Impressive Exercises And Lively Debates And Declamations Make The Week One Of Enjoyment Here

This has been commencement week at Washington College and while not as large a crowd as usual has been in Chestertown for the occasion, the week has been an enjoyable one to all who attended.

On Sunday morning Dr. J. Wilson Sutton, a former Washington College student, and a former resident of this county, where he was born, now one of the ministers of Trinity P. E. Parish, New York City, delivered an eloquent and masterly baccalaureate sermon at William Smith Hall, Washington College, to a large crowd. All the Protestant Churches of Chestertown had been closed for the occasion. Dr. Sutton is a preacher of remarkable ability and his sermon was one of the best that has been delivered here in many years.

On Sunday evening Dr. Geo. T. Alderson, pastor of the Chestertown M. E. Church, delivered the annual sermon to the Y. M. C. A. of the College at the M. E. Church, taking as his subject, "The Man of the Hour." Dr. Alderson's sermon was a good one and was enjoyed by all who heard it.

On Monday evening at 8.30 o'clock the Blundermakers' Club of the college rendered the play, "Won by Wireless," at William Smith Hall. A good crowd attended and the play was interesting and well rendered. The cast of characters was as follows: William Ainsworth, a financial magnate, H. C. Wickard; Jack Simms, a wireless operator, M. L. Hubbard; Robert Faulkner, Captain of the "Mistress Mary," K. H. Kaiser; Count di Lucca, an Italian Nobleman, F. de P. Carral; Lady Caroline Rathbone, Ainsworth's Daughter, Grace Nickerson; Geraldine Ainsworth, her sister, Evelyn Russell; Kitty Lee, Geraldine's maid, Helen Kendall. The Executive Staff of the club is as follows: President, H. C. Wickard; Business Manager, John Gibbons; Stage Manager, L. M. Gorsuch; Properties, Frank Ayres, Jr.

The Declamation Contest for the Simpers Medals was held on Tuesday morning with the following participants: Frank Ayres, Rock Hall, "Clement Clay's Speech on the Secession of Alabama"; Otis H. Gray, Ellicott, Mr., "Not Guilty"; W. D. R. Straughn, Girdletree, Md., "Young Fellow, My Lad"; Grace Nickerson, Chestertown, "The Swing." The judges, Rev. J. F. Earner, Miss Adele France and Prof. B B. Wroth, by unanimous vote awarded first honors to Miss Grace Nickerson and second to W. D. R. Strong.

The fifth annual debate for the Rogers Medals was held Tuesday evening at Wm. Smith Hall. The question for debate was "Resolved that incomes of $750,000 and over should be taxed 100 per cent." The affirmative was supported by Miss Helen Isabel Kendall, of Chestertown, and Mr. Harry Derrickson West, of Chestertown, while the negative was supported by Miss Evelyn Rusell, of Chestertown, and Mr. Harold Carlton Wickard, of Cumberland. The negative side of the argument was victorious, Miss Evelyn Russell receiving first prize, while Miss Kendall received the second prize. The judges were Miss Fannie Stuart and Messrs. Thomas D. Bowers and W. Raymond Moody.

The commencement proper was held on Wednesday morning in William Smith Hall. Dr. Murray P. Brush delivered a splendid sermon to the graduates, who were as follows: Carroll Edward Bounds, of Allen, Md.; Clyde Everett Bounds, of Snow Hill, Md.; Charles Budd Ford, of Chestertown; Ruby Josephine Graham, Chestertown; Milton Lecompte Hubbard, of Carroll County; Merrill Donaldson Knight, of Rockville, Md.; Harry Brewington Lankford, of White Haven, Md.; Edwin Clyde Walls, of Church Hill, Md.; Page Gibbons Young, Aquasco, Md.; Francisco de Paula Carrall, of Mexico City, Mexico; Harriette Staples Welch, of Chestertown; Harry Derrickson West, of Chestertown.

The program for Wednesday morning was as follows: Academic Procession; March, "The Enterpriser"; singing, "The Star Spangled Banner"; Invocation, Rev. J. L. Ward; overture by orchestra; Second Honor Oration and Salutatory, "For Democracy," Edwin Clyde Walls, Church Hill; cornet solo, "Walther's Traumlied," Theo. C. Dieterich; First Honor Oration and Valedictory, "Future of Americanism," Edward Carroll Bounds, Allen, Md.; Paraphrase, "The Last Rose of Summer," orchestra; address to graduating class, Dr. M. P. Brush, Director of Tome Institute; conferring of degrees and the awarding of prizes; selection by orchestra; benediction, Rev. H. D. West.

The following prizes were awarded: Miss Evelyn Russell, Visitors' and Governors' Medal, for highest average in the Junior Class; Harold C. Wickard, alumni medal, for highest average in the Sophomore Class; Austin P. Wheeler, Shannons' Medal, for highest average in the Freshman Class; Intercollegiate Oratorical Society Medal, Harold C. Wickard.

The following degrees were conferred:

Bachelor of Arts—Carroll Edward Bounds, cum laude, Allen, Md.; Ruby Josephine Graham, cum laude, Chestertown, Md.; Harry Brewington Lankford, White Haven, Md.; Harriette Staple Welch, Chestertown, Md.; Harry Derrickson West, Fairlee,; Page Gibbons Young, Aquasco, Md.

Bachelor of Science—Clyde Everett Bounds, cum laude, Snow Hill, Md.; Francis DePaula Carral, Mexico City, Mexico; Charles Budd Ford, Chestertown; Milton DeCompte Hubbard, Cambridge, Md.; Merrill Donaldson Knight, Rockville, Md.; Edwin Clyde Walls, cum laude, Church Hill.

Master of Arts—Rev. John Lemuel Ward, A. B., Western Maryland College, 1896; A. M., University of Harriman, 1900; admitted to Maryland Annual Conference, 1897, ordained, 1899; pastor of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, member of Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church; Professor of Philosophy and Social Science, 1918-1919.

Master of Science—V. Bernard Siems, B. S., Milton University, 1919; member of the American Water Works Association and the Engineers' Club of Baltimore City; Executive and Research Engineer on many important construction projects; Principal Assistant Engineer of the Baltimore City Water Department.

On Wednesday evening the annual commencement ball was held, which was attended by students and alumni of the college from all parts of the state.

—The hook and line fishermen of this section are beginning to get their outfits ready for the fishing season. The net fishermen down the river are catching a good many fish. Captain Emory Crouch, who lives at Quaker Neck Wharf, caught nine boxes of fish one morning recently and shipped them to Baltimore.

NO REASON FOR IT

When Chestertown Citizens Show A Way

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Chestertown citizen says:

Mrs. May C. Frazier, High St., says: "I suffered from my kidneys and backache. At times I had dizzy spells and black spots before my eyes. My back ached when I had to bend over and my kidneys didn't act right at all. I surely was feeling miserable until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from The Stam Drug Co. I used them and had great relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Frazier had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Let's Be Cheerful

Being cheerful is one of the things that sustain the spirit of cooperation between you and the telephone operator. It means much to her and you benefit by it too. The service becomes more pleasant and generally more effective.

When you give a number to the operator, and when you talk over the telephone, let a bit of a smile creep into your voice. The voice with a smile wins —every time.
