The Rev. Mr. Queen officiated at the ceremony. An Ensemble provided the background music, and Arthur Spencer was soloist.

Miss Spence, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of orchid satin, silver trimmed. The gown featured long sleeves and a high neckline. Her bouffant bridal veil was in the same shade and she carried a circle of pompons in purple and pink.

Miss Wilhelmina Burford of Durham, N.C. was maid of honor. Her ensemble, also satin, was in pink, and she carried white pompons.

Two bridesmaids wore pink gowns and two wore yellow, and carried roses and carnations to blend with their ensembles.

They were Miss Joanne Spence, Mrs. Gilda Reddick, Mrs. Janice Ellis and Miss Audrey Massenburg.

Mr. Pierce had as best man Harvey Pierce. His ushers were William Robinson, Odel Smith, Harry Pierce and Carvin Thomas.

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Spence entertained 300 guests at the reception for the couple.

The bride, a business college graduate and a former student at Morgan State College is employed at the Social Security. Her husband, a graduate of Carver Vocational High School is a meat cutter.

FASHION NOTE: In his showing of fashions for fall and winter, in New York, Monday, Designer Bill Blass unveiled this dramatic floor-length cape which features contrasting fur trim. The cape was worn over a pants outfit.
