NO REASON FOR IT

When Chestertown Citizens Show A Way

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what a Chestertown citizen says:

Mrs. May C. Frazier, High St., says: "I suffered from my kidneys and backache. At times I had dizzy spells and black spots before my eyes. My back ached when I had to bend over and my kidneys didn't act right at all. I surely was feeling miserable until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from The Stam Drug Co. I used them and had great relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Frazier had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES

The people of the Fifth District of Kent County will give the soldiers, sailors and marines of the American Expeditionary Forces a welcome home dinner on July 16, which will be followed by a dance. The dinner will start at 6 p. m. See notice elsewhere for particulars.

We recently received a copy of the "Fifth Division Diamond" from Mr. William Blyman, a former employee of The Transcript, who is with this division.

John Maize, colored, of Chestertown, who saw service abroad, has received his honorable discharge and arrived home this week.

The following letter is from Priv. W. F. Blyman, formerly of Chestertown, later of Dover, Del., who saw considerable active service in France:

"Will try to give you a short account of some of the religious processions I have seen the last few Sundays. The people here are Catholic, and they are true to their religious faith. A few Sundays ago their services included a parade which consisted of a small flock of sheep, a band and a few people. There were two boys in this procession who carried a pole each, which was wrapped with ribbon and had a bag on the end of the pole, with which a collection was taken. These poles were mainly used to reach up to the second story windows and get the "pfennings." This is one of many old and curious sights which we often see. During this little parade they all fell out (using a military expression) and went into a cafe for a drink of beer.

Today (Sunday, June 22) was a big day religiously and an enormous parade was held; people from the smaller surrounding towns were present and took part. This affair will be very hard to describe, but I will try and will do the best I can. The streets were strewn with grass and the sides of the streets were lined with branches of trees stuck in the ground. Next there were altars scattered in different parts of the town. The beginning of the parade was started by a single file of small boys on each side of the street. Next came a like file of small girls, followed by older girls, and then by the grown women. Down the center of these files were boys and girls carrying banners, and priests were also scattered all along the line. There were two bands, one being a school boys' band and a male quartette, consisting of men and boys. The boys were the best singers. Nearly all of the little girls were dressed in white with ribbons around their hair and carried flowers. Right behind the quartette was a procession of small girls all in white with long white veils on the backs of their heads and baskets of rose petals, and following the girls was a sort of an arch carried by four men and escorted by a guard of four soldiers and three priests, one priest always walking under the arch and the girls, two at a time, throwing roses in their path. One priest was one of our Sixtieth Infantry chaplains – Chaplain Schorn—the only American priest that took any part, the rest being Luxembourg priests. There were thousands of people in the parade. I only saw two Americans in the whole parade. It took several hours for the parade to pass.

Week before last there was a street carnival here with all sorts of amusements. There were many odd contraptions, which, of course, amused the American soldiers, as everything was odd to us.

The people on this side of the Atlantic, in my opinion, are years and years behind the times in most things. They seem to have kept up, though, in their war materials, but I believe Uncle Sam was always ready to go them one better.

As you will see by the last edition of our Fifth Division Diamond, lots of our boys are getting married to these girls here. While there are some very pretty and stylish girls, they don't appeal to me like our American girls. And then there is another thing that doesn't strike my fancy, and that is their idea of morality. The Americans and Europeans differ greatly, so I hardly think I want any of these girls to bring back with me. Now, I don't mean to say that there are no good and moral people over here, because there are lots of them, but even then their way is not our way."

Baseball Notes

Manager Edward Blackway's Chestertown team went to Queenstown and played a close and interesting game of baseball with the crack organization of that town on July 4th. Chestertown lost by the score of 4 to 2, but Manager Blackway's boys made the "Terrapins" hustle to get away with the game. Bill Smith was on the hill for Chestertown and twirled a good game.

July 4th was a big day in Kennedyville. Lorraine Athletic Club came to Kennedyville from Wilmington and defeated the crack Kennedyville Club by the score of 9 to 5. Kennedyville had one bad inning—the first—in which the visitors scored six runs. After that inning the home team settled down to hard playing and although they scored five runs, they were unable to overcome the visitors' lead. Archibald was on the mound for Kennedyville.

Kennedyville staged a brilliant and praiseworthy come-back in the ninth inning of the game with the Lorraine Athletic Club on Saturday afternoon and defeated them by the score of 4 to 3. When Kennedyville went to bat in the ninth inning the visitors had a lead of three runs, while the home team had failed to score. Kennedyville scored four runs, however, and won the game. Smith was on the mound for Kennedyville.
