May Week fest held at school 58

During the week of May 24 through May 28, 1971, Elementary School No. 58, Hilton and Dorithan Streets, held its second annual May Week festivities. The activities included an Art Show, sponsored by the art resource teacher, Mrs. Betie Schlottman, and a Play Day, held on Thursday, May 27, at 12:30 p.m. on the school playground.

The concluding May Week activity was the Bicycle Rodeo sponsored by the Traffic Safety Education Unit of the Baltimore City Police Department. Trophies were awarded to the three highest-scoring girls and three highest-scoring boys.

The Bicycle Rodeo was held by Officers John Decker and Calvin Rodwell, who have worked very closely all year with the school's safety program.

On Friday, June 4, there will be a Safety Assembly at which time trophies will be presented by Officer Decker to the Rodeo winners and the school's safety patrolmen.

JUNE 1

An examination of the phenomenon of halfway houses will be the subject of a WMAR-TV documentary, "Halfway to Where?" The 60-minute color presentation will be aired today at 10 p.m.
