Miss Brown married to Alfred Wittaker

Miss Rena Brown, daughter of the late Mr. and Mr. Columbus Brown, and Alfred Onell Writtaker were married in Sharon Baptist Church, Saturday at 2:30 p.m.

The Rev. James L. Moore officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The program of nuptial music was provided by Miss Mildred Williams, organist; and Elijah Skinner, soloist.

• • •

GIVEN IN marriage by her brother, Milton G. Gardner, the bride wore a gown of peau de soie, fashioned with a panel of lace down the front of the floor-length gown and enhanced by a detachable train.

The gown had a scalloped lace neckline and long sleeves. Her veil was attached to a lace coronet and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

The attendants wore full-length gowns of avocado green brocade made with long sleeves and low-cut necklines. They carried gold-green carnation cascades.

Mrs. Clementine Lynch was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Misses Martha Brown, Ruth Biddle, Gladys Watkins, Patricia Whittaker, Selenia Whittaker Elizabeth Ross and Carolyn Whittaker.

Misses Cynthia Brown and Robinette Williams were flower girls and the ring bearer was Kevin Brown.

• • •

LAWRENCE McNAIR was best man for Mr. Whittaker. Ushers were James Boston, Henry Whittaker, John Brown, Columbus Brown, Frederick Brown, Earl Chandler, Vincent Miles and Richard Barbee.

A reception followed in the Fiesta Room of the Alcazar Hotel.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a two-piece pale blue knit suit with black accessories, and pearl necklace and earings.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker are at home at 2010 Norfolk Ave.

The mother of the bride wore turquoise and the bridegroom's motrer wore rose.

After the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride for over a hundred and fifty friends and relatives.

Federal Unit hosts veterans

Under the leadership of Mrs. Edna Beckett, Rehabilitation Chairman, Federal Unit No. 19, American Legion Auxiliary, went to Loch Raven Veterans Administration Hospital on January 18th, to entertain the patients.

The members played bingo with the patients on Ward B-2. The winners received Canteen Books which contained 25 or 50 cent merchandise coupons with which they could purchase whatever they wanted at the Canteen located in the Hospital.

AFTER the bingo games were over, patients were served ice cream and cookies and given a bar of candy.

Auxiliary members making the visit were Mrs. Mary F. Awkward, President; Mrs. Edna W. Beckett, Rehabilitation Chairman; Mrs. Ida Bryant, Miss Ophelia F.C. Gibbs, Mrs. Bernice Johns, Mrs. Viola West and Mrs. Cora Wilson. Comrade William Talley of Federal Post No. 19, American Legion, also made the visit.
