LOCAL MATTERS

Hog Cholera.—Hog cholera is reported to exist on the premises of Mr. C. B. Anthony, near Centreville. Every precaution should be used to prevent this restructive disease. At the present high price of pork it will pay hog raisers to use cholera preventatives.

Additional List Of Promotions.—Elsewhere in this issue we publish a list of the Chestertown school promotions. The following names were ommitted from the Seventh Grade list, which grade is taught by Miss Mettie Loud: Rachel Willis, Mildred Hatcherson, Elizabeth Fay, Solomon Chaires, John Fay, Spencer Smith, Lee Startt, John Townsend, Raymond Tucker, Daniel Cartridge, Elizabeth Wickes.

Ferry Begins Operations.—The maiden trip of the new ferry to the Eastern Shore—from Annapolis to Claiborne—was made Thursday with elaborate ceremonies. There were speeches by Governor Harrington and by Mayor Strange, of Annapolis, the latter presenting to the captain of the ferry steamer, the "Emerson C. Harrington," a Maryland flag. The charge is $2 for each car each way, but no charge for the operators. The fare for other passengers will be 50 cents each way, or 75 cents for the round trip.

A Big Sale Of Registered Cattle.—Caldwell & Anderson sold 61 head of fancy registered holstein and grade cattle at their sale in Chestertown on last Saturday. The prices were only fair for the class of cattle they sold. Mr. J. H. Clendaniel bought the highest priced registered holstein heifer for $465. Mr. J. G. Cleaver, of Middletown, Del., paid $440 for the next highest. Quite a few brought over $200 each, which was very cheap for the class of cattle they sold. We are glad these gentlemen are bringing cattle here that will place our farmers with other progressive farmers in the cattle line.

Notice To Postoffice Patrons.—By order of the Postoffice Department, on and after July 1, 1919, the money order and register business in the Chestertown office will close for the day at 6.00 p. m. No money orders will be issued after that hour, and all registered mail will be delivered from the General Delivery window. The hours for the transaction of money order business will be from 6.45 a. m. to 6.00 p. m. every day, except Sunday. This order has been issued by the Department in order to comply more fully with the eight-in-ten-hour law, governing the working time of the employees of the postoffice.

Boys Nearly Drown At Tolchester.—Two boys bathing at Tolchester Beach Wednesday afternoon were saved from drowning by the heroism of A. C. Kramer, 635 North Robinson street, Baltimore, who was standing on the beach when the bathers cried for help. The boys were brothers, John and Morgan Sharss, and had gone to the resort with their mother, Mrs. E. F. Sharss, of West Arlington. The boys had been bathing for some time, when the tide caught Morgan, who is 9 years old, and carried him into deep water. His older brother went to his rescue, but being unable to swim was soon struggling in the water. Kramer, fully dressed, leaped into the water and swam to the boys and taking both of them in one arm he swam ashore. The younger brother was unconscious, but was soon revived.

—Contractor H. C. Cannan is erecting a dwelling house on the Baxter farm recently purchased by Mr. R. F. Parks, in Queen Annes. Sheriff Carter and family will tenant this farm.

—The daylight savings law has been repealed, both the Senate and House voting against it by big majorities. The daylight savings plan will be in operation, however, until October 26.

—A number of Chestertown residents saw a comet in the sky at about 7 p. m. on Friday evening last. Bridgekeeper Wheat saw it drop to the water near the bridge.

—Mr. Claude F. Parks has purchased a handsome Winton-Six from the Noland-Russell-Bennett Co., who are the agents for that car here. The car is expected today.

—On July 1 all the clerks in the Chestertown postoffice will have their salaries raised $100 a year. This increase was made by act of Congress a few months ago.

—Contractor William Duyer will begin shortly the erection of a dwelling for Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Holdson on High street, adjoining the residence of Mr. M. J. Rollison.

—A number of farmers in Kent and Queen Annes counties are cutting wheat. The wheat crop in some sections is reported to be injured, while in others it is not.

—A demonstration in tax ditching with dynamite will be given about six miles from Princess Anne, Somerset County, June 24 and 25 under the supervision of Mr. C. I. Cohee, of the Dupont Co., who will be assisted by several expert blasters.

—Mr. Spencer Biddle, of Quaker Neck, ploughed up a large number of the seventeen-year locusts the other day. Mr. Biddle says they were about seven inches below the surface of the ground.

—The war postage rates will be abolished July 1 and replaced with the rates like they were before the war. Beginning on that date the rate will be two cents on leters and one cent for post cards.

—The Postoffice Department has ordered that the money order and registry business in the Chestertown postoffice shall close for the day at 6 p. m., so that the eight-hour day law may be more fully observed.

—Mr. W. O. Bringman has returned to Chestertown and rented the Hotel Imperial, as we forecasted some time ago. Mr. Bringman has not yet opened his restaurant, but his pool room has been opened to the public.

—Messrs. Colin Stam and Simon Westcott twice defeated the Washington College team at tennis this week. Messrs. Henry Kratzer and John Collins were defeated at the same game by the W. C. team on Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Usilton a lot on Kent Circle 60x70 feet, adjoining the properties of Mr. G. F. Clark and Mr. F. G. Usilton. Mr. and Mrs. Jones will erect a home thereon.

—Dr. A. L. Sterling has the "honor" of being the first Chestertown gardener to eat white potatoes from his garden. This is particularly early for white potatoes and demonstrates that Dr Sterling knows the art of gardening.

—The seventeen-year-locusts have failed to visit Kent county, we are glad to state. They are guests that we can easily do without. With mosquitoes, fleas, harvesters and other pests we have plenty of that breed of "guests".

—The Germans have until June 24 to sign the final treaty of peace. On that date an allied army of 600,000 men, supported by artillery of unrevealed power, will begin an advance into Germany to enforce the terms of the treaty.

—The Graham & Thomas Hardware Company have sold to Mr. Merrick Clements a 10-foot cut Moline Tractor Grain Binder which he has at work in his fields today. This binder is drawn by a Moline Tractor. With this binder he can cut 40 acres of wheat a day, working 10 hours.

—Messrs. A. S. Turner & Sons have sold to Mr. Harry Sparks this week one used 3 1-2 ton Alamo and one new 3 1-2 ton Republic truck. Mr. Sparks is using the trucks for hauling large piling for shipment from Chestertown. Mr. Sparks, we understand, expects to erect a large saw mill in the woods on the farm tenanted by Mr. Joseph Sutton, near Reese's Corner.

—The Washington College vs. the Alumni baseball game on Wednesday afternoon resulted in a victory for the W. C. team by the score of 11 to 2. Johns and Metcalfe twirled for Alumni while Duffy, Robins, Bounds, Young and Walls were on the mound for the W. C. team. Mr. Thomas Massey, of Chestertown, one of the greatest base ball players and all-around athletes, that ever went to the institution, umpired the game in a very efficient manner.

CHURCH NOTES

The Methodist Episcopal Centenary Movement was successful, more than the full amount of $105,000,000 being secured. The total amount raised for the Centenary alone was $107,439,761.

Christ M. P. Church Sunday School will hold its picnic at Tolchester on July 9.

The supper served by the ladies of St. Paul's parish was as always a most sumptuous one and was largely attended. Quite a number of people were there from Cecil county.

The pastor, members and friends of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church desire to thank everyone who assisted in making their spring supper and festival a success. They desire also to thank Mr. H. D. Orem for changing night into day by the use of his Alamo Lighting Plant. The net proceeds were $152.

Children's Day services will be held at Skinner's Neck M. P. Sunday School Sunday night, June 22, at 8 p. m.
