PEOPLE'S COLUMN

Editor Transcript,
Chestertown, Md.

Dear Sir—I see there is an agitation on foot for a ferry from Bay Shore to Tolchester. Being familiar with the localities, tide conditions, etc., it seems impossible that this can be really seriously contemplated, but at the same time I take the liberty of pointing out to you a few facts in this connection.

The Tolchester wharf, now in use, in close proximity to which it is contemplated building, is wholly or partially carried away nearly every year by the spring freshets; it is impossible for a boat to land at this point with a heavy southwest or northwest wind blowing (these are the prevailing winds during the fall and spring); it requires three and one-half miles of state road to connect up the existing road with this point and the immediate approach is a very dangerous down grade; the amount of space available is very limited and there is no settlement here, but only a privately owned amusement resort.

On the other hand: the Rock Hall wharf being in a creek is protected and it is possible to land there every day in the year; it is not endangered by ice or the spring freshets; it requires only one and one-fourth miles of state road to connect it up, and that of a level grade. The amount of space available is unlimited and Rock Hall is the second largest town in this section.

A ferry to Rock Hall would be of aavantage to a vastly larger section of the Eastern Shore, would cost considerably less in first outlay and the upkeep would be but a fraction of that required at Tolchester.

The urgent need of a ferry or some other means of connection between the Eastern and Western Shores in this section has been apparent to everybody for some years. That this project should be taken up and energetically pushed to completion at once is only good common sense. That Rock Hall and not Tolchester is the logical point of contact on this side no one with an unbiased mind will dispute. Kent County and her sister counties on the Eastern Shore need to be in closer touch with Baltimore for their own good, for Baltimore's good and for the good of Maryland, and the project should be agitated to the limit.

That Bay Shore Park is the best starting point is very doubtful, but that is their end. Our end is over here and we want it right. Kent is generally right. She was right during the war and before the war and now let's be right after the war. Let's be right on the ferry and have it at Rock Hall.

CHURCH NOTES

Christ M. P. Church, Rev. J. L. Ward pastor. Sunday services: S. S., F. G. Usilton, Supt., 10.00 a. m.; morning worship, Christian Endeavor and a short sermon 7 p. m.; prayer and praise service Thursday 8.00 p .m.

Keen interest in centered about the plans of opening the Laurel-Bethel camp meeting on Friday, August 1, and with the committee in charge mapping out a program that will exceed anything in the past, this season promises to be one of the best on record. The camp will be open until Monday, August 25. The camp did not open last year.

A stirring sermon was delivered in Bond Chapel last Sunday morning by Rev. Edwin Gardner on the theme, "Shall We Sign the Covenant of Peace?" The text was taken from the 20th verse and 47th Psalm, "He hath not dealt so with any nation; as for His judgments, we have not known them." This theme will be enlarged upon in the future.

In spite of threatening weather on Thursday, the Methodist Episcopal S. S. picnic went to Tolchester and a good time was enjoyed.

Sunday was regular missionary day at Christ M. P. Church. About $20 was contributed. The Bible class won the banner.

A new church of the Methodist Protestant denomination is to be established at Skinner's Neck, near Rock Hall, to form part of Chesapeake charge, now served by Rev. A. F. M. Raum.

A picnic will be held at Tolchester Beach by the Pomona Choral Club on Friday next, July 25.

Services at Bond Chapel next Sunday: S. S. at 10 a. m.; sermon at 11 a. m. by Rev. Edwin Gardner, pastor. Everybody welcome.

St. James M. P. Church, Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor. Sunday services: S. S., 10 a. m.; preaching at 11 a. m.; Christian Endeavor at 7.30 p .m., leader, Miss Eunice Morris. Rev. Mr. Donovan will occupy the pulpit of the Worton Presbyterian Church at the evening services on Sunday.
