THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as Second Class Matter.

AT the meeting of the Democratic State Central Committee in Baltimore on Wednesday Attorney-General A. J. Ritchie was agreed upon as the party's nominee for Governor; Thomas J. Keating, of Queen Anne's county, for Attorney-General; and Mr. Magruder, the present incumbent, for clerk of the Court of Appeals. The Comptrollership was offered to Major Brook Lee. The Major has not yet announced his decision. He would add considerable strength to the ticket.

THE CHIEF JUDGESHIP

The judgeship in this judicial circuit is attracting the attention of the citizens of five counties—Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Talbot and Caroline. There are three candidates for the Chief Judgeship—Judge Adkins, of Talbot; Hon. Omar D. Crothers, of Cecil; and G. Allen Goldsborough, Esq., of Caroline. Judge Adkins was elected Associate Judge of this Circuit 12 years ago by a flattering majority, which indicated the confidence reposed in him by the people of these counties. On the death of the late Judge Albert Constable last March, Gov. Harrington elevated him to the Chief Judgeship; to accept this it became necessary for him to resign as Associate Judge, and if the voters do not renominate him at the primary election in September it means his retirement from the bench and the valuable experience and knowledge gained by his 12 years on the bench would be lost to the state and to the citizens of this circuit. Taking the past custom as a precedent under the present constitution, Judge Adkins is entitled to the nomination, as a renomination has never been denied a judge in this state if he desired it and was young enough to serve. Judge Adkins' record justifies his renomination as chief judge and his campaign is based on that record. He has been just and fearless and the people have been given a fair deal at his hands.

Judge Lewin W. Wickes, candidate for Associate Judge, has no opposition and his nominatio nis assured, which is very pleasing to his friends.

Injured In Accident.—While returning to Cambridge in an auto Saturday night J. N. Sherman ran into Mrs. Lillie Hastings, of Salisbury, and Miss Ida Dickerson, formerly of Chestertown, nurses at the Eastern Shore State Hospital, who were walking along the state road. The accident was due to Mr. Sherman's failing to see them because of the light of a car coming in the opposite direction and their confusion at the approach of the two machines. Mrs. Hastings sustained a broken ankle and other injuries, while Miss Dickerson's injuries consisted of a broken ankle, a cut on the head and numerous bruises. They were taken to Cambridge Hospital.
