Kirkwood guilty on two charges

William H. Kirkwood, 56, 2000 block Violet Ave., independent maintenance superintendent for the AFRO AMERICAN CO., was convicted today (Friday) of larceny and making a false report.

Central Municipal Court Judge Basil A. Thomas imposed a $20 fine, 60-day suspended jail sentence, and gave him one-year probation to the court.

Mr. Kirkwood was convicted of reporting to police Dec. 28, 1964 that an adding machine had been stolen from the AFRO office at 628 N. Eutaw St.

The machine was recovered by Headquarters Racket Squad officers during a lottery raid Feb. 10 on a house in the 2000 block Mt. Royal Ter.

Wilmer Porter, 53, of the Mt. Royal Ter. address, who was arrested and charged in the lottery raid, testified that Kirkwood, "a friend and drinking buddy," loaned him the machine.

William H. Murphy, defense attorney, told the court that Kirkwood made the report upon instructions of Howard H. Murphy, business manager.

• • •

AFRO PRESIDENT John H. Murphy 3rd, testified that the company wouldn't press charges and would leave disposition of the case to the discretion of the court.

He added that he asked the officers to make the charges so that the matter could be cleared up.

Judge Thomas, in disposing of the case, said:

"Because of the fact that they were friends and drank together, I feel beyond a shadow of doubt that he (Kirkwood) is implicated."

Kirkwood is free under $1,000 bail on another case awaiting action of the grand jury. He was arrested Feb. 2 and charged with lottery violations in a telephone booth at Druid Hill Ave. and St. Mary's St.
