LOCAL MATTERS

Razing Old Sparks' Building.—Mr. Albert Rawleigh has the contract to raze the old Sparks Building on High and Cross Street, and has a large force of men on the job, which began on Thursday morning. Mr. Frank E. Duyer moved the large plate glass windows for Mr. A. L. Sparks, which will be used in his new store.

Six File Papers For Divorces Here.—Six Cecil county women have filed papers in the circuit court here for divorces from their husbands. They are Bessie A. Arnold, from Floyd J. Arnold; Mollie W. Biddle, from Geo. M. Biddle; Mary O. McAllister from Theodore R. McAllister; Edna S. Donovan, from Pierce B. Donovan; Margaret Gibson from Augustus Gibson; and Mary E. White, from Edward E. White.

Game Violators Arrested.—Information was received at the Game Warden's office last week that wild-fowl was being shot in and near Elliott's Island, Maryland. District Deputy Game Wardens James Temple and W. T. Collins were dispatched to this point at once, and upon investigation warrants were issued for Messrs. Ware Hurley and Hyland Jones, charged with shooting wild fowl during closed season. These cases were set for trial before Police Justice V. M. Sullivan, Cambridge, Md., and Messrs. Hurley and Jones were found guilty and fined $50.00 and costs in each case. Violators of the game laws take warning from the above.

Dr. Besley To Be Here.—State Forester F. W. Besley is visiting each county in the state this summer looking after woodland and shade tree work. He will be at Chestertown on August 8 and from here will visit the woodlands in the county, where applications have been received from the owners for advice in handling woodlands, marketing timber, or in the matter of forest planting. He will also visit towns where advice has been sought in the care of shade trees. Many requests have been received, but it is the desire of the State Forester that any others who may be interested apply at his office, 532 North Howard St., Baltimore, so that all applications may be handled in a systematic way and no one may be overlooked.

Woman's Hospital Fund.—The following have contributed the sum of $1 toward the improvements contemplated in the Woman's Hospital in Baltimore City: Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, Mrs. Robert Huey, Mrs. A. N. Stavely, Miss Susan S. Roberts, Mr. Charles H. Price, Mr. Robert Bowers, Mr. Edward Pennington, Mr. A. N. Stavely, Mr. R. H. Collins, Mr. T. D. Bowers $2, Mr. Hope H. Barroll $5. In addition to these amounts, through the efforts of Mrs. A. N. Stavely, of Lynch, an additional sum has been raised which has brought the total contribution from this county to the sum of $32.00. This has been forwarded by Mrs. Stavely to the Woman's Hospital, and will be used as a part of the fund needed by this institution at the present time. The efforts of these ladies and the generosity of our citizens who have contributed to this cause is most deeply appreciated by all who are active in improving the facilities of caring for women in the city of Baltimore.
