LOCAL MATTERS

Wheat Yields.—Threshing in Kent has been held up by the big rains the past week. The following in Rich Neck, Queen Annes, threshed before the big rains: Mr. Charles McKee averaged 12 bushels per acre; Mr. J. Carroll Seney averaged 17 bushels per acre; Mr. Lemuel Powell averaged 7 bushels per acre.

Improving Playgrounds At Elementary School.—The play grounds in the rear of the Chestertown Elementary School have been put in shape for the installation of some amusement devices and equipment to be presented by the play-ground association, recently organized through the efforts of Mr. Walter Wright and liberally endowed by him.

May Have Large Police Force On State Roads.—The numerous accidents from speeding and other causes has brought from Commissioner Baughman the suggestion of a state highway police force of twenty-five men with motorcycles to assist in enforcing the motor vehicle laws and to act in case of emergency when a police force is needed quickly.

Kent Has Champion Terrier.—Kent county is the home of the champion sky-terrier of the United States. He is owned by Mrs. S. W. Merritt, of Shrewsbury Manor Farm, Locust Grove, and is named "McGregor." This animal came from Scotland. Mrs. Merritt has several silver cups and a number of prizes which have been won by the dog.

Changes At Postoffice.—Mr. J. H. Duyer, rural carrier from Chestertown postoffice, has been appointed postmaster at Worton to succeed Mr. R. C. Wharton, who recently accepted a position in the railway service. Mr. Duyer will take charge as soon as his commission arrives. Mr. C. E. Hadaway, who recently returned from overseas will resume his position as carrier of route 5.

An Impressive Ceremony.—A very impressive circumcision ceremony was held on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Sachs on Princess street. The operation was performed on their infant son, Joseph Korman Wolf Sachs, by Dr. A. S. Shochet, of Baltimore, the grandfather, Mr. Herman Sachs, acting as godfather. A sumptuous repast was partaken of after the ceremony.

Four Men Break Jail At Easton.—Eugene Loper, J. F. Farrell, white, and Richard Newnam and Henry Walker, colored, broke out of Easton jail Friday night by picking the mortar from between the stones of the wall, and making a hole large enough to crawl through. These men were captured on Saturday when they went to the edge of a woods to get their bearings.

Kent Tomato Crop Will Be Late.—The Kent county tomato crop will be several weeks later in maturing this year. This is due to the lateness with which most of the plants were put in, due to the heavy rains at the planting time. The plants have been somewhat slow in developing, too, because of the long dry spell after which they were planted. The rains of the past week in Kent, however, will likely hasten somewhat their growth.

Mr. George Baldwin Improving.—It is with keen pleasure that we publish this week that Mr. George Baldwin, who was recently severely injured about the back when an auto upset, is improving gradually and will eventually be able to resume his work. Mr. Robert Moffett visited him at the Easton Hospital on Wednesday and says that George was in particularly good spirits, and suffering little pain. We hope he will continue to improve and will soon be back to his business as strong and happy as ever.

Had Narrow Escape.—Young Joseph Walters, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walters, of Chestertown, who is at present a salesman in Mr. E. P. Hudson's store, up town, had a narrow escape from death or severe injure on Thursday morning when he ran in front of an auto being driven by Mr. Albert Baxter, of Queen Annes. Young Walters did not see the car and stepped directly in front of it. The witnesses of the affair held their breath for an instant, because it was thought the boy was badly injured. It seems however, that he was lucky enough to get between the wheels of the car, and it passed above him. He escaped unhurt.

Trapshooting Tournament.—The Betterton Gun Club will hold their Third Annual Registered Trapshooting Tournament in Bayside Field next Thursday and Friday, July 24 and 25. This tournament will probably be the largest and best ever held on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, as one hundred shooters will compete in each day's event. The three traps are located directly on the banks of the bay, and the targets will be thrown over the water, making a perfect background for the shooters. Forty thousand targets will be used in the tournament and some of the best marksmen that the east affords will be on hand. $400 in prizes will be awarded. The church folks will serve lunch and refreshments on the grounds.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST

—Live local news on every page of The Transcript.

—Miss Anna Newton has purchased a Ford runabout.

—Young rabbits and quail seem to be plentiful in Kent county.

—Church Hill has been lighted by electricity by Mr. H. D. Massey.

—Mr. Gault Applegarth has resumed his position as road engineer of Kent.

—Mr. John Clendaniel was slightly injured one day this week by a vicious bull.

—Mr. Isaac Gibbs' thresher was damaged near Massey by fire this week.

—Miss Margaret Harris has resigned as teacher of Still Pond Neck School.

—Messrs. Noland, Bennett & Russell have taken the agency for the Columbia Six.

—S. Scott Beck, Esq., has purchased a new Buick from Mr. H. D. Massey, the agent.

—A fox got into Mr. Frank Skirven's turkeys the other day and killed thirty five of them.

—The Kent county woods are full of ripe blackberries and many parties are after them.

—County Treasurer H. E. Taylor will tenant the Lecates farm, near town, next year.

—Mr. Norman Crow, Jr., had his left arm badly cut at the Blackway Bros. plant this week.

—The Hub Store, of Millington, advertises a big clean-up sale in this issue. Read their adv.

—Mrs. Jane Robinson is visiting her friends in Snow Hill.

—Mr. Romie Skirven has purchased of Mr. T. Barclay Kilbourn his home in Fairlee.

—A six-cent piece will probably be coined to meet the present 1-cent war tax on former 5-cent commodities.

—Lyceum Theatre will be open on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights during the balance of July and August.

—The non-jury term of the Circuit Court for Kent was held this week. Judges Adkins and Hopper being present.

—A representative of the Erlanger Underwear Mfg. Co., was in town last week considering the starting of a factory here.

—Chestertown defeated Sudlersville at baseball last Saturday by the score of 9 to 4. Robinson was on the mound for Chestertown.

—Mrs. Albert Rawleigh has pullets laying. These are the first that we have heard of. The pullets were hatched in February.

—Mr. George W. Rash will remove to Chestertown January 1, 1920, having purchased the Brice house on Washington avenue.

—We counted twenty-five fishermen on Chester River bridge the other evening at one time and about the same number of spectators.

—Mr. John E. Barnes yesterday sold for Mr. Harry C. Hamilton his farm of 335 acres in Swan Creek to Mr. James H Nichols, of Denton. Price $16,000.

—Mr. Romie Patrick is the champion lima bean raiser of this section. He picked his first beans this week. His vines are something worth looking at.

—The heavy rains this week have caused bad washouts in Church Alley and on Calvert street, on the hill that goes to the bridge. These should be mended as soon as possible.

—Isaiah Fountain, the negro who was recently convicted in Easton for assaulting a white girl of that county, has been granted a new trial by the Court of Appeals.

—J. B. Messick, a motorcycle deputy of Wicomico county, was beaten this week by J. Truitt, of that county, who the officer had arrested. The officer is in a critical condition.

—Mr. Walter Wright's thoroughbred guernsey bull blocked the Quaker Neck road for a few hours the other day. Mr. Wright finally drove him home with the aid of his Airedale dog.

—T. J. Keating, Esq., last week sold to Mr. C. S. Quimby, of near Centreville, the "Fort Point Farm," on Corsica River, for $100 an acre. The farm has considerable historic interest.

—The rewards for the capture of the negro Fountain, who escaped from Easton jail, will be paid on August 15. Several Kent county people aided in the search, but were not "in" on the rewards.

—State Senator Orlando Harrison, whose peach orchards at Berlin are the most extensive on the Eastern Shore, reports that the yield of peaches this year will exceed that of any recent season.

—Maxmillan Harden, who was so outspoken against Germany when that country was trodding over practically all of Europe a year or so ago, will come to the United States as ambassador to this country from Germany.

—Dogs got into the sheep of Mr. Marion Malcomb during the heavy rain of Tuesday morning and killed one of them. Mr. Bonn Towner, his son-in-law, killed one of the dogs and drove the balance of them away.

—Mr. P. M. Brooks is offering one-half barrel of Rose Bud Flour to the person guessing the nearest number of bushels of corn shelled from a crib which has been stored for twenty months. A few years ago he had the same contest, the corn having been stored twelve months at that time. See front page adv. for particulars.

—Mr. Joseph Everett will move to his farm in Broad Neck, L. A. Sutton going to the farm vacated by him. Mr. R. J. McWhorter will tenant the farm in Quaker Neck now tilled by Mr. Frank Shinn, who will discontinue farming. Mr. James DeFord will occupy the George Brice farm now tilled by Mr. Hicks Loller, who goes to the farm now occupied by Mr. Frank Skirven. Mr. Skirven goes to the Hines, farm, adjoining Mr. E. W. Emory's farm, which he purchased. Mr. T. B. Rash, who resides on the Price farm, goes to the old Jewell farm at Worton.

—Mrs. Charlotte R. Roberts has sold to Mr. G. Edward Furbush her house, corner Queen and Cannon streets, Chestertown, now tenanted by Mr. Owen C. Smith. Possession given on Jan. 1, 1919. Price private. Mr. Smith will occupy the Boyd home which he recently purchased.

—Mr. John E. Barnes, one of Chestertown's progressive real estate agents, has severed his relations with the Albert L. Teele Co. and is conducting a real estate business in his own name. Mr. Barnes is a hustler and we wish him success. See adv. in this issue.

—Mr. Donald Stam has returned to Chestertown and has taken charge of the Stam Drug Co. business. Mr. Stam has purchased an interest in the business and will, no doubt, conduct a successful and up-to-date drug store. This business has been successfully conducted by the Stam family for three generations. We welcome Mr. Stam's return. Mr. Stam served in the army of the U. S. during the recent war.
