DEATHS

The funeral of Mrs. Ellen C. Beck, whose death we noted last week, was held at her late home on Maple avenue, Chestertown, Monday at 11.30 o'clock a. m. The interment was in St. Paul's cemetery. A large number of friends and relatives were present.

The whole county was saddened on Saturday to hear of the death of Mr. Carey W. Reinhart at his home near Fairlee, after a long and painful illness from a complication of diseases. He was in his fortieth year of age. Mr. Reinhart was president of the Kent County Commissioners, upon which board he was serving his second term of office. Mr. Reinhart was one of the most popular men of the county and had a host of friends, who mourn with his family over his death.

He was very popular among a wide circle of friends, relatives and the public generally and will be missed and mourned by the whole community.

He leaves a widow, who was before marriage Miss Daisy Nicholson, and 2 small children.

He was a member of Chester Camp No. 8745 Modern Woodmen of America.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor of St. James' M. P. Church, assisted by a former pastor, Rev. H. B. Jester, and the Rev. Dr. Dickinson, rector of St. Paul's. The funeral was largely attended by the political, social and church friends of the deceased. Interment was in Chester cemetery, Undertaker C. L. Dodd in charge. The pall bearers were J. N. Bennett and Olin S. Davis, associate county commissioners; Samuel Hicks, clerk to the board; Owen C. Smith, supervisor of assessments; A. Parks Rasin, clerk of the Circuit Court, and H. Stockton Startt.

James Murphy, who has made his home for sometime with Mr. George Webb, of near Locust Grove, died at the Elkton hospital on last Sunday of general debility, aged 71 years. Body was removed to the undertaking establishment of W. H. Krusen at Still Pond, and interment took place from there on Tuesday morning, Rev. A. W. Goodhand officiating.

Clara L. Greenwood, infant daughter of John F. and Mamie Greenwood, died Wednesday night, aged 13 months. Interment at St. Paul's Cemetery, Rev. Father Earner officiating. Undertaker C. L. Dodd had charge of the funeral arrangements.
