and sale of wines and beers, but I am advised that without further legislation I have not the legal authority to remove the present restrictions. I, therefore, recommend that the act approved Nov. 21, 1918, entitled 'An act to enable the Secretary of Agriculture to carry out, during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1919,' the purposes of the act entitled 'An act to provide further for the national security and defense by stimulating agriculture and facilitating the distribution of agricultural products, and for other purposes,' be amended or repealed in so far as it applies to wines and beers."

Bank of Somerset In Modernized, Efficient Quarters

The Bank of Somerset, Princess Anne, opened May 1 in its former banking home which has been thoroughly modernized by Hoggson Brothers, the New York and Chicago bank planning specialists.

The new quarters are spacious, attractive and bespeak convenience and modernity. Additional book, fund and security vaults will provide ample facilities for the bank's future requirements as well as present needs.

The principal feature in the new layout of the banking room is the director's room, which is now on the mezzanine, leaving additional working space on the main floor.

The Bank of Somerset was organized June 4, 1889, with a capital of $25,000, which has since been doubled, reflecting the bank's growing strength. The last statement shows surplus and undivided profits of $117,000. The present officers are: Joshua W. Miles, president; H. Fillmore Lankford, vice president; and William B. Spiva, cashier.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

We were glad to see our old friend, Lieut. Floyd Brown, of the United States Marines, home this week. We remember Lieut. Brown as the greatest athlete of recent years at Washington College, where his many feats on diamond, gridiron and basketball floor established for him a record in athletics which will be remembered for many years to come. Lieut. Brown's record in the marines has been equally brilliant, as he rose from a private to a lieutenant in a few months.

Private Roaby Kelly, of near Rock Hall, arrived from overseas about two weeks ago and has been honorably discharged from the service.

Major Eldridge Eliason, looking every inch a real American soldier, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. H. W. Vickers, Jr., and other relatives in Kent County this week. When the war was forced on the United States Major Eliason was a practicing surgeon in Philadelphia, with a large practice. He offered his service and has done good work for his country on the battlefields of France, where his cool head and skillful hand saved the lives of many of our soldiers. Some years ago Major Eliason was pictured in several magazines and papers as the model athlete of the age. From his present appearance time has not taken anything from him.

Sergeant Merritt Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Brown, of Chestertown, arrived home Wednesday. Sergeant Brown saw much fighting in France and is glad to come back to Chestertown for a visit.

The following letter is from Private James H. Hill, of Kent county, to The Transcript. It is dated March 21, '19, Villotte, France:

I have been in the army 18 months the 26h of this month and have received our county paper, "The Transcript," ever since. I asked you to send it to me while at Camp Meade, and must say I enjoy reading it very much. I have intended to write and thank you for sending it long ago, but have just put it off, for you know it is such an easy matter to put it off, but better late than never.

Well, we left Philadelphia the 14th of last July, and went from there to Halifax, left Halifax with our convoy of 23 transports July 20, with exception of two submarine scares we had a very nice trip over and reached Liverpool, England, July 31. We stopped in a rest camp in Liverpool, which everyone enjoyed, after being on the water for 17 days, and 11 days without seeing land, for it took us 11 days to cross after leaving Halifax.

We left Liverpool August 2 about 12 o'clock noon, on the train, and we had a very pretty ride through England, reaching our next rest camp, which was also in England, about 9 a. m., that day. At this camp I saw George Pennington from Kennedyville and was very glad to see him. We left this camp August7 and crossed the English Channel and landed in France the next day, August 8, and in France we will stay until Uncle Sam orders us to embark to the dear old U. S. A., the place we all long to see.

We have moved seven times since we landed in France. We got our training for the front at a place called "La-Courtine," and while there our regiment lost 40 men with the "flu." In fact, if it hadn't been for the "flu" we would have seen active service on the front as our infantry did.

About half of our battery has been on a seven-day leave. Quite a bunch have been up to Verdun in auto trucks to see the sights; also to St. Mihiel. A few have been to Paris on a three-day leave, and four other fellows and myself go to Paris tomorrow, the 22d, on a three-day leave, and I just know I'll enjoy the trip. We have about 120 horses, but we expect to turn in 60 of them next week. We are booked for home in June, but on account of some of the other divisions being set back from their scheduled time, they claim we are six weeks ahead of our scheduled time.

The weather has been very mild here the past winter, much better than we had at Camp Meade last winter; in fact, we have had it lots better in every way. The weather now is very much like our spring weather. We had some snow yesterday, but it turned to rain, and was soon gone.

We are fixed up pretty nice in this little town—fair billets, good tent—where we have lots of movies; also lots of entertainers, and our regiment has gotten up a play which they had one night last week, and they are now touring the 79th division.

All the boys are well, especially Sergeant Murrell Dunbracco and Sergeant Edward Blackway, of whom you know well. As for myself, I am feeling fine, still eating three meals a day. Will bring this to a close now, as we soon have water call to water the horses. Remember me to all I know.

Corporal Barber Bartley received his honorable discharge from the army recently and will assist his father, Mr. John Bartley, in his extensive business here.

Col. Robert Gill, formerly of Chestertown, where he has many friends, addressed a large crowd in Galena town hall Thursday evening in the interest of the Salvation Army drive. Col. Gill has recently returned from France where he rendered good service.

Mr. William Goss, of Chestertown, who saw much fighting in France, returned home on Thursday. Mr. Goss was employed by Mr. W. C. Sutton as a plumber for many years and will return to his occupation here.

The 115th Infantry, carrying many Kent county boys, will reach Newport News today, Saturday.

The following Kent county boys arrived in the United States from overseas on Wednesday: Fred. Ford, of Chestertown; L. Bates Russell, of Chestertown; Rubin Kastnut, of Rock Hall; Clarence H. Kelley, of Rock Hall;

C. W. Nash Denies Motor Combine

In answer to the recent unauthentic reports that there was a possibility of a combine of The Nash Motor Co. with several other big companies in the motor car industry comes the statement from Mr. W. W. Nash, president of The Nash Motors Co., Kenosha, Wisconsin, which eliminates any possibility of a merger such as has been recently reported in the press.

In an interview with Mr. Nash he said: "The reports of a consolidation in the motor car industry which includes The Nash Motors Co. are not founded on facts. There is no possibility of The Nash Motors Co. becoming subsidiary of any other company in the motor car industry.

"Like all other great industries, the automobile business is narrowing to the survival of the fittest," said Mr. Nash. "Day after day there are mergers reported.

"I have no criticism of this tendency but I would like to have it definitely understood that nothing could induce The Nash Motors Co. to enter into a merger. Should it become advisable or expedient, we would go into the field for other plants, but in that event the resulting expansion would be under the control of The Nash Motors Co.

"In this connection I might say there are three factors necessary to permanency in the motor car business—good financing, a good factory and a good organization. It follows that a good product would be the result.

"We feel that the Nash Motors Co. possesses all three of these essential factors and that, therefore, our expansion depends simply on our own energy and is not in any way dependent on a combination with other well established companies."

Because of Mr. Nash's 27 years' experience in manufacturing and because of the record he holds as one of the world's foremost manufacturers, there have been frequent rumors of consolidations. Apparently, however, the latest reports are not well founded, for, as Mr. Nash states, "if they were based on fact I would take the public into my confidence and would be the first to make an announcement."

There's a Tractor in the Avery Line that is just the size you need. Avery Tractors are built in six sizes. The little 5-10 H.P. Avery Tractor that makes motor farming a success even on ten-acre farms. Then there are five larger sizes of Avery Tractors from 8-16 H. P. to 40-80 H. P. There is no farm too big and none too small for an Avery Tractor.

Why Avery Tractors Lead

The Avery Tractor is different from other tractors. It has a perfected opposed motor, with renewable inner cylinder walls. gasifiers that turn kerosene into gas and adjustable crankshaft boxes. It has a round radiator, with no fan, belts, pumps, chains, or other such parts. It has a patented sliding frame which makes possible the simplest and most efficient belt and drawbar transmission system built. That is why the Avery design has proved so successful. That is why there are Avery Tractors which have been working in the hands of owners for many years and are still good for many more years of hard work. The words "Avery Tractors" and "Motor Farming Success" mean the same thing.

You should investigate what motor farming with Avery Tractors can do for you. Come in and let us talk about the matter and look over the sample tractors we have on our display floor.
