BUILDING MATERIALS

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

LOCAL MATTERS

Kent Man Drowned.—Mr. Paul Dunn son of Mr. Thomas J. Dunn, of near Massey, was drowned one day last week while swimming in the Sassafras river. He was 38 years old. Mr. Dunn was well known and highly respected in Kent county.

Good Horse Racing On The Fourth.—Good crowds enjoyed the horse racing at Worton and Sudlersville race courses on July 4. Horse racing is always popular in Kent county. The day was a hot one, but good time was made at both courses.

Cabinet Officer Here.—With little ado, a trim craft dropped her anchor in the peaceful harbor of Chestertown on July 4. On board the boat were Secretary of Commerce Redfield, who was on an inspection tour of local waters. He was accompanied by Mrs. Redfield, A. Lincoln Dryden and Mayor Tull, of Pocomoke City.

Chestertown Loses.—The Chestertown Baseball Club went to Centreville on Tuesday and went against the strong aggregation of that town. They were defeated by the score of 7 to 4. Usilton was on the mound for the Chestertown boys. A number of men were on Chestertown's team who saw active service against the Germans.

The Levy List.—The Kent County Levy List appears in this issue. It shows the expenses for the year of the county and should be read by every tax payer and citizen of the county. One of the most important parts of the levy is that which shows the increase in salary which has been given the teachers of Kent county.

President Wilson Home.—President Wilson arrived home from Europe on the George Washington on Tuesday. He was greeted with enthusiasm on his arrival and is receiving a hearty welcome from his countrymen everywhere. President Wilson will stump the country in the interest of the League of Nations and has already made several thrilling speeches along this line.

Quick Work.—Mr. George W. Baldwin is a hustler. Mr. Baldwin received a Waterloo Boy Tractor on the evening boat on Tuesday. The tractor was sold to Mr. Clarence E. Cornelius, of Kennedyville, the same day, taken by Mr. Baldwin from the boat to Mr. Cornelius' farm, and on the following morning, Wednesday, was in the field and working satisfactorily. That was quick work. Mr. Baldwin will receive another tractor this week.

Y. M. C. A. Conference.—The men of Delaware who are interested in the County and Rural Y. M. C. A. Work for their state will combine with the Eastern Shore for the Y. M. C. A. Conference to be held at Ocean City July 18-20. Over 650 invitations have been sent out to men of the Eastern Shore and 250 more are going out before the close of the week. Mr. F. G. Usilton, of Chestertown, is on the conference committee.

State Convention of R. R. Carriers.—The Rural Route carriers held their 16th annual State Convention in the Y. M. C. A. Building, Baltimore, July 4. Conditions in the rural service were discussed at length and plans and resolutions looking to the betterment of the service adopted. Mr. F. S. Russell, of Chestertown, was elected a representative to Salary Revision Commission.

New Hotel and Restaurant Opens.—Mr. W. O. Bringman has opened a restaurant, lunch room and hotel in the Eastern Shore Inn and furnishes regular meals, lunches, etc. He also has a full line of soft drinks, ice cream, etc., with a pool room in the basement. Mr. Bringman conducted a restaurant in Chestertown several years ago and is too well and favorably known to the public of this county to need any introduction.

Pulmotor At Stam's Drug Store.—The pulmotor, which is used in the resuscitation of persons who have been overcome in the water, is still at the Stam Drug Co. store in Chestertown. This instrument was secured at considerable cost and trouble by the ladies of Chestertown, and while there have been several people in this section drowned since it was placed at Stam's Drug Store, the pulmotor has never been used.

Pleasant Visit To Local Lodge.—Mrs. Ida Horstmann, State Councilor of the Daughters of America, Mrs. Mattie Brown, State Vice-Councilor, of Baltimore, Mrs. J. T. Knight, of Worton, a member of Pride of Baltimore Council, and five members from Chesapeake City Lodge, visited Chestertown Council Daughters of America on Monday evening last. Thirty-three members were present. After an interesting meeting and short addresses, refreshments were served. A pleasant and profitable evening was enjoyed by all.

Fine Farm For Sale.—In this issue Mr. D. B. Stewart, of Baltimore, formerly of Kent county, is advertising his fine farm, known as "White Hall Farm," located about two miles from Chestertown. This is one of the finest farms in the district. This farm has been in the Stewart family for about sixty years. It has the distinction of having been the home of the first Holstein-Fresian cattle ever brought to the Eastern Shore of Maryland. They were brought to Maryland from the Undilla Valley, New York State, by the late William H. Stewart.

National Farm Loan Association Organized Here—The Kent-Queen Annes National Farm Loan Association has been organized here, with headquarters at the law office of Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., on Court street. There are about sixteen members so far. The directors are Milton P. Crew, president; James W. Brown, vice-president; D. W. Ingersoll, Charles C. Meredith and Theodore H. Wood, appraisers. Mr. Townshend is the secretary and treasurer of the new organization. Loans aggregating over $77,000.00 have been applied for.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Fish have begun to bite on the Chester river bridge.

—No new cases of anthrax have been reported in Kent county.

—Thieves entered the stable of Rev. A. P. Prettyman at Galena recently and stole a fine calf.

—The time for getting your dog's license is here. It is unlawful to have a dog without paying his taxes.

—The Chestertown baseball team and Sudlersville will cross bats at Sudlersville today, Saturday.

—The work of threshing out Kent's wheat crop is engaging the farmers time this week. The crop in this county is a poor one.

—A Polish Jew drowned at Tolchester in a few feet of water, not far from the shore, last Saturday. We were unable to ascertain his name as the body was shipped immediately to Baltimore, Undertaker Dodd furnishing the coffin.

—Wheat goes under federal control July 15, and all persons, etc., dealing in wheat, wheat flour etc., must obtain a license from the U. S. Wheat Director.

—Mr. Linwood Sutton has rented the Eliason farm, near Chestertown, now tenanted by Mr. Joseph Everett. Mr. Everett will move to his Stevens farm.

—The adv. of Blackway Bros. Bottling Works appears in this issue. This firm does an increasing business each year largely because of the superiority of their drinks.

—Messrs. James W. Crouch and son, Mr. Norman Crouch, have rented quarters with Messrs. C. W. Kibler & Son, on Court street, and will deal in insurance and fertilizers.

—The rain on Thursday, while some what inconvenient to the Kent farmers who were threshing, was a mighty good thing for the corn crop, which was badly in need of rain.

—Mr. Summerfield Tilghman, of Queenstown, has been made game warden of the Sixth District of Maryland, which is composed of Kent, Cecil and Queen Annes counties.

—The big rafters which were put in place at Bennett's garage this week weighed about three tons each. They were raised in place with no accident whatever by Contractor Cannan.

—A dozen or more army trucks went through Chestertown Monday loaded with the "knock-down" houses which were used by the convicts at work on the state road near Sudlersville.

—It was reported on July 4th that Mr. "Rip" Perry, of Chestertown, had been killed. The report proved to be without foundation, we are glad to state, and Mr. Perry was not injured in any way.

—We have received an interesting article from Mr. W. Mack Reiche, of Baltimore, formerly of Chestertown, entitled "The Epochal Fourth." We will publish this article as soon as space will permit us.

—Mr. Frank E. Duyer and force of workmen this week completed a convenient and substantial incubator, feed and brooder house for Polk T. Bramble on his chicken farm in Queen Annes, near town.

—The following left recently to attend summer schools: Dr. E. J. Clarke Johns Hopkins University; Miss Adele France, Columbia University; Misses Mary Rouse and Dorothy Dill, Johns Hopkins University.

—The adv. of Mr. S. W. Granbery, representing the Western Electric Co., appears in this issue. Mr. Granbery has a store on the corner of High and Queen street and has all kinds of electrical appliances on hand.

—The sun dial belonging to the late H. L. Boyd has been purchased by Mrs. Medford Brooks. This dial formerly belonged to Senator Vickers and fell into Mr. Boyd's hands when the school bought the Vickers' lot.

—The applicants for the scholarship at Western Maryland College who took the examinations on Saturday last in the office of the County Supt. were Ridgely Brown, Maynard Brown, Jesse Moffett, William Walter Culley.

—July 4th passed off quietly in Kent county. The weather was too hot to derive much comfort at the resorts, unless one was in the water. Tolchester and Betterton were filled with people from the cities and by a large number of county folks.

—Allan A. Goldsborough, Esq., of Denton, Caroline County, was in Chestertown on Saturday night, where he was introduced to a large number of our people by R. Groome Parks, Esq. Mr. Goldsborough will be an opponent of Judge Adkins for Chief Judge of this Circuit at the primary election.

—Kent County sweltered under a heat wave last week which drove the temperature up to 102 degrees in this town in the shade on Friday and Saturday both. The storm of Sunday evening which broke the hot spell, was a great relief. Although the people sweltered, the corn grew, for it was corn weather.

—"Day current" came in mighty convenient at The Transcript office on last Thursday. Dark days are a big handicap in a printing office, and in past years we had to resort to lamps on occasions like that when day turned into twilight for several hours. But on last Thursday when the near-darkness began, we simply turned on the current and went on with our work.

—Lyceum Theatre is showing some fine pictures these days. Tonight Mr. Russell is showing "Private Peat," a picture of great interest.

—Messrs. T. G. Wroth, G. W. French, T. D. Bowers, W. G. Smyth, C. C. Jones and R. H. Collins are enjoying the week fishing off Ringgold's Point.

—Mr. Arthur Burris lost a fast and true fox hound the other day from poisoning. Mr. Burris had set out some poison for rats and the dog got some of it.

—Mr. George Noland, looking well and ready for business, was in town yesterday and expects to open up a store in the Thomas Building on High street in the near future.

Wheat Yields

Mr. Story, of near Urieville, got 18 bushels to the acre from bearded wheat.

Mr. Jonathan Jones, of near Millington, got 19 bushels of wheat per acre.

Mr. T. S. Parsons, of near Hanesville, got about 17 bushels of wheat per acre.

Mr. James D. Davis, of Galena, got 16 bushels per acre from his farm near Galena.

Mr. Wallis Ford, of near Still Pond, got 10 bushels of wheat per acre.

Mr. E. H. Dodson, Jr., threshed out 30 acres of wheat and got but 6 bushels to the acre.

Mr. Benjamin Rash averaged 21 bushels per acre from his tomato patch.

Mr. George Dickerson, of Rich Neck, Queen Annes county, got 17 bushels per acre from 60 acres.

GALENA ITEMS

Mr. Irving Vansant and family, of Wilmington, spent the fourth of July with his brother here.

Miss Mary Johnston and friend, of Wilmington, spent a part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Green, of Philadelphia, spent the week end with friends in town.

Misses Eva and Agnes Jarman, of Wilmington, spent the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Jarman.

Miss Mattie Whitaker, of Wilmington, spent a part of last week with her mother, Mrs. Ella Whitaker.

Mrs. Olie Connely, who has been in the hospital at Philadelphia, is home.
