LOCAL MATTERS

Indiantown Is Sold.—The Eastern Maryland Live Stock Association reports that it has purchased the entire Indiantown property, which includes the holdings of Mrs. Mary K. Emory and son, Mr. E. B. Emory. This splendid estate is beautifully situated on the Chester River and is one of the wharves of the Chester River Steamboat Co. The entire tract contains more than 400 acres. Price around $30,000.

Chautauqua.—One week more, and then the Chautauqua, and every season ticket should be sold. These tickets, which admit the holder to all sessions, are only $2.50 for adults and $1 for children up to 1 5years of age for the entire week of instruction, entertainment and pleasure. All Season Tickets are transferable; and they provide the cheapest, safest and best way to attend the Chautauqua. Do not fail to urge your acquaintances, your friends and the people generally to buy them; and do not forget to secure yours now. They are on sale at Jefferson's store.

Boys' Rat Killing Contest.—All boys or others who were either in or helping with the Boys' Rat Killing Contest carried on last winter and this spring under direction of Mr. L. L. Burrell, former County Agent, will please send in data to Horace B. Derrick, County Agent, Chestertown, Md., before Sept. 1, 1919. Mr. W. W. Hubbard, president of the Peerless Fertilizer Co., had offered a cash prize for the winner of this contest and the contest will be closed in regard to receiving data Aug. 31, 1919. Letters in regard to number of rats killed during the contest should be verified by one or two men or women.

Mr. Crew was repairing a gasoline engine when the gasoline tank exploded. Mr. Crew was painfully burned on the hands, and it was only by heroic efforts on his part that the place where he was working was kept from catching on fire.

DEATHS

The Rev. Dr. John S. Bowers, four times president of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church and for many years pastor of Alnutt Memorial Church, Baltimore, died Wednesday at his home in New Freedom, Pa., where he had lived since retiring from the active ministry two years ago on account of ill health.

Dr. Bowers was 60 years old and was a son of the late Rev. Dr. Samuel Bowers, also of the M. P. Church. He was born in Chestertown and was a graduate of Western Maryland College and entered the ministry in the Maryland Conference in 1881. Besides other pastorates in the state he occupied the pulpit of St. John's Church, Baltimore, for 17 years, after which he was stationed at Alnutt Memorial until his retirement. He was president of the Maryland Conference from 1912 to 1917, his first election being contested hotly, but the other three were almost unanimous on account of his efficient and wise administration of affairs.

Surviving are his mother, and sister, Mrs. William Aldridge, of Chestertown, his widow and three sons, Daniel and Frank Bowers, of Baltimore, and Dr. Cole Bowers, of New Freedom, now in the United States Army. Mr. Thomas D. Bowers, postmaster at Chestertown, is his brother.

The funeral will take place today and among the officiating clergymen will be the Rev. Drs. J. M. Sheridan, Francis T. Little and W. H. Litsinger. Burial will be in the New Freedom Cemetery.

John R. Rollison, son of the late Charles H. Rollison, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. J. Beck, Bustleton, Phila., Pa., on August 10, 1919, aged 51 years. He had suffered over a year from a complication of diseases. When a boy 16 years of age he entered the store of the late Thos. S. Wickes, of Chestertown, and remained there until the death of Mr. Wickes. He then went to Manchester, N. H., and was in business there until a few months ago; owing to ill health he closed out and came south to the home of his sister, accompanied by his wife, who was Miss Olive Wheatley, of Cookshire, Canada, and to whom he had been married about nine years. His body was brought to Kent and rested in Wesley Chapel Church over night on Tuesday and was buried on Wednesday in the adjoining cemetery, Rev. Mr. Raum officiating. Mr. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

The death of Mrs. Lydia J. Steel, wife of Mr. William Steel, of Galena, occurred at her late home on the 14th of August, after a short illness, aged 61 years. She leaves her husband, two sons, one daughter and an adopted son. Mrs. Steel was a lady who was fond of young people particularly and had a host of friends and acquaintances. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Frank White, assisted by Rev. A. P. Prettyman and were held at her late home Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment at Galena cemetery. Undertaker W. H. Krusen. The following were the bearers: Heston Ford, Alexandria Powell, John Newnam, William Holden, Thomas Pinkind, Earl Barnes.

Mrs. Mary J. Hill, widow of the late Capt. Daniel Hill, and one of the most prominent ladies of Kent, died at her home near Kennedyville on Friday morning at 11.30, after a long illness of sarcoma and paralysis, aged about 73 years. She leaves five sons, Robert R., Webster and Harry, of this county, and Walter and Frank, of Baltimore, and one daughter, Mrs. G. R. Rash, of near Kennedyville. Funeral services were held at her late home near Kennedyville on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wooden, of the Kennedyville M. P. Church, officiating. Undertaker W. H. Krusen. The bearers were her five sons named above, her son-in-law, G. R. Rasin, and her two grand sons, Raymond Hill and Harry Rasin. Interment was in the family lot in Still Pond cemetery.

After a long and lingering illness, Mr. Charles L. Wheat, keeper of Chester river bridge at Chestertown, died at his home near the bridge on Monday afternoon of cirrhosis of the liver, aged 59 years. Through the years of his suffering he had the untiring and faithful devotion of his loving wife and children. He is survived by his widow and the following children: Albert L., Myra C., Annie L., Lydia B., at home and Mrs. Norman Nelson, of Chester, Pa. Funeral services were Wednesday afternoon conducted by the Rev. L. E. Barrett. The pall-bearers were John Jester, Charles Rolph, Wm. A. Burk, Wm. B. Stafford, Chas. D. McClary and Thomas Meeks. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. Emanuel Beck died last Monday at the home of his son, Mr. Albert Beck in Piney Neck, aged 88 years. His remains were taken to Baltimore via Rock Hall on Tuesday and interment made at Owings Mills, Baltimore county, the former home of the deceased, on Wednesday. He leaves eight children. Undertaker C. L. Dodd.

Mr. John R. Toulson, formerly of Chestertown, died at Hope Farm, near Wilmington, on Thursday last of tuberculosis, aged 57 years. He is survived by a widow and one son, Herbert Toulson. His remains were brought by train to Chestertown on Saturday evening and rested at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Everett. Funeral services were held at Protestant Church at Double Creek corner, near Crumpton, Sunday at noon, interment in cemetery adjoining. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

The death of Mr. D. L. Stevens, a brother-in-law of Messrs. Frank and Allie Robinson, occurred at West Grove, Pa., August 15.

Mr. Thomas F. Dunn, editor of the "Dover Index," and one of the best known country newspaper men of the state of Delaware, occurred at Dover Saturday. For several years he was president of the Delmarvia Press Association.

The War and Influenza.

were two abnormal conditions appertaining to Life Insurance that came to the surface during the year just passed, concerning which we simply state and we have pride in the manner the conditions were met.

The death claims among those of our policy holders who were in the SERVICE, and the death claims caused by the epidemic of FLUE and PNEUMONIA, approximating a QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS (from those two causes alone) were paid immediately on receipt of proof of death, and not one claim was held in our office seven hours.

IT PAID ITS CLAIMS.
