THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

THE signing of the Peace Treaty and League of Nations on Saturday afternoon ends the world war, and we hope makes future wars between nations impossible. President Wilson has accomplished the great task of putting over the Peace Treaty against great odds and he stands today as one of the greatest men of the world.

IN the death of Mr. Edward W. Hepburn, of Still Pond, this county has been deprived of one of its best citizens and most progressive farmers. Mr. Hepburn was a Christian man and he awlays stood for what he believed to be right and had the courage of his convictions. He was a vestryman of I. U. P. E. Church for many years and was always ready to advance its interests. We will miss his many friendly calls at our office where he was always a welcome visitor. We extend our sympathy to his loving and devoted family.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF KFNT COUNTY!

In purusance of the recent endeavor to arrange committees who will work for the nomination and election of Judge William H. Adkins and Judge Lewin W. Wickes throughout Kent County, the various Districts have suggested the names of committees, three from each side in each precinct. Assurances have been given that these gentlemen will do their best in the Primary and in the Election. It is to be hoped that in each precinct they will meet immediately, go over the entire situation, canvass the precinct and see how the Democrat voters stand. It is the proposition that each precinct name a man who will give full lists showing as far as possible the feeling of our people and their willingness not only to vote but to work for Judge Adkins and Judge Wickes.

Wheat Yields

A few of the Kent county farmers are threshing wheat. The results to date indicate what has been predicted for several weeks that the crop in this section will be very poor. We publish below a few yields.

Mr. Jesse Hurd, on the Watts farm, got an average of 8 bushels per acre from 14 acres.

Mr. William Wheat, on Still Pond Creek, averaged 8 bushels from one field.

Mr. Chambers, on the Walker Home farm, got 7 bushels per acre from 60 acres.

Mr. Wallace Ford, of near Still Pond averaged between 5 and 6 bushels per acre.

Mr. Carroll Loller, of near Worton, averaged 10 bushels per acre from a small acreage.

Mr. Benjamin Rash expects to get a good yield. He was threshing yesterday.

Mr. Joseph Usilton, of near Worton, expects a good yield, but not quite up to standard.

Mr. Josiah Massey, of near Goose Hill, has one of the best crops in this section. He expects over 2000 bushels we understand.

Mr. William Masling is threshing and his crop is the worst in many years.

Mr. Joseph Usilton is getting a fair yield, we understand.

Mr. Clifton Jarrel averaged 18 bushels per acre from one of his farms in Double Creek.

Chestertown At A Glance

Chestertown is gaining in popularity all the time. Look what we have in Chestertown:

Four banks.
Fine telephone service.
Basket factory.
Washington College.
Many energetic and progressive men and women.
An ideal place to spend summer.
The prettiest view from Chester River bridge on the shore.
A splendid ice plant.
The longest macadam street on the shore.
Six progressive churches.
Three newspapers.
A first-class lumber mill.
Hundreds of automobiles.
About four thousand people.
One of the most beautiful rivers on the Eastern Shore.
A first-class theatre.
Two pool-rooms an da big bowling alley.
Two trains a day and a freight train every other day.
A shirt and cloak factory.
Many handsome homes.
A high school and a grammar school.
Free mail delivery.
Practically all lodges represented.
Good grocery, meat, millinery, hardware stores, etc.
Good transportation facilities.
A paper mill.
Two fertilizer factories.

Yes, friends, Chestertown has many advantages. Come look the town over.

WHEAT CROP IN KENT POOR

Farmers Of County Will Lose Thousands of Dollars From Rust

Kent farmers will lose a considerable sum because of a blight that suddenly struck the wheat crop just as it was ripening sufficiently to be harvested. This is probably the greatest calamity that has struck Kent county farmers in the history of wheat growing in this county. Not only have the heads failed to fill out, but the wheat is of a shriveled variety, for which an inferior price will be received.

Just what has caused the blight has not been determined. Some of the best posted agriculturists in the State advance different opinions as to the possible cause. All agree, however, that the bearded varieties have suffered much less than the smooth varieties.

Some Kent county agriculturists believe that the extreme cold weather in April is the principal cause. Others say that the mild weather during the winter advanced the wheat so fast that it was necessary to pasture the cattle on it for weeks has brought about the present conditions.

Whatever the cause, it has been a severe blow to hundreds of Kent farmers, and especially in the heavy wheat-growing belt. A few weeks ago the growers in this vicinity were extremely optimistic, as there was every indication of a bumper crop. Suddenly conditions changed and it is now estimated that the crop in Kent has been done from 25 to 50 per cent damage.

To Hold Re-union

Still Pond Farmers' Club, an organization having a continuous existence for 33 years, will hold a re-union banquet next Thursday evening at Price's Cottage, Betterton, Md. It is hoped that all former members, and as many of their families as possibly can, will attend. The meeting will open at 5 p. m., when an informal get-to-together and reminiscence will be held until 6, when the dinner will be served. Mr. Corey, President of the Club, will act as toastmaster and some interesting speeches are promised.

Of the original members of this club, twenty-two, but five are living now: Dr. W. S. Maxwell, Thomas Rasin, Henry Krusen, C. H. Price and George Rodenhiser. As a business organization, composed of men only, it was formed in 1886, but was reorganized in 1888, with the wives and daughters of the household as members, and at that time, the club dinner was inaugurated. This has proven to be the popular feature of the club, and many of the good things to eat, which Still Pond and vicinity are noted for, were tried out first on "the club."

Topics of interest and improvement have been discussed, and in the beginning, when peaches were at their height, the minutes of January 15, '87, show that ten important resolutions were passed, regarding marketing this important crop. Figures were given which showed that the prices paid to "The Exchange" growers, sold at the Exchange, was in most cases just double the prices paid in Baltimore and Philadelphia.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Mr. Henry M. Davis and Miss Jane M. Wood occurred at the Little Church Around the Corner" in Nw York City, New York, Wednesday, June 25. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. M. W. Stoffer, and the groom's best man was Dudley S. Wood, brother of the bride. Miss Helen Jane Stoffer, a niece, was flower girl. The wedding dinner was served at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, after which the couple spent their honeymoon in New York State and the Adirondacks. They will be at home after August 1. Mr. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Davis, of Still Pond, and is an employe of the Du Pont Co., of Wilmington, where the bride was also an employe. Mr. Davis is one of Kent county's young men who has made good in the business world.

The wedding of Miss Eva Jewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jewell, of near Kennedyville, to Mr. Boyd Primrose, of Wilmington, occurred on last Monday at Elkton.
