LOCAL MATTERS

May Start Army Club Here.—There is considerable talk among men who participated in the late conflict of organizing a club in Chestertown composed of the soldiers of the late war. This will undoubtedly be done at some date in the near future, and the sooner the men get together the better.

Dog Taxes Due.—Within the next few weeks every Kent county dog must wear a new license tag. On June 30 the old licenses expire and July 1 must see each canine with a new tag suspended from his collar. The statewide dog law has been in effect in Maryland one year with good effect in most counties.

Caught Without Lights.—Road Officer Carter, of the Motor Vehicle Commissioner's flying squadron, swooped down on Centreville the other night and found a number of autoists unprepared for his visit, in that proper display of lights were not shown. In each case a fine of $5 and costs were imposed by Justice Coursey.

Peculiar Mishap To Chickens.—Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Anthony lost 35 chickens about a half-pound in size the other day. Mr. Anthony had set a bucket about a quarter full of feed where the chickens stayed and came in the house a few hours later to find the bucket filled with dead chickens. The supposition of Mr. Anthony is that the chickens got into the bucket for feed and were smothered by piling on each other.

Washington College Defeats Kennedyville.—Kennedyville and W. C. played a fast game at Kennedyville on Thursday, W. C. winning by the score of 4 to 2. Both teams played a good game. The fact that the Kennedyville boys are extremely busy at this time caused them to be somewhat out of practice and they did not give their twirler as good support as they should. Gerdy was on the mound for W. C., while Archibald twirled for Kennedyville, and both pitched good ball. The three-base hit by Hurlock, Kennedyville's center fielder, which drove in two runs, was the feature of the game. Mr. Frank Jarman umpired the game. Other baseball notes on page three.

To Present Drama.—The recently organized dramatic club at Washington College will present its first play, "Won By Wireless," at William Smith Hall Monday evening at 8.30. The club is entitled the "Blunder-makers' Club, and the cast of characters for Monday night's play is as follows: William Ainsworth, a financial magnate, H. C. Wickard; Jack Simms, a wireless operator, M. L. Hubbard; Robert Faulkner, Captain of the "Mistress Mary," K. H. Kaiser; Count di Lucca, an Italian Nobleman, F. de P. Carral; Lady Caroline Rathbone, Ainsworth's Daughter, Grace Nickerson; Geraldine Ainsworth, her sister, Evelyn Russell; Kitty Lee, Geraldine's maid, Helen Kendall. The Executive Staff of the club is as follows: Pres., H. C. Wickard; Business Manager, John Gibbons; Stage Manager, L. M. Gorsuch; Properties, Frank Ayres, Jr.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Bolshevism on trial at the Lyceum tonight.

—A Chestertown girl made a cement "tomb" for a pet rabbit that died the other day.

—Messrs. W. H. Truslow & Son have purchased another incubator that has a capacity of about 20,000.

—The Loyola tennis team defeated the home team here Saturday 4 to 2, while W. C. tied Drexel Institute.

—Mrs. S. E. Quick, former postmistress at Gratitude, has been appointed assistant at Tolchester postoffice.

—Mr. George E. Sutton advertises three or four horse races at the Old Worton track July 4 beginning at 2 p. m.

—Mr. W. O. Bringman has leased the Eastern Shore Inn and will conduct the same as a hotel and restaurant.

—Mr. Thomas W. Perkins has recently purchased a "S. G. V." car that is one of the old timers, but said to be a fast traveler.

—Wesley Collegiate Institute, Dover, at the coming commencement, completes its 46th year, the most successful in its history.

—A trip through Kent county at this time will convince the most pessimistic that this county is one of the prettiest in the country.

—The graduating exercises of the Chestertown Elementary School will be held this Saturday evening in William Smith Hall at 8 o'clock.

—The tractor adv. of Mr. Burton Edwards, of Massey, appears in this issue. Mr. Edwards is advertising "Big Lauson Features." See adv.

—The convention of State Convention of Volunteer Firemen was held in Salisbury Wednesday. Mr. Jack Hendrix was the only Chestetrown man to attend.

—During the past ten days the mosquito has inaugurated an intensive and effective "drive" in all parts of Kent county, putting a real war-time kick in his efforts.

—Mr. James Taylor fell from a telephone pole, where he was working, at Rock Hall on Saturday and was badly injured. He was taken to the office of Dr. Beall for medical attention and is now doing well.

—Jacob Pryor, colored, is in Chestertown jail for badly cutting up his wife, Mary Pryor, Monday night at a house in Lynchburg, Chestertown. She was stabbed several times in the back and had a wrist badly cut.

—Mr. Josiah Massey has one of the finest fields of wheat we have seen at his farm near Goose Hill. Kent wheat fields surely look fine, with excellent prospects of a bumper crop next month.

—Mr. T. R. Starr, of near Pomona, brought us the finest box of strawberries that we have seen this year last week. They were not only large in size, but were excellent in flavor.

—Whit Monday was observed in Kent county chiefly by the colored workers, many of whom started celebrating on Saturday last and continued the same around the following Friday.

—Mr. A. Leon Brown has purchased from Messrs. W. B. Usilton, S. S. Bec and C. F. Parks the farm where he now resides. These gentlemen purchased this farm last week. Price private.

—Mr. John S. Vandegrift, the Cross street groceryman and barber, has the first canteloupes in the Chestertown market. It is needless to say they were not grown in this section.

—The Russell Realty Co. has purchased of Judge Lewin W. Wickes his farm between Chestertown and Worton, containing 133 acres and tenanted by Mr. Clarence Fowler. Price private. This is a fine tract of land.

—The following Junior Home Makers' Club girls are at College Park this week taking a special course: Mary Cornelius, Kennedyville; Bertha Cooper, Still Pond; Marian Dempsey, Galena; Clara Medders and Ann Bonwill, Still Pond.

—The ladies of St. Paul's Church will have a supper and festival on the church lawn next Tuesday, June 17. These suppers have become so popular that large crowds always attend. You are always assured of a good supper at St. Paul's.

—The Noland-Bennett & Russell Motor Co. will have an automobile tire expert at their store Wednesday next, June 18, to give information and advise on the saving of tires. It will be to the interest of all automobile owners to be present and get this valuable information.

—Mr. J. Biddle Hossinger has sold his farm on the state road adjoining his home far and now tenanted by Mr. Ruthwin Strong, to Mr. Walter Wright, of Chestertown. Price paid is private. Mr. Strong will remain on the farm the balance of this and next year, 1920.

—P. T. Bramble is having a building 24 by 36 erected on his poultry farm in Queen Annes, near town, which will be used as an incubator and brooder house. A new incubator of about 6000 eggs capacity will be installed. A new chicken house 12 x 36 is also being erected.

—Mr. J. W. Newton has sold his fine farm, near Hopewell, known as the "Perkins" farm, to Messrs. Robert and Hynson Loud. Price private. This farm contains 203 acres of land. Mr. Newton recently purchased the big farms from Davis Brothers, as noted elsewhere.

—Kennedyville Grange was delightfully entertained by Still Pond Grange on last Saturday evening. Next Monday evening, June 16, at 8 o'clock Kennedyville Grange hopes to welcome members from all the granges in the county. The third and fourth degrees will be exemplified by the degree team.

—The following boys from the Chestertown High School participated in the athletic meet in Baltimore last week: Norman Crow, Raymond Tucker, Gale Willis, Robt. Hatcherson, John Townshend, James Kirby, Dudley Stafford, Spencer Smith, Clifton Everett, Thomas McGinnis, Russell Townshend, William Fowler.

—Mr. William Newton, of near Worton, has purchased of Davis Brother, of Galena, the Black farms in Shrewsbury Neck, for $50,000. These farms contain 400 acres or more and are tenanted by Henry Rutter and Cornelius Jarvis. Davis Brothers bought them for $39,000 a few years ago. Mr. Newton gets all the crops. We understand he will occupy the same next year.

—The delay in declaring the tax rate by the County Commissioners is caused by the delay in the State Tax Commission in furnishing the county board with certified copies of the assessible value of the banks and corporations of the county. The commissioners cannot declare the rate until they get this information. Owing to the continued high costs of all commodities, a slight increase in the tax rate may be looked for this year.

CHURCH NOTES

Returned Soldiers Entertained

The citizens of Galena gave a homecoming entertainment to the soldiers of the First District last Monday evening. Vocal and instrumental music was furnished by Mrs. Elizabeth Jarman, Mr. and Mrs. N. V. Walters, Miss Helen Vansant, Mrs. Holt Woodall, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew McCauley, Dr. E. J. Scott presided and short addresses were made by several gentlemen visitors. A very pretty tableau was presented by Miss Marjory Todd and Miss Elizabeth Jarman, after which delightful refreshments were served to all present.

On Wednesday evening the Epworth League of Galena gave the returned soldiers an enjoyable entertainment on the lawn of Mr. Davis.

The Oddfellows of Still Pond entertained the returned soldiers in that section. A prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Goodhand; Rev. S. S. Hepburn made a very impressive address and Miss Mable Norris read a fine selection. Several patriotic songs were sung and refreshments served. There were ten or twelve soldiers present.

WEDDINGS

Miss Frances May Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Frank Davis, of Rock Hall, became the bride of Mr. William E. Owens, of Betterton, on June 4. The event was solemnized by Rev. T. C. Smoot at his home in Rock Hall. Miss Davis was handsomely attired in blue serge with hat to match and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Florence C. Hogans and Miss Thelma Ashley. Mr. Owens had as best man Mr. Norman Brice, of Betterton. A reception was given the wedding party by Mrs. James Casey, the bride's grandmother. Refreshments were served. They will reside in Betterton.
