Churches should get 'involved,' says ex-CIG chairman Rev. Levin West

"The church is dying and it needs to get 'involved' by venturing out instead of being complacent. If the church were doing its job there would be no need for the various pressure groups now operating in society."

These were the words of the Rev. Levin B. West, minister of social services for the Mecklenburg Baptist Association and former leader of the Civic Interest Group here.

Working as the coordinator in a pilot program sponsored by the Association, the Rev. Mr. West counsels juvenile delinquents who are in jail and adult prisoners.

His one - to - one relationship with the counselees is designed to take the individual from where he is to where he ought to be.

In a couple of months, the pilot program will terminate. After the findings have been analyzed, the next step will be determined by the Mecklenburg Association.

THE REV. Mr. West is a native of Baltimore but is now living in Charlotte, N. C. There, the Association, composed of 65 white churches, strives for cooperative ventures with both ethnic groups in mind.

As part of his project, he goes into the homes of those families that have a member in jail, to help them toward readjustment. His real mission is to get the people who have little hope to realize the acceptance of God.

One achievement that the Rev. Mr. West is really proud of is a big - brother, big - sister program he authored. It awaits approval from a Charlotte judge.

Involved in a number of surveys connected with the church, he has always had a desire for the ministry even though he graduated in 1951 from Morgan State College with a bachelors degree in economics.

When the United Presbyterian Church of America awarded him a three-year scholarship to Johnson C. Smith University, in Charlotte, the Rev. Mr. West's prayers were answered. In 1954, he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree.

NOW HE is assistant pastor of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Charlotte, and an ordained Baptist minister. There he is active in many organizations — the Young Democrats, the Elks, Prince Hall Masons and the Mt. Peace Baptist Association.

While he lived here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene B. West at 2031 Gwynn Falls Pky., the Rev. Mr. West was active with the NAACP. He serves the Charlotte Branch as secretary.

Nationally, he is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, which he joined at Morgan after graduating from Douglass High School.

He and his wife Mrs. Brenda Mills West, a native of the Eastern Shore and a 1951 graduate of Earl Scott, also nieces and nephews.

Liberty Heights residents set zoning hearing

Bishop Winfield A. Showell pastor of Apostolic Faith Church, urges all residents of the 4000 block Liberty Hgts. Ave. to attend a Zoning Board hearing scheduled for Sept. 21 at 2 p.m. in Rm. 221, City Hall.

Bishop Showell expressed alarm at a recent zoning involving colored families living in the Forest - Park - Ashburton Area.

Several apartment house units have been placed auctioned home - owners in the 2000 block Liberty Hgts. Ave. A large apartment development is under construction at Dorchester Ave. and Garrison Blvd.

The Bishop encourages all residents in this area to be concerned and maintain the individual home life for which they may have spent their life earnings.

Those who are interested in attending the Sept. 21 hearing or meeking more information may call him at 664-4446 or write Dorchester Community Chug, 4017 Dorchester Ave.

STILL SIGHTING — The Rev. Levin West, one of the former leaders of the Baltimore Civic Interest Group is still fighting but for a somewhat different cause. Now in Charlotte, N. C. he is concerned with the colored people there helping themselves. His wife, Brenda and three children, left to right, Scheherazade, 3, Deborah, 18 months, and Linda, 2 weeks, keep him quite busy too.

School boycott looms in Mass. bias fight

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., (UPI) — Civil rights leaders followed up a massive demonstration against alleged police brutality with threats of a one-day school boycott in protest against racial imbalance in the school system.

Oscar Bright, CORE, said he was certain Dr. Martin Luther King would come to Springfield to lead civil rights demonstrations if he was asked.

"We are not the least bit satisfied with the school situation," Bright said in reference to the alleged racial imbalance.

Officials of the NAACP disclosed earlier that a school boycott would be held only if the Springfield school committee failed to draw up solid plans to end racial imbalance during a meeting Thursday. The open school enrollment plan was dismissed by civil rights leaders as inadequate to meet the problem.

Authorities also called for picketing of the School Department headquarters and City Hall on the opening day of school if these issues were not solved by then.

The boycott was opposed by Attorney J. Clifford Clarkson, chairman of the NAACP Legal Committee. "I don't believe boycotts accomplish one single thing. They accomplished nothing in New York and they accomplished nothing in Boston, he said.

George B. Green

Requiem high mass was said for George B. Green Sr., 74, Essex, Friday at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Catholic Church, Essex, where he was a life - time member.

MUM TAKE OVER

This week in voting for Favorite Frat/Sorority, the members of Mu Sigma Kappa Frat have taken over with 27 calls and 26 cards.

Sigma Phi Sigma Frat holds second this week after sick hyers just didn't stick by. This week voting results are:

1. Mu Sigma Kappa
2. Sigma Phi Sigma
3. Alpha Sigma Beatlon
4. Sigma Gamma Rho
5. Kappa Alpha Tau (frat)
6. Sigma Zeta Zeta-Sority
7. Kappa Alpha Tau Sigma
8. Delta Epsilon Beta

Yellah 'N your favorite frat or sorority isn't in the running, you've got just 2 more weeks to voice your choice. And that goes for you, too, girls. Send your card right away to TEEN CORNER.

MIXUP

Due to a mixup in last week's paper, we had Al Jefferson listed as Number 1. Actually Lester (Wildchild) Foster of WEBB radio topped the list with over 300 votes, while Al Jefferson had 197.

No mixup this week, however, when Al Jefferson's friends helped him over 300 votes in this week's polls.

WWIN disc jock couldn't call fast enough for their favorite D.J. Lester (Wildchild) Foster isn't too far behind with 297 votes this week.

Washington's newest D.J. hasn't been here over 6 months and already has gained the fame of his famous saying, "I Just Don't Know Why Don't Chai!" Fabulous Eddie Wiley Daniels of WWIN still lingering but in charge.

The lineup this week includes:

1. Al Jefferson—WWIN
2. Lester "Wildchild" Foster —WEBB
3. Wiley Daniels — WEBB
4. Champ Haggins — WWIN
5. Sam Beasley — WWIN
6. Fat Daddy — WTTH
7. Rockin' Robin — WEBB
8. Fat Daddy — WTTH
9. Eddie Morrison—WSID
10. Joe Parker — WWIN

WEST SIDE

The west side is at it again with a new sorority called the "Chi-Ro-Salons". They would like for anyone who wishes to join to call Faye Williams. . . . LA. 3-5775, or Lorna Smith. . . . LA. 3-3286.

Officers include: president, Faye Williams; vice - president, Lorna Smith; secretary, Valleria McCullian; treasurer, Jill Jewitt; chaplain, Violet Brown; and members: Ida Brown, Barbara Brown, Rosemary McCullian and Denise Nolin.

They would also like to send their best wishes to Gregory Wallace, known as "Wanace" who is now out of the hospital and resting.

COME AND ENJOY a delicious chicken dinner given by the Sophisticated Misses, Saturday, Aug. 28 at 12 noon until. The address is 2803 Parkwood Ave. Call Faye Reed. . . . 542-2852 for details.

IT WAS suggested that all the fraternities and sororities in Baltimore get together once a year for an annual dance. Thinking it a good idea, I decided to inquire with some of the presidents of these groups. So far I have the "go ahead".

I will need the support of every fraternity and sorority in B-town if this is going to work. Send a card with the name of your sorority or fraternity, the name of your business manager (if not the name of your secretary) and his/her phone number. Sorry no phone calls accepted. The type of dance, place, etc. will be decided upon by a committee. This has been asked many times. Let's make it work!

* * *

SOME WRITER has just returned from a weekend in the Mecca. Says there isn't too much difference between their town and ours. The presidents are just chasing women enough to get elected. Mention Monkey Jack, and people lead the list for most mischievous.

Another saying is "Ain't . . . Ain't no" and "I know what I know." . . . Saturday and Friday nights they can go on a "Moonlight Cruise" for cheap on the Bob-Lo boat. Many times you can catch the last . . . Calloway, Calloway, Calloway, Jimmy Calloway is a famous name, but to Bob-Lo Dance Hall, Jimmy Calloway is just "Jimmy".

Gentlemen, you haven't seen anything, you ain't seen nothing yet. Wait 'till you see the new dance, I know it is going to be the MOTHER of all dances, it actually do it.

Lionel Hampton, Caldwell, Kay Dennis, Cab Calloway, Count Basie, Tony Wade and all those who make up stay worthwhile.

* * *

THE MOST played record on any radio station is "Satisfaction" by the Rolling Stones. Believe it or not, this British group has completely taken over the entire U.S. Can't Get No Satisfaction.

Pick of the week is "Sunshine Superman" by Donovan and the Golden Strings. This was black for sure.

Others are "Tracks of My Tears" and "Park In The Road" by the Miracles, "You've Got To Eat It" and "Since I Lost My Baby" by the Temptations, "Papa's Got A Brand New Bag" by James Brown and "Sweet Sister Love", by Aretha Franklin.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

North, South, East and West . . . what's happening? . . . I know for sure that every teen in Baltimore City will be at the CRAZY PANTS DANCE this Saturday at the Forest Manor.

Call Calvin "Boo Boo" Brooks or go to any of Your Record Shops in Baltimore . . . but that's North side news, what about East, South and West? Won't chat. . . . I just don't see why don't she?

TEEN CORNER PENPALS!

Oh some new! Not another feature of this here column.

Well, all I can do is print the ideas.

Anyone want to write to an 18 - year - old City College student? Send your names to you know-where. Mr. . . .

TRAINING SESSION — This was the scene at Social Security headquarters as participants in President Johnson's Youth Opportunity Program gathered to hear a panel discussion on "How industry views the young job applicant and the youthful employee." There are 130 disadvantaged youths in this program.

They are Mrs. Frank A. Kauffman, president, Miss Anita R. Williams and Mrs. Jeanette R. Weiland.

The governor has yet to announce the filling of some expired terms on the boards of the training schools and two on the State Department of Welfare Board.

SS youth program holds 5th training session

The fifth training session for the 130 disadvantaged youths participating in President Johnson's Summer Youth Opportunity Program at Social Security headquarters in Woodlawn was held Wednesday.

The program featured a panel discussion on the theme: "How industry views the young job applicant and the youthful employee."

The Youth Opportunity Program is dedicated to finding employment for youngsters from 16 to 21, who have no full - time wage earner in the family or who need summer earnings to continue their education.

The young people earn $1.25 an hour, while working as clerks, machine operators, printers' helpers and in other similar jobs.

WE'RE 'QUIT' E pleased with the results of the program, both at Woodlawn and throughout the rest of the country," James Chase, social Security's national personnel staffing specialist said.

"We were the first agency to hire these Youth Opportunity youngsters.

"We had 400 on duty in July and have added more because the plan was working so well. Now we have close to 700 on duty throughout the U.S."

Dr. Herbert Stern, director of guidance, Baltimore public schools, was present at the session to determine how the schools can benefit from the program.

Earlier programs have dealt with: 1. Orientation to in business by really trying, and 4. How to land the job you want.

WORLD OF WORK: 2. About your employer; 3. How to succeed
