WE are glad to see a move on foot to provide a palyground for the boys of Chestertown. Play is necessary for the proper physical development of children, and to get sufficient exercise it is necessary to have a play ground. There should be enough public spirited people in Chestertown to provide a proper play ground for the children of the town. Push this enterprise along until it is accomplished. We will lend our assistance to this laudable enterprise.

The Protestant Episcopal Convention

The Protestant Episcopal Convention met at Trinity Church, Elkton, Tuesday, June 3, 1919. Holy communion was celebrated at 11 a. m., after which Bishop Adams read his annual address. The convention then adjourned until 2 p. m. At the convening of the convention a business session was held and a number of resolutions were offered the most important of which was a resolution endorsing the League of Nations to enforce peace.

A motion was made and carried to give the women of this diocese the right to vote for vestrymen and on all other church matters. The balance of the session was taken up with routine business.

The evening session was opened with prayer by the bishop. The Rev. Mr. Bettinger, agent for the Board of Missions, made an address in behalf of the nation-wide movement to raise $20,000,000 for missionary and other church purposes. The movement was endorsed by the convention and a committee was appointed to further the work in this diocese.

At the meeting Wednesday morning the usual routine of business was taken up and disposed of, after which the convention elected four clerical and four lay delegates to the general convention which meets in Detroit, Michigan, October 8. The clerical delegates elected were Revs. S. S. Hepburn, of I. U., this county; Dr. Davies, of Easton, W. Dunbar Gould, of Cambridge, and Mr. Cummings, of Centreville. The lay delegates elected Mr. E. Thomas Massey, of Masseys, this county, Col. W. Hopper Gibson, of Centreville, Dudley G. Roe, of Sudlersville, Queen Annes County, and Mr. William Cooper, of Salisbury.

While the tellers were preparing their report Rev. Dr. Kurkus, of Wilmington, addressed the convention on the subject of "Young Men for the Ministry." There are a number of the young men who are returning from the army applying for entrance to the ministry. A movement is now on foot to raise $100,000 to aid in the education of these young men for this noble calling.

COMMENCEMENT AT C. H. S.

Splendid Exercises Held At The Local School This Week

This has been commencement week at the Chestertown High School and has been marked by splendid exercises at every occasion of the week, which began on Sunday morning when Dr. H. B. Martin delivered an interesting baccalaureate sermon in Emmanuel P. E. Church.

On Tuesday evening the Declamation Contest was held, the following program being rendered: instrumental solo, Robert Pippin; vocal solo, Miss Helen Rouse; declamation, "Over the Hill To The Poorhouse," Jeannette Willis; Declamation, "Lincoln's Gettysburg address, Milbourne Jones; declamation, "Legend of The Bragan," Estella King; violin solo, William Smith; declamation, "Old Ace," Flora Corey; declamation, "An Appeal To Arms," Jesse Moffett; declamation, "An Extract from an Oration by Jas. G. Blaine," Charles Armstrong; vocal solo, Vernon Kirby. The judges, who were Rev. G. T. Alderson and Messrs. F. G. Usilton and J. R. Moody, unanimously decided in favor of Miss Estella King, who was presented the medal, which is given every year by Mr. L. B. Russell, at commencement; quartette, composed of Misses Grace Bennett, Florence Kent, Charles Armstrong and Clarke Davis, rendered a nice selection, after which Professor Creasy announced the result of the declamation contest.

On Wednesday night the class night exercises were held, and a good crowd was present. As usual the exercises were extremely interesting.

The banquet and dance of the alumni were held in the auditorium of the Chestertown High School Thursday evening. A large crowd of the graduates of other years were present and the occasion was truly an enjoyable one.

On last Friday evening the commencement proper was held in William Smith Hall, at which time the diplomas were handed the graduates, whose names we published in a recent issue. Dr. H. J. Whalen, of Greensburg, Pa., delivered the address to the graduates.

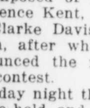

The Elementary School of Chestertown gave a pageant entitled "Wheel Destiny," on the school lawn Thursday evening. A big crowd was present. The following was the program of the pageant: America and her Allies presented their folk games, while Columbia and Uncle Sam stood guard. The folk games represented the recreation life of each ally, as follows: United States—The army and the Red Cross, represented by the second grade.

Japan—Japanese dance of greeting, Fancy Drill and Swinging Games, Third and First Grade.

England—Chimes of Dunkirk, Scotland—Reaping the Flax, Ireland, Third Grade; English May Pole Dance, Second Grade; France, Vintage Drill, Fifth Grade; Italy, Tarantella, Fifth Grade; Belgian, Belgian Tag, "The Flower of the Poppies," Sixth Grade. The representatives of the Allies were then formed in the "Wheel Of Destiny," presided over by Columbia and Uncle Sam.

The bazaar was extremely interesting and a big success.

...st sign the peace treaty ...he treaty was given to ...vised form yesterday, ... in a position to ...ure that Germany

Sergeant-Major Edward Blackway has been mustered out of service and will make his home in Chestertown, where he is interested in the bottling works of Blackway Brothers.

Navy recruiting parties have been making a drive for recruits in Kent county this week and have posted every available place with placards regarding the advantages of enlisting in the navy. Not a single recruit was gotten.

Sergeant Merritt Brown has returned to Altoona, Pa., and resumed his position in the car shops of that city.

Sharpshooter Edward Duyer has returned to Philadelphia and entered civilian life again.

Mr. Samuel B. Armstrong has been made a corporal. He has been stationed at Camp Dix for about a year.

Mr. Elmer Batchelor, son of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Batchelor, has been mustered out of service and is now home.

Mr. Harry Derringer graduated from the Naval Academy last week and is spending several weeks with his mother, Mrs. Alice Derringer, in Chestertown.

Mr. W. F. Moore, a former W. C. student, who was reported killed in France, which was afterward denied, was in Chestertown this week.

Mr. Schoenrich, a former W. C. student, who had his leg crushed at Camp Meade, at the beginning of the war, is in town for commencement.

When Sergeant Irving Sparks returns from France he will find a fine auto—the present of his parents—here for him. Sergeant Sparks is a great auto lover and his father bought him one that can "travel some."

Sergeant Elmer Sterling has been mustered out of service and is assisting his brother at the drug store. We are glad to see Sergeant Sterling back. He has some interesting trophies on display at Sterling's Pharmacy.

Mr. Edwin Urie has been discharged and is the guest of his parents at Rock Hall.

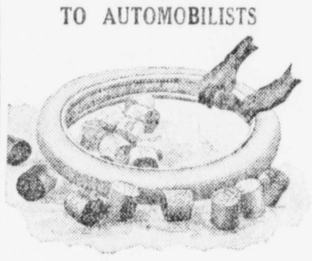

Mr. Ralph McGinnis, formerly of the 204th Div. Sup. Train, has received his discharge and has returned to Rock Hall.

Private William T. Henry, of Chestertown, has received his honorable discharge from the army and is in Chestertown for the time. Private Henry saw considerable active service in France.

Private Frank Lambert, who was in France and saw active service, was home for the week-end. Private Lambert has probably received his discharge by this time.

Sergeant E. L. Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks, arrived in Boston June 8. He expects to be sent to Camp Meade shortly and mustered out in a few days after arriving there.

PUBLIC SALE
—OF A—Valuable Farm
'N QUEEN ANNE' COUNTY, MD., NEAR MILLINGTON

The undersigned, Martha J. Barnes and Emma E. Barnes, owners, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, in front of Central Hotel, in the town of Millington, Kent County, Maryland, on commencing at the hour of 11.30 o'clock a. m., all that valuable tract of land or farm known as the "Barnes Farm," situate in the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's County, Maryland, near Millington, on both sides of the public road leading from the Unicorn Woolen Mills to Millington, adjoining the lands of John Biggs, Charles S. Stevens and the Unicorn Woolen Mills, and containing

SATURDAY, JUNE 14, '19

160 Acres of Land,

more or less

The improvements consist of a large 2 1-2 story frame dwelling house in good repair and containing eleven rooms; also a stable, barn, carriage house, implement shed, ice house and other outbuildings. There is a fine well of water near the house.

The farm has a good light soil which is fertile and productive and grows nice crops of wheat, corn, grass and truck. All the land, with the exception of about two acres, is arable, and three of the fields border on the mill pond.

The location of this property is very desirable and attractive, it being just outside of the town of Millington and on the shell road leading out of Millington to the Unicorn Mills, while its close proximity to the railroad and the town makes the situation a most convenient one in every respect. The sale of this farm offers an unusual opportunity to any person who may be seeking a good, medium-sized farm either for a home or as an investment.

This farm is being offered for sale for the reason that on account of the recent death of their brother, John Barnes, the undersigned owners are not in a position to carry on or manage the farm.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on the day of sale, and the balance of the purchase money to be paid in two equal instalments, payable respectively in one and two years from the day of sale, with interest on each instalment from said day of sale, and the payment thereof to be secured by the notes of the purchaser or purchasers with surety or sureties to be approved by the undersigned; or the whole purchase money may be paid in cash, at the option of the purchaser or purchasers.

Possession given January 1, 1920, with the usual rights and privileges of incoming tenants. Title papers at expense of purchaser. Further particulars will be made known on the day of sale.
