Colorbar stalls Baptist crusade

ATLANTA (UPI)—The Southern Baptist Home Mission Board has canceled its participation in a revival crusade in South Africa because the country refused to permit an integrated party of preachers.

Until recently we were to bring along colored evangelists but this was ruled out by the South African Government because there could be no mixed welcome at the airport," said C.E. Autrey, director of the Board's division of evangelism.

"This would be embarrassing to all pastors," he said.

Among other stipulations that we feel we could not comply with and remain true to our Southern Baptist convictions was an agreement that the evangelists not speak on the race issue."

Regal splendor is something that you read about..."Queen Visits Islands," "Prince Enters Military School," "Princess Poses for Photographers at Local Benefit."

You probably read these headlines and momentarily whisk away into that magical land of make-believe. Many times, ladies wish they were queens, with subjects and jewels.

Well, it's just possible that Lever Brothers can help put a little royalty into your life. The formula is simple: Start preparing your family meals with IMPERIAL Margarine. When you pick up a package at your nearest grocery store, the first thing to catch your eye will be the embossed IMPERIAL crown. This outstanding trademark symbolizes flavor...it represents the best-tasting margarine on the market.

IMPERIAL Margarine tastes like the expensive spread, but costs much less. Each stick is still very carefully marked for your convenience in following recipes. Your family is sure to enjoy the delicious flavor, so much so that they make you queen of the castle.

"Your majesty" may not make headlines – but, oh, how you will enjoy your new popularity! Take your bows with IMPERIAL Margarine...It adds regal splendor to any meal.

The coming of spring was great news for almost everybody. It is quite refreshing to get out in the fresh air, escaping from the monotony that is identified with winter.

Dad can really use his talents on numerous do-it-yourself projects; the kids will enjoy matching wits to see who can get closest to Mother Nature as they embark on new and exciting adventures.

Of course, Mother is thrilled to have an opportunity at last to set out the new plant bulbs ordered last fall. And all of this is well and good, except that it presents many laundry problems.

Oh, how the grease and soil are sure to grind their way into those clothes. No need to press the panic button and slow down any of those activities, however. Simply get New Advanced "all." It cuts through greasy dirt in a way no leading detergent ever did before.

You see, New Advanced "all" outcleans the leading white detergent . . . outcleans the leading blue detergent . . . even outcleans the new speckled detergent . . . "all" outcleans them all.

Get into the swing of spring . . . let New Advanced "all" handle your laundry problems, so you can just relax and enjoy it.

This is the season when everyone is up in arms about spring cleaning. But it is really not so bad if you can work out a system.

First, make a list of all the things to be done and check to see where the best assistance can be obtained, if needed. For example: Painting the house . . . get estimates from several competent contractors, then choose the one who gives you the best deal.

Rug cleaning...there are many professional companies listed in the Yellow Pages, or do it yourself with a rug-shampoo machine from your local hardware, grocery or rental store...

Washing all those seldom-used dishes . . . for this you only need DOVE-for-DISHES. This chore could very easily become the most delightful since all worry about those precious hands can be eliminated.

Because of all the scrubbing and cleaning you will have to do, it is very understandable that your hands will get dry and chapped. DOVE-for-DISHES is best for dry hands. It has a skin-lotion ingredient right in it. A new hand-lotion fragrance in this amazing dishwashing liquid makes it even smell like a hand lotion. Perk up . . . get on with the spring cleaning...things will go a lot "smoother" for you and your hands if you make sure to include DOVE-for-DISHES on your market list.

It was great fun for me, describing to audiences the beautiful fashions in the Easter Parade, as a fashion commentator, I have an opportunity to tell ladies about the latest trends.

This spring, prints appear in many combinations, from subtle florals to zany geometrics. Color is the keynote . . . in fact, at one time the entire stage looked like a brilliant ray of Florida sunshine tossed into a garden of limes, oranges, melons and lemons.

Fabrics are varied with more and more easy-to-care-for varieties being shown. This is the area that I did not quite give all the attention that it deserved . . . these new fabrics require very special care to keep their fresh appearance.

They need the attention of FINAL TOUCH Fabric Softener with Lemo-White. It does a fantastic job of whitening whites and brightening colors, in addition to its softening action that keeps your clothes looking their cuddly best.

For best results, put FINAL TOUCH in the final rinse water. Don't envy the fashion models . . . join them. Try FINAL TOUCH today and watch your fashions keep that "just-entered-the-parade" look.

Del. Brailey honored in S.C. his hometown

Some 500 friends and well wishers from all parts of Lee County, S.C. turned out last Friday night to pay tribute to a native son, Troy Brailey.

The testimonial banquet was held in the auditorium of the Mount Pleasant High School, Elliot.

The guest speaker, the Rev. C. Jasper Smith, district superintendent of the Methodist Churches of the Sumter District of South Carolina, enumerated the achievements of Delegate Brailey and said, "The people of Lee County are proud of you." The Rev. Mr. Smith recalled that Mrs. Mary McCloud Bethune was also a native of Lee County.

"You and Mrs. Bethune were born about 12 miles apart; it's hard to believe that we can claim both of you," commented the Rev. Mr. Smith.

EARLIER IN the afternoon, students from Lee County schools had the opportunity of meeting and talking with the Maryland lawmaker.

It was hard for some of them to believe that a colored man from the small farming town of Lynchburg, S.C. could be elected to the State Legislature of Maryland.

This was the first affair of its kind ever held in Lee County.

The committee has planned to make it an annual event, with the proceeds going to the Troy Brailey Scholarship Fund for deserving high school graduates in Lee County.
