Elder qualifies for U.S. Open

Lee Elder, veteran campaigner on the predominantly colored golf circuit, early this week qualified for a berth in the U.S. Open tournament, to be played at San Francisco.

Elder, a former Californian now living in Washington (D.C.), and Moses Coe, also of the capital city, survived the regional cutoff following rounds at the Washingtonian Country Club in Gaithersburg, Md., on Monday.

Elder shot a 78-76 for 154; Coe had 80-75 for 155. Both are members of the Oxon Blade Golf Club of D. C.

* * *

TAN PLAYERS from Baltimore did not fare as well as their Washington colleagues.

The best score of colored hopefuls at Monday's Pine Ridge qualifiers was turned in by former schoolboy champion Gordon Chavis of Carroll Park.

Chavis turned in a card of 73-77 for 150, which placed him 13 strokes off medalist Walter Romans of the Baltimore Country Club.

Chavis wound up with the No. 4 alternate's position.

VERNON TERRY, former 3-Ring tiflist of Aberdeen, Md., and Walter (Chink) Stewart, pro at Carroll Park, failed to make the cutoff. The former reported a 151 round and the latter needed 157.

Also missing the cutoff was Dick Thomas of Annapolis, who three times previously had qualified for berths in the big meet. — LACY.

COLLECTING its well - earned prize in the AFRO's Favorite Teacher Contest is this bright - eyed young kindergarten class of Mrs. Helen DeLeaver, teacher at Robert Fulton Elementary School 123. The spunky youngsters pushed through enough votes to win Mrs. DeLeaver second place and a trip to Bermuda. The reason they are bright eyed is they were about to collect their prize as second-award-winning class: A special theatre-party showing of Walt Disney's "Bambi." A welcoming committee by himself, Ed Marshall (left), manager of the Met Theatre, Pennsylvania and North Aves., greeted the youngsters. To his right is Mrs. DeLeaver, fresh from her Bermuda spring vacation. The group is rounded out by chaperones and the group of kindergarten children impatient to get on with the movie.

Board okeys new apartments

An appeal asking the construction of an apartment building at 3908 Liberty Heights Ave. was approved Tuesday by the Board of Municipal and Zoning Appeals — but on a more restrictive basis than requested.

The board restricted the structure to 15 apartments, and ordered that 17 parking places provided.

Basis of the appeal was for a three-story structure with 23 dwelling units.

The board asio approved the operation of a beauty shop at 2301 W. Lexington St., and a carry out shop at 2241 Barclay St. — LACY.

Among the cases scheduled to be heard the coming Tuesday beginning at 1 p.m. in Room 231, City Hall; are these two at these locations:

2032 Bradish Ave. — to two families; 1238 Argyle Ave. — operation of a carry out shop.

Read a can of beer tonight.

You can sit there the rest of your life, sipping someone else's beer and getting no Culture.

Or you can sit down with our beer and learn something.

The something you'll learn is called The Carling Philosophy. We print it on the back of every can.

It's serious stuff, something you can sink your teeth into, and it does explain why our beer tastes so good.

But if you feel silly reading beer cans, read a six-pack. Our philosophy will be there, too – the first time a paperback edition ever cost more than hardback.

And we're also putting The Carling Philosophy on our bottle labels.

Why, we even sent a couple of copies to the public library.

Just look for a red beer can, under non-fiction.

City, Dunbar netters beaten

Clyde Jeffers, No. 1 on the City College tennis team, was ousted from the Maryland Scholastic Association tennis championships Tuesday.

Jeffers, a product of Baltimore's youth development gram for the American Tennis Association, was defeated by Billy Gordon of St. Paul's

Score of the match was 6-1, 6, 6-2.

Tan hopefuls disappeared from the list of survivors completely when Alvan Taylor and Paul Brice of Dunbar, bowed in the quarter-finals of the doubles competition.

Youth crises to be topic at June dinner

Judge Robert I. H. Hammerman, of the Municipal Court, will speak on "The Problems of Youth" at a fellowship dinner scheduled Saturday, June 4, at 7:30 p.m., at Providence Baptist Church, 830 Edmondson Ave.

Active for many years in youth work, Judge Hammerman is a founder and advisor to the boys' group now known as the Lancers Boys Club, the goal of which is making better citizens and future leaders. He is a graduate of both Johns Hopkins University and the Harvard Law School.

To be attended by the men and boys of Providence Church, the dinner is being sponsored by its Laymen's League. Oscar Williams, the League's president, and Paul Williams, chairman of the board of deacons, are co-chairmen. The Rev. Marcus G. Wood is pastor.

Baltimore girls tennis victims

WINSTON - SALEM, N.C., — Baltimore's Ann Koger and Sandra Pennington were victims of the champion here last week in the American Tennis Association's national interscholastic tournament.

Both lost to Bonnie Logan of Durham, 16 - year - old star who is the ATA national women's titleholder.

Miss Koger was turned back, 6-1, 6-1, in the finals by Miss Logan. Miss Pennington had previously bowed to the Tarheel phenom, by the same score.
