New Professors At Washington College

The fall term of Washington College which begins on Monday, Sept. 22, will see several new teachers at the old institution. President Gould has put new life in the college and the coming year promises to be one of the best the institution has ever had. The following new teachers have been secured:

Coach J. Thomas Kibler returns as athletic director and commandant. He was a captain in the 23rd infantry and took part in a number of hard drives. He was twice wounded and gassed. Coach Kibler is a graduate in Physical Education from Temple College. He has coached at Ohio State University, at Lehigh University, and at Washington College, and was one of the most successful athletic instructors W. C. ever had. While in France Captain Kibler coached the athletic teams of his regiment.

Professor Marten Ten Hoor returns to Washington College as teacher of Philosophy and Social Science after having served eighteen months in the U. S. Army. Prof. Ten Hoor has an A. B. and an M. A. from the University of Michigan.

Mr. A. R. Woodland comes to W. C. to be an assistant in Science. He was a graduate of W. C. in 1916 and served two years in the United States Navy.

The Board of Visitors and Governors has decided to make W. C. definitely co-educational. Normal Hall has been opened to women. Professor and Mrs. Bonnotte will reside there and be in charge. The hall will accommodate about forty women.

Military Science will be offered as an elective course. Drill will be required of all as a part of the regular physical training. Uniform will be worn at the drill, and may be worn at other times if the student so desires.

CHURCH NOTES

St. James M. P. Church, Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor. S. S., 10 a. m.; preaching, 11 a. m., Rev. G. A. Morris; Christian Endeavor, 7.30 p. m. Lynch Church services: S. S., 2.30 p. m.; preaching 3 p. m.

Worton Presbyterian Church, Rev. Avery Donovan, pastor. Preaching on Sunday at 8 p m.

Cardinal Mercier, the Belgian prelate who defied the Germans and who did such good work in behalf of Belgium during the war, arrived in this country on Wednesday.

Sunday, Sept. 7, was a great day at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, when the congregation celebrated the 90th anniversary of the church in an all-day meeting. Rev. W. M. Straughn, the oldest member of the Maryland Annual Conference, preached on "Temptations" and had charge of the communion service in the morning. Rev. Henry Mason addressed the Sunday School. Dinner was served by the Ladies Aid to all in the hall of the church. In the afternoon, after a song service, Rev. J. F. Wooden, of Kennedyville, brought greetings from the county churches and Rev. C .M. Compher, of Washington, D. C., thrilled his congregation with his visionary sermon. Supper was served and Young Peoples night was the program with Rev. H. W. D. Johnson with his "Working out the Visions" sermons. It was indeed a great day, one long to be remembered. Wesley Chapel has accomplished a great work since the pioneer day of Methodist Protestantism to now, but her greatest work is ahead in the future.

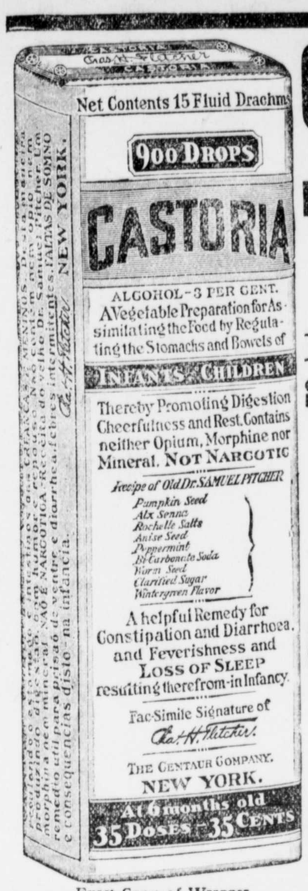

Services Sunday at Wesley Chapel: 9.30 a. m., S. S. Elwood Burgess, Supt.; 10.45 a. m., preaching.

Services Sunday at Kesley Chapel, Broad Neck: S. S., 2 p. m.; preaching and communion at 3 p. m.

Services at Skinners Neck M. P. Church Sunday: S. S., 2 p. m.; preaching at 8 p. m.

Capt. Kibler Home.—Captain J. T. Kibler is in Chestertown this week. He has not yet been discharged, but will be next week from Camp Dix, N.J. Capt. Kibler was wounded three times and gassed. He was in the Second Division and occupied a sector that was between the onrushing German army and Paris the French having been driven from a large area of the line. But the American boys stopped the Hun advance and defeated them. Capt. Kibler lost his third finger on his right hand from a German sniper, who was up in a tree. He was also shot through both legs by the sniper. As recorded elsewhere Captain Kibler will return to Washington College as commandant and athletic instructor.

—Alas, 'tis so; summer lies low, and autumn is being ushered in, and out in the country, where trees once were overburdened with thick, green leaves, bare branches are beginning to peep through the leaves, which solwly are donning their golden and crimson shades. And the autumn winds are bringing with them the fragrance of burning leaves and dying foliage.
