The welcome home and demobilization of the Service Flag program exercises were held in Christ M. P. Church on Sunday evening. The program of invitation extended to the boys was in charge of Mr. F. G. Usilton. The rallying son, There's No Place Like Home, was sung. Prayer by Dr. L. E. Barrett; Address of Welcome by Rev. J. L .Ward; Address, behalf of the Sunday School by Mrs. Amy McMenamin; Address in behalf of the Young Men's Club by Mr. J. Waters Russell; Address in behalf of the Senior Christian Endeavor by Mrs. Ella P. Robinson; recitation in behalf of the Intermediates by Miss Florence Kent; recitation in behalf of the Junior Christian Endeavor, by Miss Myrtle Needles; Address of Welcome by Col. Joseph Vannort, a veteran of the Civil War, now in his 85th year; Address by Mr. W. F. Russell, Jr., in behalf of the returned soldiers; Duett, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Thompson; solo, No Place Like Home, Mrs. F. G. Usilton, with chorus by congregation. Benediction, Rev. J. L. Ward.

BETTERTON ITEMS

The Chautauqua which was held in Betterton a part of last week and this week closed on Wednesday, but was not as successful as was expected. While the program at each session was most interesting, the guests at the hotels did not attend and the Betterton people were too busy with their summer duties at this particular time to attend.

All of the soldier boys and a large number of Betterton people attended the reception in Chestertown on Thursday for the returned soldiers.

Lieut. Albert Shartel, formerly of Betterton, who was honored for his distinguished service in the war, spent a few days here last week.

Mr. Roland Crew, who has been overseas for the past eighteen months returned to his home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Saville, of Philadelphia, have moved into their home in Betterton recently purchase from Mr. Floyd Crownhart.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gooding and son, of Baltimore, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Moore.

Mrs. J. L. Smyth, of Chestertown, spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. James Brice.

—Declaring that the public did not care for the brand of beer permitted under war-time prohibition, 155 New York liquor dealers surrendered their licenses to the State Excise Department on Monday, the last day allowed them to claim a refund of $250. Ninety dealers relinquished their licenses on June 30, bringing the total to 245.

—There promises to be a hot primary fight in Queen Anne's county this month. Five are after the office of sheriff.

BASE BALL NOTES

Kennedyville defeated Centreville by the score of 4 to 1 on Saturday at that town. Capt. Carey Jarman, just home from France, played for Kennedyville, as did also Gordy, former W. C. pitcher, who twirled a masterly game for Kennedyville. Blackway made a sensational one hand catch in this game that was one of the features.

Today's Games—Queenstown at Centreville; Kennedyville at Millington.

Tuesday's Games—Millington at Centreville; Kennedyville at Queenstown.

The addition of Carey Jarman and Pitcher Gordy to Kennedyville should brace that team considerably.

Cincinnati and New York are battling for leadership in the National League, while Chicago has a safe lead in the American League. At this early date it seems reasonably sure that the world's championship line-up will be Chicago versus either Cincinnati or New York, with the fans of the country favoring Cincinnati over the New York Giants.

Kennedyville defeated Millington on Tuesday by the score of 7 to 1 and is again tie with Centreville for first place in the league. Archibald twirled for Kennedyville, while Blackway starred with a sensation catch with men on bases.

Centreville won from Queenstown on Tuesday by the score of 6 to 0.

Millington defeated Queenstown in a 12-inning game on Saturday by the score of 4 to 3.

Mr. Herbert Usilton has signed with the Centreville team and is playing a good game.
