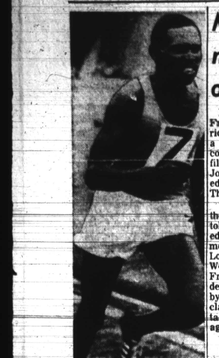
Marichal has no comment on suit



HURLS DEFI — Kipchoge Keino of Kenya, on Thursday issued a challenge to world record-holder Michel Jazy of France, to meet in a duel to determine the world's finest miler. The fleet African, first colored runner to break the 4-minute mile barrier, raced the distance in 3:54.2 early this week in London. Jazy's record is 3:53.6.

PHILADELPHIA — San Francisco pitcher Juan Marichal, apparently undergoing a change of mind, refused to comment on the $110,000 suit filed by Los Angeles catcher John Roseboro, when contacted at his hotel here early Thursday.

"I have nothing to say," the Dominican righthander told the AFRO when questioned about his reaction to the move taken by Roseorb in Los Angeles Superior Court, Wednesday. Juan and the San Francisco Giants were named defendants in an action filed by attorney Leo Branton to claim damages for the bat attack on Roseboro two weeks ago.

• • •

SEVERAL DAYS ago when the LA receiver suggested that he was considering suing Marichal the latter was quoted as saying "Let him sue he won't get anything."

When an interview was sought Thursday at the team's Warwick Hotel however Marichal refused to discuss the matter.

In the Los Angeles bill of complaint Roseboro charged that Marichal "willfully, criminally, maliciously" and "with it ill will and malice" inflicted the blow with the bat. It caused him "Much pain and suffering" he declared.

Looney loped

DETROIT — Rushing yardage of 99 yards by halfback Jow Don Looney of the Detroit Lions in 1965 pre-season play against Baltimore was the best yardage figure by a Lions back in 36 games.

Bears face same problem as in '64

Morgan State College coach Earl Banks has now become a full - fledged cardholder in the tearful tutors' fraternity.

"Things are just so - so," Banks told the AFRO Wednesday morning as he prepared to meet his 65 - man Golden Bear squad for the first time in the Morgan Stadium. "They look pretty good, but not too good."

• • •

JUST WHAT "too good" could be, wasn't exactly clear, so the subject was pursued.

Doesn't the Morgan mentor have most of his 1964 squad back? And, since this team was in the thick of the CIAA title scramble right up to the final games, shouldn't that make matters somewhat better than "so - so?"

• • •

"WELL, WE'VE got the same identical problem we had last year at this time," "Last September, we were looking for a starting left halfback to replace Oliver Dobbins. This September, we're in need of a fellow to take over the vacancy at the same spot.

"Dobbins was graduated and we knew we'd sorely miss his running ability. We found a capable replacement in Roland Savage, the youngster from Polly. But Roland has had some scholastic problems an now we're hurting for a replacement for him.

"That's what I mean when I say that things look pretty good, but not too good. No coach is happy as long as he has a question - mark where a running halfback belongs.

• • •

"MOREOVER," Banks continued, "Alvin Mitchell will be missing at left end. We had thought we could count on him to do the big job he showed the potential for last year. But Alvin also has academic worries.

"Then there's quarterback Carol Whitaker, the No. 1 man, was graduated. I'm hoping Gilbert Moore, who did well as a freshman last year, will be able to handle the job.

"AS FOR the halfback and end prospects, we have three youngsters who come to us highly recommended," Earl went on. "John Howard of Burlington, N. J., and Bruce James of Oyster Bay, L. I., appear to be fine prospects. Both are 200-pounders and in the neighborhood of 6 - 1, 6 - 2.

"Glenn Smith, also from Burlington, looks like a strong contender at end. And Will Brooks, who played well at City last fall, could be a surprise at halfback. But all this is mere conjecture. We'll have to wait and see."

• • •

THE MORGAN hopefuls reported 65 strong for the opening Wednesday session.

According to Banks, two drills will be held daily for the first ten days, after which the customary interruption for freshman orientation will be met with as well as possible.

The Bears commence their 1965 CIAA campaign on Sept. 25, entertaining Hampton at Hughes Field — SAM LACY.

Pro wrestling returns to Civic Center

Professional wrestling resumes September 11 at Civic Center with a seven - bout, 18 - man card featuring the return match of world heavyweight champion Bruno Sammartino and challenger Cowboy Bill Watts.

Samartino and Watts last week posted performance bonds of $2,500 each with the Maryland State Athletic Commission in the wake of a bloody title battle last month, which was ended with no decision after 30 minutes by the Commission physician.

• • •

BOBO BRAZIL, in a tag team bout last month, returns to a top spot on the September card to take on Waldo Von Erich the hot - tempered German who is reportedly revamping his style for the match with big Bobo.

The individual newcomer Tarzan Tyler against Argentina Apollo, the popular native of the Argentine pampas; veteran Johnny Valentine tests Magnificent Maurice and Arnold Skoland battles another newcomer Angelo Savoldi.

1965 Morgan College football schedule

Following is the 1965 football schedule for Morgan State College:

Oct. 2	at N.C. College
Oct. 9	Md. State

Nov. 20	Va. State

Series of irritants held reason Seals quit Skins

CARLISLE, Pa., — A collection of small irritations, rather than a flight from white teammate, led to the walkout by sophomore guard George Seals at the training camp of the Washington Redskins here early this week.

That is the substance of a story told by one of Seals' colored teammates, who prefers to remain unidentified at least for the moment.

• • •

"BOTH GEORGE and Joe Rutgens are likeable guys," the player volunteered. "And I am positive that the differences which cropped up between them during Tuesday's practice should be accepted as the total reason" for Seals' defection.

"By the time you get this in the paper, George may be back in camp and the whole thing forgotten. I don't know. I haven't talked to him and, in fact, I don't know where he is. Nobody knows.

• • •

"ACTUALLY," said the informant, "the little scuffle between George and Joe was like so many others you have seen when some 45 or more guys are edgy from training camp life. It was magnified by the fact that Seals bolted.

"But I'm sure there were other little things that built up inside the guy and made him act as he did.

"The mixup with Joe simply triggered it. Then it is talk around here that one of the coaches (Chuck Cherondolo or Ernie Stautner) spoke to George and said nothing to Rutgens when it was over.

• • •

"SEALS, according to the report, resented the fact that he was singled out as the source of the trouble and shot back a remark which the coach didn't like. The next thing we knew, George was missing.

"But, as I said before, there may have been a lot of other little annoyances that got to George. He had been missing his wife and arranged for her to drive to Philadelphia last weekend. Cecilia came up, but none of us knows where she is now.

• • •

"ASIDE FROM this is the fact that Seals has been compelled to play a position he doesn't like. And although he has gone along with the coaches' program, it's no secret he much prefers to play defense, which is where he got most of his help to the club.

"Then there's a matter of having to learn the new positions. While he felt he knew one of the hottest pass - catchers for the Tarpons along with flanker back Reuben Nichols.

• • •

BALTIMORE and its quarterbacks Yates McCorkle and Dick Sands along with Hezekiah Braxton, Eddie Sellers and Ed Buettner will be faced Saturday night by a new menace from the Houston Oilers.

He's defensive end Art Strahan a 6-4 225 - pound specimen out of Texas South. He and All - American Dan Kearley from the University of Alabama may now give the hot - Tarpons the toughest pass - rush duo in the minor pro loop.

City eleven inaugurates MSA competition today

Five Maryland Scholastic Association football teams swing into competition this weekend, headed by City College's opener this afternoon (Friday).

None of the three games involving the MSA membership is a league game. All in fact are inter-division contests, used primarily to help the coaches evaluate their youngsters under game conditions.

• • •

CITY, as previously stated, starts the ball rolling, or bouncing, on a trip to Bel Air High School.

The Collegians are scheduled for a 4 p.m. kickoff with Bel Air High School.

The two games tomorrow (Saturday) morning will engage four MSA clubs.

City champion Poly meets Forest Park at 9 a.m., at Clifton Park, and a 10 a.m., start is slated for Carver as the Cubs visit Patterson at Patterson Park.

• • •

CONCERNING the latter, Carver coach Charles Robinson would prefer that it didn't have to come off.

"If I had my way," Robinson told the AFRO, "we could skip the 1965 football season. We're at our lowest ebb for this MSA campaign.

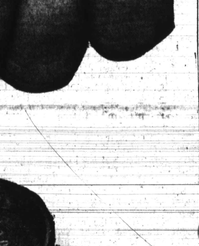
"Every year about this time, Carver faces the problem of losing boys whom they had counted upon for the upcoming season.

• • •

"FOR INSTANCE," Robinson pointed out, "our entire interior line is missing and apparently isn't going to be around. School opens on the 7th and our first game is on the 17th. Still there are five of our regulars absent.

"They're tackles Tyrone Pittman and Willie Moore, guard Robert Hawkins, center George Lewis and halfback Ralph Durant.

"It looks as though we're going to have to try to make it with a squad of jayvees and freshmen."



BIRD BACK — Outfielder Sam Bowens was recalled from Rochester by the Baltimore Orioles on Wednesday. The muscular Bowens, rookie star of the Birds in 1964, opened the season but never regained his form and never regained his form after spring injury . . . . . .

Broncos introduce new blood to NAFL lineup

MOBILE, Ala. — When the Baltimore Broncos visit here tomorrow (Saturday) night for a North American Football League encounter with the Mobile Tarpons they will have to contend with a couple of Texans who are presently giving indications of being All League at this stage of the game.

They are fullback B. W. Cheek (6-1, 210 Texas Southern) and split end Ed Shelwood (6-3, 190 Dillard).

Both have been offensive standouts in the young NAFL season and are on option from the the American Football League.

• • •

CHEEKS who played last year with the Charleston Wildcats team of the defunct United League had a 1965 tryout with the Kansas City Chiefs but had stiff competition from veterans and hopes to make it back to the big league next season.

The hard - running former Texas Southern slickout is thought by many to be one of the best backs in the league.

The Baltimore Colts have already scouted his performances.

End Shelwood who hails from Houston, Tex. has been a running halfback belongs.

Kennedy beat P.S. 149 by a score of 6 to 7 to earn the right to play Madison Square for the title. They then downed Madison Square by a score of 12 to 10.

The team is coached by Miss Judy Modaxx, volunteer leader, with recreation leader Winfred Jones assisting.

Team members are: Capt. Francine Meredith, co - capt. Darnell Cooper, Jackie Daisey, Irene Miller, Catherine Terrence, Bevely Ebb, Ruby Young, Patricia Hayden, Jean Adams, and Rose Mcwood, Ernestine Marshall, Jean Adams, and Rose McDonald.

Remembrance is a golden chain. Death time is break not all in twain. To have, to love and then to part Is the greatest sorrow of mortal heart. The years may wipe out many things, But the duet wipe out never The memory of those happy days, When we were all together . . . Loving Wife, ARNELE G. BRIGHT. Daughter and Son-in-law, GLADYS H. and GEORGE TAYLOR.

NICHOLAS — In loving memory of my beloved husband, JOHN W. who passed away August 27, 1964.

One year ago I think of you, And wander back into the days of yore, Memories make your words of tenderness, The warmth of your embrace; Love—dreams are fill of you. And when the dawn breaks, An with it dies the embers. No one can take your place. Loving Wife, MARGUERITE L. NICHOLAS

ROBINSON — In memory of our loved one, JOHNNIE, who passed away September 2, 1961: Today my heart is full of pain, My loved one are all gone. HUSBAND and FAMILY.

SAUNDERS — In loving memory of our sister, BENJATHA, who passed away August 31, 1965: You were so very good, dear Benjatha, Until the day you died, God saw how much he loved you dearly And took you from our side. We miss you from our side, Your above in the silent Heaven Where we hope to meet you, Where we could only hear you speak her name. As we did a short while ago. SISTERS and SISTER, SADIE TERRY.

SHEARD — In loving memory of my dear husband, ALBERT SHEARD, who departed this life August 31, 1964: God saw the road was getting rough, The hills were hard to climb; He gently closed his loving eyes And whispered "Peace be thine." His weary hours, his days of pain, Are over and he is free. His war — patient, worn — out frame Has found sweet rest at last. Sadly missed, LOUISE SHEARD.

SMITH — In loving memory of our son and brother, JOSEPH ALBERT JR., who passed away August 30, 1964: You are always in our thoughts No matter where we go, Always in our hearts, dear son, Because we loved you so. MOTHER, FATHER, SISTERS and BROTHER
