VANSANT & NEWSOME,

Progressive Head-to-Foot Outfitters, Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL MATTERS

—Mr. Joseph Sachs has purchased a handsome Studebaker car.

—A Kent Island doctor says girls should go barefoot until they are 16!

—Mr. R. F. Parks has purchased a fine Liberty car from Newsome Bros., the agents.

—We have not seen the 17-year-locusts yet—but rose bugs are here by the thousand.

—Much of Fannell's Branch—the happy hunting grounds for many gunners—has been cleared.

—Mr. Edward Newton, formerly of Massey, has accepted a position with Davis & Satterfield.

—All Kent county auto salesmen report many sales, the only drawback being the scarcity of cars.

—Mr. Jesse Medders has one of the finest gardens in Kent county. Mr. Medders is an expert in this line.

—Yesterday, Memorial Day, passed off quietly in Kent County. The banks and public offices were closed.

—Bolton & Vansant, of Galena, are paying 43 cents per dozen for eggs. All tobaccos are 5c and 10c per plug.

—Mr. Joseph Sachs, of the firm of H. Sachs & Son, says the recent anniversary sale was the best in their history.

—Contractor Harry Cannan is rushing the work on the garage for the Noland-Bennett-Russell Co. on Cross street.

—If there is any truth in the old adage that "Rains in May mean barns full of hay," the hay crop this year should be tremendous.

—Recent baseball scores as are follows: C. H. S. 17, Wyoming High 4; C. H. S. 11; Wyoming 4; Centreville 8, C. H. S., 6.

—Mr. Othman Malcomb, of Morgnec, has one of the finest flocks of sheep in Kent county. Recently he cut 16 lbs. of wool from one sheep.

—Mr. John Speicher has placed a big Delco plant on the Floating Theatre in place of two small ones which furnished the electric current.

—A community card party for benefit of Woman's Hospital of Maryland, was held at the Hotel Chesapeake at Betterton Tuesday evening.

—One of Kent's large asparagus growers has cleared nearly $2000 from his crop this season. Other farmers are doing well with asparagus.

—Fairlee Grange will hold a special meeting Wednesday next, June 4, at the home of Mr. Edward Corey at 7 p. m. Ladies please bring cake.

—Mr. Edward Goodman, while cutting wood, had the misfortune to get his ax caught in a clothes line the other day and has a badly cut head.

—Mr. James Gland, now living on the Barnett-Hendrickson farm in Quaker Neck, has rented Mr. H. M. Baker's farm, situated on Cemegys Bight, for 1920.

—County Agent Burrell will remain in Kent County, we are glad to state. Mr. Burrell has rendered the farmers of this county valuable aid in many ways.

—Miss Elizabeth Brice, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Brice of Far Hills, N. J., was seriously injured in an auto accident recently, we are sorry to state.

—Mr. W. Irving Walker has received his field glasses back from the government. Mr. W. B. Strong and other Kent people have also received their glasses from the government, which were loaned for war purposes.

—The little bungalow which has been erected across the river by Mr. Knoll, for himself and wife, is one of those Aladdin houses, which comes all ready for erection.

—Messrs. Turner & Baldwin have dissolved partnership. Mr. Baldwin will conduct the business, while Mr. Turner will sell trucks, etc., for his father, Mr. A. S. Turner.

—Last year's slaughter of the innocents on the highways by reckless auto drivers was appalling, but this year's record will beat it, if a curb is not put on the speed demons.

—Beginning with Tuesday next, the public library will be open every Tuesday and Saturday morning from ten o'clock until 1 p. m. until Oct. 1, and on Saturday evenings from 6.30 until 8 o'clock.

—Mr. Allie Elliott's motorcycle skidded while he was on a visit here from Baltimore and he was thrown from the machine and painfully bruised. Dr. Whaland rendered medical attention.

—A meeting will be held at Firemen Hall Monday evening at 8 o'clock for the purpose of electing delegates to the Convention of the State Firemen in the near future.

Rain prevented the W. C.-Western Md. baseball game Saturday. The W. C. boys go to Philadelphia today and meet Drexel at baseball and tennis. Loyola College may be here Thursday for a big tennis game.

—Dr. G. Allen Jarman, while digging in his garden one day this week, found a Portuguese coin dated 1760. The coin had a large X in the center of it. It was about the size of an old time penny.

—Dr. Frank Hines has purchased an Oakland car from H. B. Massey, the agent here. Dr. Hines' many friends and former patients will be glad to know that he will return to Kent and resume his practice here next Tuesday, June 3.

—Mr. M. Goodman, the High street shoe repairer, who succeeded Max Rosin, failed this week. His chief creditor is a Philadelphia firm, which it is said, he owes a considerable sum. H. W. Vickers, Esq., is Goodman's attorney.

—Master William Loller, the young son of Mr. Hicks Loller, one of Kent's progressive farmers, had his arm broken while playing with the children at school. Dr. Frank Smith advised that he be taken to Easton and have an X-ray taken, which Mr. Loller did. The little fellow is doing well now.

—The most beautiful rose gardens we have seen is that at Quaker Neck Wharf owned by Miss Mary Brooks. A climbing American Beauty, which covers the side of the home, would be the pride of many a florist. Mr. E. R. Anthony has a climbing rose bush that is a beauty also.

—Hawker and Lieut. Comdr. Grieve, who attempted to fly across the Atlantic, and were thought lost for several days, were picked up by a passing steamer and landed in Scotland. The American, Reid, however, who started at the same time, made the trip safely, after many experiences.

—A Home and School Association was formed in Chestertown Thursday evening with Mrs. P. M. Brooks president; F. G. Usilton, vice-president; and Mrs. W. R. Huey, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the Grammar School Monday, June 2, at 8 p. m.

—Fraternal Hall was crowded by a large number of Modern Woodmen on Friday evening who were there for the purpose of voting upon the increase in rates made necessary by the great drain upon the order because of the casualities of the war. The members voted to sustain the increase.

—Mr. A. L. Sparks will erect a fine apartment over the present Third National Bank Building, which went in with the deal of a few months ago. The palte glass windows of Mr. Sparks' old store will also be used when the building is remodeled. Mr. and Mrs. Sparks will reside in the apartment over the store.

—Washington College and Queenstown played a fifteen-inning tie Saturday afternoon at Queenstown. Gordy was on the mound for the W. C. boys and pitched a superb game, allowing but a few scattered hits. The score should have been 2 to 1 in favor of Washington College, but the umpire allowed a fake "steal home" during a discussion, which really was an out. If they play again it is a "sure bet" that W. C. will snow them under.

—Mr. George W. French has resigned his position at the Third National Bank and has purchased the fire insurance business from Mr. Edgar P. Beck. Mr. French took charge of the insurance business yesterday. He is an experienced insurance man, having represented the Prudential Company here for a number of years, and will no doubt make good in his new field of work. He has many warm personal friends in this county.

—National Committeeman Mrs. Evelyn Harris, attended a meeting of the National Canners' Committee in Wilmington, Del., Wednesday last, May 28. This is quite a compliment to Mrs. Harris to be selected as a delegate to such an important gathering. The meeting was held for the purpose of finding a way to dispose of last year's pack of tomatoes at the least loss possible to the canners of the country. The ending of the war put a great many canned tomatoes on the market which has produced a glut.

—Mr. Edgar P. Beck has sold his insurance business and transferred all the companies represented by him to Mr. George W. French. Mr. Beck will leave the county in the early fall to take charge of large lumber and other interests on the Western Shore. We very much regret to lose Mr. Beck and his family from the town and hope he may find his new work pleasant and profitable.

Real Estate Sales

Mr. C. H. Eshman, the present proprietor, has purchased the Voshell House from Mr. J. A. Bradley, of Baltimore, for the sum of $15,000. The sale includes the stables and the lot adjoining. The Voshell House was erected by the late John Voshell in 1864 at a cost of $30,000. Mr. Eshman, who came here from Harrisonburg, Va., contemplates making extensive improvements at the hotel.

Mr. J. C. Redmile has sold his farm near Kennedyville containing 150 acres, to Mr. Wilmer Ford. Price said to be about $15,000.

The Russell Realty Co. has purchased from Mr. G. P. Hendrickson the fine farm near Brice's Mill. The tract contains about 300 acres. Price said to be $24,000. This is one of Kent's good farms.

S. P. Townshend, Esq., trustee, sold to Frederick Toulson and wife the Sarah C. Wilson property near Fairlee for $210.

Mr. Claude F. Parks purchased the Anthony farm, across the river, from Mr. Keeler recently for $20,000. Mr. Keeler paid $12,500 for the farm from Mr. James T. Anthony about two years ago.
