—Lively sparks

In Baltimore in 1961 when civil rights activists got me out of jail in Elkton during the Route 40 Freedom Rides.

"After this I worked with protests in Chester, Pa., Camden, and Washington and served as Philadelphia coordinator for the March on Washington in 1963.

"In the fall of that year students from Morgan and Johns Hopkins asked me to come to Baltimore to direct U-JOIN (Union for Jobs or Income) which was designed to build an interracial movement among the poor.

In his four years in Baltimore Mr. Lively has been an uncompromising advocate for improving the conditions of the poor, both colored and white.

EVALUATING HIS chances in the up-coming election, he said:

"I stand a very good chance of being elected and helping to change the balance of the City Council for one dominated by racial supremacists to one committed to freedom for all Baltimore citizens.

"I have learned a number of things from this election, particularly that there is a great need for black political unity and organization," said the candidate while discussing post-election plans.

"I plan, immediately after the election — win or lose — to help develop this unity and organization in the Second District."

He added, "There's another need for civil rights and civic leadership in our communities, where they relate, in an organized fashion, to the poor black and white masses on a one-to-one basis, in a program designed to educate and aid them in the struggle for total freedom."

"There's a need for some people who are willing to make a total sacrifice for freedom. Right now I'm willing to make that sacrifice.

IN WHAT little spare time he finds, Mr. Lively enjoys working in graphic arts and architectual design, and is skilled in techniques of printing, silkscreening, and block printing.

These skills have begun of great help during his campaign for he has been able to print much of his campaign literature himself.

Since June, he has been married to the former Lydia Stancil, a Baltimorean and former Morgan student.

crats.

But it was clear the turnout by race could be decisive. Taft forces worked and hoped for a heavier westside vote by whites while Stokes' camp also looked to the Westside vote by an expected solid Eastside vote.

Stokes told the AFRO, "It's going down to the wire," but his campaign manager, Dr. Kenneth W. Clement Jr., flatly predicted, "we'll win."

TAFT TOLD the AFRO, "put it this way, if there is a big turnout I can win. If there isn't, I lose."

Some observers felt many white Democrats who find a distastful to vote for a Republican or a colored candidate, might sit out the city's most significant election.

Cold weather with snow flurries were forecast.

With his experience and the public backing of both daily newspapers the Democratic party, labor unions and many nationality groups, Stokes would be a shoo-in in this Democratic stronghold were he not the grandson of a slave.

There has been a late rash of racial rumors, scurrilous literature and telephone calls.

Stokes' political troops are being backed by civil rights groups including CORE, which has here Lincoln Lynch, national associate director, and Dr. Martin Luther King's forces.

Stokes' know-how in turning out the vote could prove the edge in a tight [illegible]

"We'd like to get it over 85 percent [illegible]," said Dr. Clement, pointing to the primary's 76 percent turnout of colored voters.

VOTE BLACK POWER NOW!

Negroes unite! We are on the eve of complete victory. Thus far, we are assured of one colored City Councilman. Get out and vote Tuesday and we win, we then control the entire City Council.

Under the Afro-American leadership, we have formed the Black Power Ticket: Douglass (who left the Democratic ticket), Lively (who came to Baltimore as an organizer), and McLean, (a colored "independent" from West Baltimore).

Beat the only whites (Prucha and Mach), with our all-Negro slate. Forget party labels, and vote for your men who stand for:

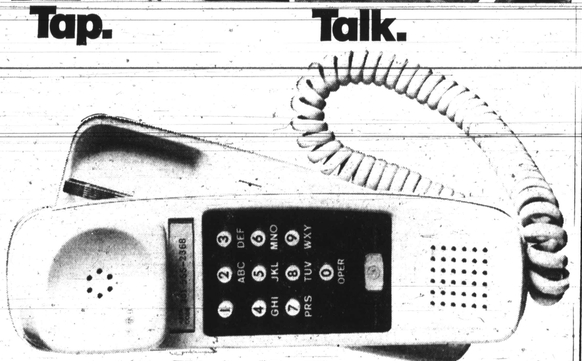
GUTTER POLITICS—This is a copy of the smut literature being distributed in white sections of the Second District by backers of the segregationists candidates It is designed to inflame racism among white voters. Another piece of what was described as "disgraceful literature" is being circulated in colored areas of the district. It purports to be a warning to 'Soul Brothers.' It is designed to scare colored voters from voting polls. Both are reported to have been printed and distributed by the same sources. Voters are urged to ignore the smut and vote for Robert L. Douglass, Walter H. Lively and James H. McLean.

Tap. Talk.



Touch-Tone.®

Terrific

is what you'll call it. It's the fastest, easiest way to dial, ever. Just tap out a number and start talking—takes about four seconds. What makes it so fast? The secret is the ten musical tones that complete your call electronically.

Every model telephone is available with Touch-Tone dialing, including the new Trimline® phone. Sure, it costs a little more. But here's a bonus. When we switch you to Touch-Tone service, you get your favorite color, too.

So ask your telephone man to put Touch-Tone service in your home. Or just pick up the phone and dial the Telephone Business Office. It may be the last time you ever spin a dial.

Even we call that terrific.

Divorce ends marriage of 30 years duration

Judge Joseph Byrnes signed a divorce decree which ended 30 years of marriage for Mrs. Miram Stokes, 2936 E. Preston St., and her husband, William Stokes, 1626 Ashland Ave.

Mrs. Stokes is a Department of Employment Security interviewer. Mr. Stokes is a Bethlehem Steel blast furnace employee at Sparrows Point.

According to Mrs. Stokes, represented by William M. Toadvine, attorney, she and her husband were married July 16, 1937.

They separated, she said, on July 1,1965 since they had decided to live apart would be best for both of them.

James D. Boone, 25, 1115 Proctor St., a City Sanitation Dept. worker filed for divorce last July when the decree came through last week it was granted on the cross bill of his wife, Mrs. Naomi Ruth Boone, 24, 723 Mura St.

Mr. Boone claimed in his petition he and Mrs. Boone, a packer at Rice's Bakery, voluntarily separated in December, 1964.

Holding his allegation in error, the wife told the court her husband left her in June of 1964.

"He packed his things and left, "Mrs. Boone stated. "He went to live with another girl who, he said was good to him. He told me she was and her mother too," the wife charged in her cross bill.

Judge Byrnes signed the decree on Nov. 2 and required Mr. Boone to pay a sum of $20 a week through the Probation Department for the support of the couple's two children, a boy age seven and a girl, age five.

ALSO GRANTED a divorce last week was Fred Thomas Tate, 37, 3409 Oakfield, a Social Security employee.

Mr. Tate filed a petition Feb. 8, 1967 in Circuit Court and revealed he and his wife, Mrs. Marion Catherine Tate, and revealed he and his wife, 38, 1109 Woodington Rd., were married Dec. 17, 1955, in Wayside Ga.

They seperated in October, 1960, he stated, when he left their Woodbrook Ave residence and took his things with him.
