Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

Published Every Saturday Morning at Chestertown, Md.

CHESTERTOWN was honored in a religious way this week by having a largely attended county convention of the W. C. T. U. at the Methodist Protestant Church. Meets of this character lend a good moral tone to the community and we will welcome them at any time it suits their convenience to meet here.

THE "Easton Star-Democrat," in its issue of Saturday last, stated that it is the general opinion there that Judge Adkins will get practically all the Democratic votes in that county at the coming primary election, and that at the general election in November, if there is an opposing candidate, Judge Adkins will receive a larger majority in that county than he got in 1907, which was over 600, being more than any other candidate for any office ever received in Talbot County. The people there understand that if Judge Adkins should fail to receive the nomination in September it would mean his retirement from the bench, and they intend by their votes to see that he is not defeated.

To The Editor Of The Transcript,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir.—Some two weeks ago you had an editorial endorsing me for the State Senate. I had never been approached in reference to this matter, nor did I know that any editorial was written or was to be written until I saw it in your paper after it was issued. It was done without my knowledge, consent or approval. I would have requested that the editorial would not appear in your paper if I had known it had been written.

Yours very respectfully,
W. B. COPPER.

Letters To Rich Neck (Queen Anne's County) Ladies

The ladies of Rich Neck are maintaining three children in France, who were deprived of their father by the late war. To help this cause a supper will be held next Thursday afternoon, beginning at about five o'clock, on the lawn of Mr. Cranor in Rich Neck. See adv. for particulars. Recently the ladies received two letters from the mother and children, as follows:

Paris, Aug. 13, 1918.

Dear Benefactor:

I thank you for myself and little brother for the money you have sent to mamma for us. I have taken some fine prizes at school for writing, singing, civics and moral instruction.

I am doing my best to give pleasure to mamma and to be for her a consolation in her distress and sorrow. At school they tell us the Germans are retreating and thanks to the intervention of the American troops we shall soon be victorious. Receive, dear benefactor the thanks of your three little proteges.

MARCEL GUEDON,
GABRIEL GUEDON,
ANDRE GUEDON.

Dear Benefactor:

Paris, March 5, 1919.

I wish to thank you in the name of my three sons for your great generosity; your charity has not fallen in the hands of an ungrateful person.

Since the death of my dear husband I have had difficulty many times * * * and with three children to support the task is heavy, but thanks to you, dear benefactor, I can now face life less bitterly. Be assured your kindness has gone straight to my heart * * * My children are good. Marcel, the eldest, is a real little man and my dear little twins are angels. It is in the accomplishment of my duties as a mother that I find comfort. Accept with my thanks my sincere regards.

WIDOW GUEDON.

Thresher School To Be Held Here

A one-day Thresher School will be conducted in Chestertown June 6 by the Extension Service, Maryland State College of Agriculture for threshing machine owners, operators, prospective buyers and farmers.

The program will be as follows:
Morning Session, 9.30 to 12 noon
Preparing for the Threshing Season.
What the Farmer Can Do to Help the Thresherman.
Parts of Separator and Function of Each.
Feeding the Separator.
Using Canvas Under the Feeder and a Thorough Clean Up.
Speed, Belts, Pulleys, Lagging and Bearings.
Moving and Setting Machines.
Afternoon Session, 1.00 to 4.30 p. m.
Thresher Troubles.
Actual Adjustment of Threshing Machine—Running Empty.

What Can Be Accomplished

Five bushels of wheat saved at each setting was the result of using last year in one of the states only one of the schemes to be discussed as a part of the program. Any man financially interested in saving wheat will be amply repaid for spending all day at the school.

L. L. BURRELL, County Agent.

Ditching With Dynamite

There will be a demonstration of the use of dynamite in ditching at the branch at the line of J. H. Clendaniel's farm, about one mile southeast of Kennedyville, at 2 p. m., next Monday, June 2. Everybody whose land needs draining, or who is interested in dynamite for agricultural purposes, is invited to attend.

L. L. BURRELL, County Agent.

CHURCH NOTES

Because of his health, Dr. L. E. Barrett has decided not to accept the call to Sudlersville. Dr. and Mrs. Barrett will remain in Chestertown.

The Centenary drive of the M. E. Church and the Church forward movement of the M. P. Church, have both met with great success everywhere, and there is no doubt whatever but that the sums will be raised which the churches set as their marks.

The Baptists in the Northern States will raise a fund of $50,000,000 before April 1, 1924, for the home and foreign mission work and various other activities of the church. Kent county has no Baptist churches.

A bronze memorial tablet will be placed in the Sunday School room of the M. E. Church, Chestertown, by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Bordley, in memory of their son, Sergeant Thos. Kemp Bordley, who died at Camp Meade, October 11, 1918. The unveiling of the tablet will take place at 3 o'clock tomorrow in the church, at which time a brief memorial service will be held. All friends are invited to be present.

Last Sunday evening Dr. Geo. T. Alderson delighted his large congregation at the M. E. Church by delivering an illustrated sermon on "Peace," in which he illustrated by flags the different nations. These flags Dr. Alderson placed in a box to represent the Peace Conference. He illustrated that peace would come when religion united the different nations in a fellowship of love. He then let go a live pigeon, as a token of peace.

By a unanimous vote the Chestertown M. E. Sunday School agreed on Sunday morning to send a telegram to the Senators and Congressmen requesting them to use their influence to defeat any change in the prohibition law as requested by the President.

The annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Kent county was held in Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, Thursday. Good crowds attended the sessions morning and evening. A full program of the sessions was printed in this paper last week. Dr. L. E. Barrett delivered a fine address in the evening.

The summer schedule will be instituted at the M. E. Church tomorrow. In the morning at 10 o'clock the Sunday School session will be held. At 11 o'clock sharp the public preaching service will be held, Dr. Alderson delivering the sermon. The evening service will be at 7 o'clock, as usual, and the Junior League will have a large part of the program, with an address by the pastor, followed by the installation of the Epworth League officers for the ensuing year. In the afternoon, at 2 o'clock, in the Sunday School room, a memorial tablet to Sergeant Thomas Kemp Bordley will be unveiled, with addresses by Dr. Barrett and others. The public is invited.

The campaign for the Centenary and the local budget in the M. E. Church has been about completed. The congregation is jubilant over the result. For both interests the minimum amount sought was secured with a substantial margin. On Friday evening a jubilee service was held, the whole congregation being invited. The canvassing teams publicly made their reports, several addresses were made and refreshments were served.

The Pomona Choral Club enrolled fourteen new members at its last meeting, which raises the membership to seventy. According to the schedule now ahead of the club, new members are not admitted, but any visitors are cordially welcomed. Come out and see us.

The usual services will be held at Bond Chapel on Sunday morning. S. S. at 10 a. m. Sermon at 11 a. m., by Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor. Everybody welcome.

Salem M. E. Church, Fairlee, H. D. West, pastor. S. S. at 10 o'clock; preaching at 11 o'clock. Epworth League at 8 o'clock.

Union M. E. Church, Worton, H. D. West, pastor. S. S. at 2 o'clock and preaching at 3 o'clock; Epworth League at 8 o'clock.

Salem raised $375 on her Centenary quota and Union has raised $225.

Children's Day program at Salem Church last Sunday evening was well attended. The collection was $41.08.

Christ M. P. Church, Dr. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: Holy Communion, 10.30 a. m.; S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor, Miss Dorothy Dill, leader, 6.45 p. m.; evening worship, "Seeking Wisdom," 7.30 p. m.; Junior Endeavor on Thursday at 4.00 p. m.; Prayer Meeting Thursday at 8.00 p. m.; Intermediates Friday at 7.00 p. m.

Evangelist C. E. Andross announces the subject of his lecture at the Mechanics Hall, Rock Hall, for next Sunday night (June 1), as "Class War, or the Great Struggle Between the Capitalist and Laborer." The other lectures planned for the coming week are for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights only. Seats are free and all are welcome.

Episcopal Diocesan Convention To Discuss Nation-Wide Campaign

The program of the nation-wide campaign of the Protestant Episcopal Church, undertaken for the expension of the activities of the church at home and abroad, will be presented to the convention of the Diocese of Easton, which will be held in Elkton on Tuesday, June 3, by the Rev. Charles E. Betticher, of New York City, Editorial Secretary of the Board of Missions.

Since the preliminary announcement of the plans of the Board of Missions of the Episcopal Church for a great awakening to the problems of reconstruction, a large majority of the bishops of the church have pledged their support to the movement. The program has been presented to numerous diocesan conventions in the last few weeks and in every case the response has been emphasized by the appointment of a campaign committee. It is expected that such a committee will be organized in the Diocese of Easton as a result of the Rev. Mr. Betticher's address to the convention.

The first step of such a campaign would be the compilation of the results of an accurate survey of the problems of this diocese. These local needs would receive first consideration, according to the program proposed by the Board of Missions in cooperation with Board of Religious Education, the Joint Commission on Social Service and the other agencies of the church.

German Reply Received.—The counter-proposals formulated by the German delegation at Versailles have been delivered to the French authorities. The German reply was received in instalments. The first installment comprised 88 pages. Other installments followed this and the delivery of the document was completed within the time limit. The German reply had not been made public when we went to press, but was expected to be made public today, Saturday.

PUBLIC SALE
—OF A—
Valuable Farm
IN QUEEN ANNE' COUNTY, MD., NEAR MILLINGTON

The undersigned, Martha J. Barnes and Emma E. Barnes, owners, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, in front of Central Hotel, in the town of Millington, Kent County, Maryland, on

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, '19

commencing at the hour of 11.30 o'clock a. m., all that valuable tract of land or farm known as the "Barnes Farm," situate in the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, near Millington, on both sides of the public road leading from the Unicorn Woolen Mills to Millington, adjoining the lands of John Biggs, Charles S. Stevens and the Unicorn Woolen Mills, and containing

160 Acres of Land,

more or less

The improvements consist of a large 2 1-2 story frame dwelling house in good repair and containing eleven rooms; also a stable, barn, carriage house, implement shed, ice house and other outbuildings. There is a fine well of water near the house.

The farm has a good light soil which is fertile and productive and grows nice crops of wheat, corn, grass and truck. All the land, with the exception of about two acres, is arable, and three of the fields border on the mill pond.

The location of this property is very desirable and attractive, it being just outside of the town of Millington and on the shell road leading out of Millington to the Unicorn Mills, while its close proximity to the railroad and the town makes the situation a most convenient one in every respect. The sale of this farm offers an unusual opportunity to any person who may be seeking a good, medium-sized farm either for a home or as an investment.

This farm is being offered for sale for the reason that on account of the recent death of their brother, John Barnes, the undersigned owners are not in a position to carry on or manage the farm.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and the balance of the purchase money to be paid in two equal instalments, payable respectively in one and two years from the day of sale, with interest on each instalment from said day of sale, and the payment thereof to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers with surety or sureties to be approved by the undersigned; or the whole purchase money may be paid in cash, at the option of the purchaser or purchasers.

Possession given January 1, 1920, with the usual rights and privileges of incoming tenants. Title papers at expense of purchaser. Further particulars will be made known on the day of sale.

MARTHA J. BARNES,
EMMA E. BARNES,
