'Brass Tacks' Panelists Announced

Panelists appearing on WBAL-TV's "Brass Tacks" program scheduled for Sun., Feb. 21, at 10-11 p.m. have been announced by Sydney King, WBAL-TV Community Service Manager.

The program is the seventh in a series of 12 special programs dealing with drugs, drug abuse and drug control programs in Md. Sunday's panelists will discuss therapeutic communities, what they are and how they help drug addicts.

Appearing on the program will be: Manson Brown Jr., Chief of Criminal Justice Treatment of the Federal Government's NARC Center; Dr. Howard A. Hoffman, Director of Training and Associate Clincal Director of the Psychiatric Institute of Washington; Field Colonel Rafiq, Education Director of the Black Man's Development Center and Assistant Commanding Officer of the Black Man's Volunteer Army of Liberation.

Other panelists appearing on the program will be named at a later date. Brent O. Gunts, WBAL-TV Vice President and General Manager, will moderate the program and relay viewers' questions to the panelists. Viewers may submit their questions during the program by dialing WBAL-TV's special "Brass Tacks" phone number 727-1722.

"Brass Tacks," seen in color every Sunday at 10-11 p.m., is a WBAL-TV Community Service presentation.

ONE OF 6,000 new students at the Community College of Baltimore, George Okon, a Nigerian, looks over his Spring program listing the courses and the schedule of the pre-med course which he will be studying at the school. Behind him is the board containing the numbers which represent all the courses given at the college.

Easter Seal co-chairman Bubba-Tom

Supercolts Tom Matte and Bubba Smith have been named Volunteer Co-Chairmen of the Easter Seal Committee by H. Alfred Stalfort, president of the Baltimore League for Crippled Children and Adults, the Eastern Seal Agency for Baltimore City and Baltimore and Howard Counties.

Matte, whose value to the Colts on their way to the World Championship in professional football was recognized even though he was sidelined through all the season after the first game, is serving in this capacity for the fourth time.

For Smith, All-Pro choice at defensive end, it is his first year.

They will take part in the Easter Seal campaign which will begin on March 1.

A kickoff luncheon under the auspices of the Women's Auxiliary of the League on March 4, starts the local campaign which will continue until Easter Sunday, April 11.

Women of the Auxiliary are now addressing and preparing for mailing 350,000 appeal letters, and other volunteers are assisting them.

Frost meets 'Rev. Leroy' on 'Flip Wilson Show'

David Frost, Aretha Franklin and Charlie Callas (of "The Andy Williams Show") will join host Flip Wilson for NBC's colorcast of "The Flip Wilson Show" Thursday.

"The Farnsworth Caper" finds David Frost, as the head of British Intelligence, trying to capture the famous spy, Felix Rathskeller, with the dubious assistance of agents Farnsworth (Callas) and Faversham (Wilson).

Charley's Diner will be the setting for a skech about a Britisher (Frost) with dreams of becoming a waiter, his mentor Charley (Flip), and a testy customer (Callas).

The Reverend Leroy (Flip), his favorite speaker "Brother David" (Frost) and the four sisters (Virginia Capers, Dolores Pickett, Dianne Whitmore and Stephanie Evans) will stage a church service in the Church of What's Happening Now.

Job skills aired on career show

What parents and high school students should know about jobs that require scientific skills will be the topic of WBAL-TV's "Career Opportunities" scheduled for Saturday, February 20, at 4-4:30 p.m. on TV 11.

Jack Day of the Audio and Visual Department of Baltimore County's Board of Education and host of TV 11's 13-week series, will discuss the scientific family of jobs with high school guidance counselors from the Baltimore City school system.

Also appearing on the program will be several guests who are currently working at jobs requiring scientific ability.
