Lawyers Wives announcecourt clerk candidates

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

The Lawyers Wives Committee for Justice in the Court House this week announced its candidates for the positions as Clerks of The Courts.

They are, Democrats, Arthur Murray and Frank Conoway; Republicans, Horace Ashby and Solomon Reddick.

According to Mrs. Ann McAllister, chairman, the following organizations have promised their support.

Ministerial Alliance, the Rev. Frank Williams; Fourth Distrjct Sickles-Mitchell Action team, Delegate Clarence Mitchell III; Nu-Day Civic Democratic Club; Interested Citizens for Equality; William H. Murphy Jr.; Civic Citizens Organizations; Mrs. Ruth Wilson; A.C.D.C. Inc., West Baltimore Civic Association; Cherry Hill Coordinating Council, Mrs. Sarah Bundy.

Mrs. McAllister states that the ladies who are wives of members of the Monumental Bar Asso; have worked throughout the summer planning the format of the campaign to get elected officials and hired employees at the court house.

Their efforts began last spring when Mrs. Madeline Murphy, president, and a group of members made a surprise tour of the Court House and returned reports of lack of colored employees and "shameless discrimination."

The blame was laid to Supreme Bench judges and the old-time "political plum system" used in hiring personnel in the offices of the Clerks of Courts.

FOLLOWING A conference with Judge Joseph R. Byrnes chairman of the Personnel Committee, the Lawyers Wives directed a letter to him on Aug. 20 announcing their slate of candidates.

They stated that their investigation showed no improvement in hiring and there remained no other choice but to endorse and support their own candidates to head the courts.

Mrs. McAllister told the AFRO Tuesday no reply had been received from Judge Byrnes or members of the Supreme Bench.

The group also sent a letter to the Supreme Bench recommending colored citizens to be hired in the offices of the Clerks of Courts.

Continentals visit as Mohawk closes

The YMCA's Camp Mohawk in Huntingtown, Md., closed on Sunday with an impressive candlelight service conducted by Mrs. Pam Jones Mullen, girls' season coordinator.

A. P. Moss, director, terminated the eight-week camping season the best in the camp's 16-year history, which saw facilities filled to capacity during most of the season.

A highlight of the Sunday activities was a visit by members of the Baltimore Continentals, their husbands and friends who spent the afternoon picnicking on the banks of the Patuxent River.

Mrs. Helen Gattis is president of the club which this year contributed $300 to the camp's scholarship fund directed by Dr. Louis E. Hamon, helping to bring the total contributions to over $3,000. Scholarship monies raised by Dr. Harmon are used to send deserving boys and girls to camp.

OTHER MEMBERS of the Continentals and their families present were: Clifton Gattis, Mr. and Mrs. George Carroll, Dr. and Mrs. George Woodland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quarles, Mr. and Mrs. William Mumby, Clarence Dyson, Mrs. Frances Branch, Miss Hazel Simms, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coleman, Mrs. Phyllis Thompson, Tal Thompson, Allen Meacham, Rodney Wynn, Miss Deborah Turner, and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Turner, and Charles Myers.
