DEATHS

Miss Margaret H. Conner, daughter of Thomas Conner, died on Wednesday at her father's home near Chesterville aged 30 years. She leaves father, brother and two sisters. The funeral was held Friday with interment at St. Dennis Cemetery, Lambson. Rev. Father Dailey officiated. The bearers were James, John, Thomas and Daniel Quinn, James Donahoe and James Conner.

Chestertown is deeply saddened to know that Robert, the little son of Mr. and Joseph Lewis, died at Easton hospital on Monday of stomach trouble, aged 3 years. Funeral was held Wednesday afternoon conducted by Rev. Geo. T. Alderson, interment in Chester cemetery. C. L. Dodd was in charge. He was a charming little fellow and loved by all who knew him.

Mr. Leonard Magee, husband of Mrs. Mary Toulson, who is the daughter of Mr. Frank Toulson, of Quaker Neck, was killed by coming in contact with an electric wire Tuesday in Baltimore. The remains were brought over by Tolchester on Friday and interred at Chester cemetery upon arrival. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. T. Alderson. C. L. Dodd undertaker. The bearers were Lewin U. Skirven, Harry Toulson, William Toulson, T. S. Toulson, Edgar Pennington, Walter Bramble.

On Sunday evening during the electrical storm which passed over this county, lightning struck two young girls in Mrs. Samuel Cannan's yard, near Rock Hall, as they were passing under a tree, killing Miss Lillie Watson, oldest daughter of Mr. Herbert Watson, instantly, and badly injuring Miss Anna Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Kelley. Miss Watson was seventeen years of age and her sad and untimely end cast a shadow of sorrow over the whole community. Miss Kelley was badly burned about the head, neck and limbs, but regained consciousness some hours afterward and has a good chance of recovery. Miss Watson's funeral was conducted on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. A. F. T. Raum at Skinner's Neck, interment being in Wesley Chapel cemetery. The bearers were James T. Kelley, John H. Boulter, Edward E. Watson, Herbert Beck, Roland Kelley, G. E. Kendall. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.
