Rector's Guild host at 'Sweetheart' Ball

With Lula Jones Garrett

Lovely party of the week was the Sweethearts Ball hosted by the Rector's Guild of St. James Episkopal Church, on Friday evening.

The Guild Hall, where the affair was held, bore the exquisite touch of Samuel Phillips' decorating, the Gliders provided music for dancing, and highlighting the evening was the crowning of Cleo Ashby as the queen of the ball.

The affair was the annual Valentine party of the Guild, whose warden is Mrs. Clara Bailey, Mrs. Ann Spadley was dance chairman, and other hostesses, members of the Guild, were:

Althea Aquilla, Leiya Blackwell, Charlene Coleman Aldena Clifford, Eugenia Douglass, Carrie Doram, Benita Freeman,

Also Peggy Franze, Cynthia Easter, Audrey Ferguson, Monterey Harrison, Eleanor Jennings, Delores Parker, Iva Larkins, Gloria Phillips, Ruth Perkins, Shirley Stewart, Bernice Slater, Barbara Thomas and Delaphine Watts.

'TWAS THEIR 26th anniversary and they intended to make it memorable, said a member.

They did.

Speaking of We Wives who entertained at a black - tie Valentine party in Emerald Gardens on Friday evening.

The party was one of those relatively small, intimate affairs that bloomed early in the evening, and long before intermission was at a climax of swing and conviviality.

The beautiful decor of the Gardens was a perfect setting for the bi-angled table from which hot and cold hors d' oeuvres and coffee were provided througout the evening . . .

For the individual tables over which the hostesses and their husbands presided and from which the beverages were served.

The party was also one for which, it seems, town gals had preserved their sauciest frocks . . . and the elegant dress of the hostesses and guests added no little to the elegance of the affair.

Hostess Ruby Reed, chic as always, chose a white, floor-length sequin sheath, cut low at the back and utterly sophisticated in the long sleeves. Hostess Vernicee Reynolds was in a red velvet two-piecer that features an interesting petal front neckline (the red lined with pale pink) and the new total look tied together with a high arrangement of hair-hair while she had sprayed silver for the evening.

Hostess Ida Smith clothed her tall and slender figure in black chiffon, an elegant number which had the empire line beaded, emphasizing the lattice top which was paved in brilliants. One of two sisters who are members of the club, the other, Bettye Moss, chose the Valentine color, red, for the evening.

The dress that drew much comment was that worn by Mrs. David Wright, who, incidentally, had designed and created it herself. 'Twas of a cafe' colored cashmere, the bottom of the sheath enhanced with two wide bands of lynx fur. Her long gloves were of the same creamy shade of leather as the fur.

Margaret Driver's white satin gown was pouffed with white ostrich at the neckline. Berine Gail turned to red embroidered silk for her gown, and for the evening covering her beautiful red curls with a blond wig . . . and looking good.

Petit Jewel Moseley was swathed in a red, silver bordered sari gown . . . and Lillian Jones wore a blue sequin shell above her white satin skirt. Ivy Grimage, (a We Wife) was another of those donning the embellished tops, her ensemble being a heavily encrusted white top above a black brocade skirt.

Iris Mapp was chic in black as was Priscilla Lansey . . . and dashing in a bright color was Gwendolyn Tarter, whose gown was a brilliant pin. All three are club members.

Adele Foreman, in scrolled satin, was hostessing, among others, Dr. and Mrs. Doddanne Rajanna, who are on the Morgan State College faculty for the nonce. Mrs. Rajanna, the former Willie B. Campbell is an old State mate of Adele's...both being from Texas Dr. and Mrs. Rajanna met while both were studying at Columbia (he is from India) were married eight years ago, and came to Morgan from the faculty of Wilberforce. She instructs in math . . . he in physical education.

SHIRLEY KYLE, who has been holding down a post as deputy director of Community Renewal Program under contract to the Mayor and City Council in this town, moves on to Detroit, Thursday, to a new position.

There she will be working with a private Urban Renewal Consulting firm as an Urban Renewal specialist. She will stop in New York en route.

Tuesday evening, when she entained her club group the Echoes, they gave her a farewell gift . . . a magnificent desk set, that has every asable item from ash tray to pencil . . . you name it and it is included.

The Echoes include Jean Wilson, Elsworth Rhetta, Louise Robinson Norma Maiden, Jimmy Laforest, Ivy Harris, Wilhelmina Garner, Jeanne Cummings, Robbie Chissell, Kay Carter and Vivian Pendleton.

PHI BETA SIGMA Fraternity House, artistic in a decor of Valentines and carnation, was a charm setting for the party at which Sigma Wives entertained for other fraternity auxiliaries, including the Quettes, Alpha Wives and Kappa Silhouettes on Saturday.

Under direction of Mrs. Cora Gibson, president of Sigma Wives, and Mrs. Esther Wiles, chairman of the cocktail party, guests entered into hilarious games followed by a collation appropriate to a gourmet's delight. Then the group settled down to pinochle.

Each guest was given a beaudoir special . . . fragrant jeweled soup of a pale pink hue placed in decorative lacy containers. There were prizes galore and the top winner was Audrey Davis who captured a door prize, the group game prize and a prize for second place pinochle winner.

Other prize winners were Bernice Nickens, Salome Fuller, Shirley Strother, Margaret Jackson and Josephine Kimbers. Card prizes went to Dors Tarter Hilda Wallace, Evelena Henderson and Reva Lewie.

Alpha Wives attending were Mrs. Davis, Sarah Elias and Mrs. Kimbers. Quettes about were Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Fuller, Meribah Bell, Mildred Williams, Mrs. Strother and Margaret Jackson. Of the Silhouettes in attendance were Bernice Nickens, Ruth Ross, Ruby Parham, Doris Tarter and Hilda Wallace.

With Mrs. Parlett L. Moore officiating at the games, and Mrs. Katharine O. Johnson as receptionist, other Phi Beta Sigma Wives on the scene included Mesdames, Gibson, Esther Wiles, Thelma T. Daley, Ruth Reddick, Naomi Camper, Hazel Phillips, Mary Peter.

Mesdames I. Boyd Holden, Reva Lewie, Lorraine Hayes, Juanita Hill, Violetta Lee and Margarite Wilkins. Sigma men behind the scenes were Leroy Gibson Ernest Lee, Joseph Wiles and Douglass Camper.

FOLLOWING THE induction of Jill Collins, University of Maryland senior, into Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Saturday evening, her mother, Iona Collins, also an Alpha woman, and Flozella Clark entertained informally at the Collins home.

Joint honoree was Mrs. Aloncita Flood of New York, eastern regional director of AKA, here for the initiation, and house guest of Mrs. Clark.

Flozella was chairman of the initiation program and on her committee were Elsie Sessoms, basileus of Epsilon Omega chapter; April Henson, Veronica Clark, Stephanie Howard, Lois Stubblefield Ann Carroll and Nellie Moore

The initiation preceded the regular session of the sorority meeting, held in the Madison Avenue YWCA.

At the party were Emma Bright, Betty Williams, Ver-

Mrs. Martin Hall divorces husband

Charging that her husband, Martin Luther Hall of 1013 W. Lexington St., was unfaithful, drank excessively and often absented himself from home, Mrs. Isabelle Hall divorced him, this week.

Mrs. Hall, whose address is given as 2137 W. Lexington St., testified that she and Mr. Hall were married in 1947. Their separation took place in 1962, when they decided that he would go his way and she her way. He took his personal belongings and left, the wife said.

MRS. CLARA BROWN of 2409 Arunah Ave. divorced Bernard Brown of 1730 E. Preston St on ground of desertion.

She said that her husband said nothing about leaving her, just departed and has never been back. He is presently under order to pay $20 per week for support of their two children.

The marriage, which took place on Dec. 20, 1953, ended on Sept. 13, 1956.

A DIVORCE, and order to pay $60 every two weeks for child support went to Mrs. Constance D. H. White of 2712 Clybert Ave.

Divorced was Bernard S. White of 5230 Denmore Ave., who, said Mrs. White, consented to the separation.

The couple, married on Oct. 2, 1954 and separated on March 19, 1958, are parents of two daughters.

ALSO WINNING a divorce on grounds of voluntary separation was Mrs. Sarah R. Hudgins of 2820 Boarman Ave. from Samuel Hudgins, now at Loch Raven Veternas Hospital.

Mrs. Hudgins said that her husband drank excessively and both agreed that they could not get along under the circumstances. She said that she took their two children and left on June 20, 1957. They were married on July 4, 1947.
