Mrs. Jones, starts work in her new position on Oct. 4.

"Mrs. Jones, who was born in Tennessee and received her master's degree in social work from Howard University, will be responsible for the broadening of the overall program of tuberculosis control with the Association," Mr. Jones stated.

THE MARYLAND Tuberculosis Association is presently conducting a medical-social work program in the Baltimore City Health Department clinics under the direction of Mrs. Anne Reed.

A special project, demonstrating the need for more intensive community organization, health education and more coordinated interagency relation was completed by the Association in July of this year.

This project was carried out in the Mount Royal-Fremont area. A report on this will be made to the Association's board of directors in November.

Ministers support church articles

A group of ministers, stirred by the first article by the Rev. Herbert O. Edwards in the AFRO's series "How Baltimore Churches Are Failing," made an "urgent appeal this week for the city's clergy to unit in helping combat poverty.

The Rev. Gus Roman, pastor of First Baptist Church, speaking also for the Revs. Frank Williams, Metropolitan Methodist, and H. Hudson Bobbitt, Leadenhall Baptist, said: "We would like to express our real concern over the truth contained in Rev. Edwards' article.

"Too long have we been insensitive to the problems of our people.

"We would appeal to the colored clergy of this city to begin to think of creative ways to eliminate the causes of poverty.

"It is our opinion that the clergy is in the best position to make the greatest impact on the poverty of our people.

"We agree that we hope the series of articles will serve to stimulate people to action."

said that he had no specific remedies to offer at the moment, but added, "Whatever is done will have to come to grips with unemployment.

"Education and other necessities will follow when there are jobs."

He stated that "If the ministers can get together, we feel they can come up with some meaningful ideas in this area."

The minister said that a group of clergymen "should explore the possibilities of securing funds for projects from foundations, Federal agencies, philanthropic organizations and the Office of Economic Opportunity."

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Money game ends Saturday

"All good things must come to an end," is an ancient truism, which covers the life and time of everything and everybody.

That the AFRO MONEYMAN has proven to be a good thing for hundreds of "the dearest people in the world"—AFRO readers — is no exception.

It is with considerable sorrow then that we must announce that Saturday will ring down the curtain on one of the most exciting and profitable games ever devised by your favorite newspaper.

So as his last swing through the streets of our town, Saturday, the MONEYMAN will be looking for the last batch of lucky readers with whom he can share his fortune. Be ready.

In order to play, you only need the latest edition of the AFRO.

And what do you have to do to win? Just know the lucky number, of course. It is just that easy.

WEDNESDAY'S Jackpot winner, Mrs. Hazel Latimore of 30 N. Mount St, knew the Lucky Number — 007—and easily won $25. Daughter JoAnn leaped for joy and the Moneyman quipped that the "secret agent is at it again."

"Going downtown," a familiar saying, was the only comment the caravan managed to get from Mrs. Latimore who has eight little Latimores to keep her busy.

"I didn't want to end my campaign without coming to your block" was echoed throughout the city Wednesday as the MONEYMAN dished out cold, crisp, green bills.

An employee of the Corps of Engineers in Baltimore, she was cited July 13 for making an improper left hand turn and having no driver's license in her possession.

Later before Judge Mary Arabian, she was fined $6 and $4 court costs. When she attempted to pay the fine by check, it was refused.

She was in the process of being booked for jail, when her supervisor appeared in response to her call and paid the fine.

All the while, the Traffic Court allowed the payment of fines by mail.

* * *

MRS. WRIGHT didn't let the matter drop there, however. She wrote Gov. J. Millard Tawes and Mayor Theodore R. McKeldin.

The governor suggested the Legislative Council for corrective legislation. Mayor McKeldin later urged the Council to press for a bill to make checks good in auto fines at all times.

Del. Frank J. McCourt (D. 2nd D. Balto.) and Hyman A. Pressman, city comptroller, joined in rapping the Traffic Court policy.

Mrs. Wright appeared Wednesday to have won her round against Baltimore's antiquated Traffic Court system, in this check payment system respect.

THE GOP's 40 - member policy - drafting committee, having sat through two sessions on Sept. 11 and 25 to hear views on what was termed six vital issues, presents its findings Saturday.

This final meeting will reveal what the Republicans envision by way of taxes, education, transportation, natural resources, economic development and health.

Policy on civil rights and anti - poverty, among other issues, are certain to be included.

Joseph M. Dukert, vice chairman of the State Central Committee, heads the policy group, whose 40 members include the Rev. Robert T. Newbold and Charles Cornish, of Cambridge.

surance and other provisions of the 1965 amendments to the social security program.

The three major groups of people who should get in touch with the social security office are the following:

1. People who are now 65 or older but who are not entitled to social security benefits. Some of these people are eligible for benefits but have not applied for them because they are still working full time. Barney emphasized that it is desirable for these people to apply now to establish their social security benefit rights and to qualify for the hospital insurance protection that begins in July, 1966.

2. Widows 60 or 61 years of age who under the old law would have been eligible for widows benefits at age 62. They may now apply for social security benefits as early as age 60 if they wish to accept a permanently reduced amount.

3. Unmarried students 18 to 22 years of age whose social security benefits have been stopped and students who receive social security benefits and are nearing age 18, and who plan to continue in school. Upon application, monthly benefits can be paid back to January, 1965 to unmarried students who were under 22 in January, 1961 and who were dropped from the social security rolls when they reached 18.

actual information during our study appeared at a Sept. 13 meeting of the committee and informed us that employment opportunities for colored in Maryland are generally unchanged since our study was completed eight months ago."

The Maryland State Legislature, earlier this year, passed a fair employment practice law which was designed to abolish racial discrimination in employment. The legislative action came after the Advisory Committ completed its study.

The committee's report reviewed developments in the areas of state employment, job training and apprenticeship.

The Maryland Advisory Committee recommended "vigorous" implementatio of Title VII of the 1964 Civil Rights Act which established the legal right to equal opportunity in employment and created the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to administer the title.

If she so desires. In some families adjustments are possible."

"Young kids these days have a different thing about accepting responsibilities," the bachelor who also works for Armco-Steel added.

"A lot of women stay home and do very little and in this case the home would benefit more if she were employed. Sure, some of these strong healthy women should be out here working," he concluded.

So the majority of the stepsitters believe that mothers shouldn't work and for various reasons. And as the inquiring reporter and photographer headed for home, Mr. Brown gave them some final words of wisdom:

"Some of the mothers at home pay more attention to that television than they do those children."
