ROCK HALL

The Rock Hall High School commencement exercises were held in the Mechanics Hall on Thursday evening. There were five young girl graduates: Frances M. Coburn, Mildred Kendall, Marvel K. Ashley, Lillian Brice and Jessie Moffett. The highest average was attained by Miss Frances Coburn, it being 95 2-3 per cent; she should be highly commended, as she has led her class each year from the third grade up. The subjects of the addresses were as follows: Frances Coburn, "Chivalry"; Mildred Kendall, "The New Meaning of American Citizenship"; Marvel Ashley, "Woman's Part in The War"; Lillian Brice, "The Girl In The Home"; Jessie Moffett, "The Triumph of Democracy"; the Rock Hall Orchestra furnished the music. Supervisor of Schools W. T. Holloway gave a very interesting address, followed by Prof. E. J. Clarke, who also presented the diplomas.

Miss Coburn took the teachers' examination in Chestertown on Thursday and will attend the summer school at Ocean City preparatory to teaching.
