LOCAL MATTERS

Contract Awarded.—The Raymond Concrete Pile Co., which has secured the contract for the erection of a large pier to be built at Bay Shore for the Baltimore and Eastern Shore Ferry Line, on Friday began the construction work. The pier will cost about $99,500. The contract for the Rock Hall pier has not been let.

Fine Prospect For Kent Trappers.—Those Kent trappers having muskrat marshes for this season have good prospect of reaping big prices from the trapping season. Trappers, appreciating the opportunity, are getting in readiness for the time when the law is out. Fur prices are going up and promise to be higher this year than ever before.

Circus Here.—Cook Brothers Wild West Circus was in Chestertown on Tuesday. The day was an ideal one for the circus and fair crowds turned out to the performances. The circus, though small, contained all the features of the circus that comes to towns like Chestertown. They had good looking horses, some wild animals, side shows, etc.

Sergeant Jarman Home On Furlough.—Sergeant Frank Jarman, of Fort McHenry, returned to Chestertown Saturday and is home on a month's furlough. Sergeant Jarman enlisted during the first part of the war and soon went to France. Sergeant Jarman has been somewhat incapacitated for some time, but is gradually recovering.

Removals.—Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crossley will move into the house now occupied by Mrs. Frazier and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fowler and family will move to the Pfeffer house on Cannon street now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Newcomb, the latter moving to the Hubbard house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Faulkner, who will move to the Crossley farm in Quaker Neck.

Queen Annes Republicans Name A Ticket.—Over in Queen Annes county, the Gibraltar of Democracy on the Eastern Shore, the Republicans have made a ticket, as follows: For the Senate, C. F. Rich, Centreville; for the House of Delegates, David Wallace, Barclay; Register of Wills, W. L. Ford, Ford's Store; Treasurer, G. E. Lane, Queenstown; County Commissioner, J. T. Smith, near Chester River bridge.

Fountain Case Up.—The case concerning the re-trial of Isaiah Fountain, colored, who was convicted of assault on Bertha Simpson, of Trappe, Talbot county, was heard on Wednesday by the Court of Appeals. It has been announced that arguments for a new trial in the case of Dr. Norbura Ishida, the Japanese alienist, who killed Dr. Wolff, at Towson, will not be heard until the January term of court.

Autumn Time In Kent—The harvest days and the harvest moon and Indian summer are some of the distinctive features of the fall season and its feasts and festivities include the merry mysteries of hallowe'en and the homecoming festival of Thanksgiving Day. Just a "nice, normal fall," is the prediction of the weather prophets for the coming months. The leaves are beginning to turn slightly and acorns are dropping.

Horsey's Team Champions Of The Shore.—The Centreville baseball team which was organized and managed by Mr. Hanson Horsey, of Galena, formerly of the International League, and which contained several Chestertown men, has won the championship of the Eastern Shore. They have defeated all contestants for the honor and have had a most successful season. Mr. Horsey is a hustler and will probably manage a league team next year.

Game Killers, Beware.—People who are in the habit of killing game before the season in Kent should read the following and profit by it: Earl Waples and John Christopher, of Harrington, Del., were compelled to pay $7.50 each for killing squirrels out of season the other day. James Temple, of Denton, game warden of Caroline, arrested thirteen hunters the other day for killing game out of season and they were fined $15 each and costs.

Warns of Spurious Notes.—Warnings have been sent to banks and the other financial institutions by the secret service division of the Treasury Department of dangerous $10 and $20 counterfeits of Federal Reserve notes. The public and the savings banks have also been warned against these spurious notes. The new notes are: Ten Twenty dollar Federal Reserve note Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and Twenty dollar Federal Reserve note on the Federal Bank of New York.

Fishing Good On Bay And River.—Many local fishermen have had good fishing in the bay and Chester river the past week. Parties to Rock Hall this week caught large numbers of fine trout and perch. Few rock have been biting this year, although the net fishermen in the bay have been reaping a harvest of them. A number of fishermen have caught good trout in the Chester river, five or six miles from Chestertown. Fishing off Chester Bridge has been poor this season, generally speaking, although some fair catches have been reported.

Sugar Short In Kent.—There is a big shortage of sugar in Chestertown and all over the country, in fact. The candy manufacturers of Baltimore, which city takes the lead among cities in this line of industry, announce that because of the shortage of sugar they are compelled to reduce the output of their product to the lowest figure possible. They will be further compelled to reduce their working forces and will not make additions. They are hoping that there will be an immediate increase in the supply of sugar, though they confess that they fail to see permanent relief before January or February of next year.

Real Estate Sales

The drug store at Church Hill which for the last 31 years has been owned and managed by Dr. S. C. Dudley, was sold on Monday to James Johnson, a prominent young druggist of Caroline county. He has assumed charge of the store.

The purchaser of the big garage on High street, owned by Mr. A. S. Turner, which we mentioned last week, was the automobile firm of Noland, Bennett & Russell. This firm owns the garage on Cross street adjoining them and this will make a fine place for them. The firm will have their office on High street in the Turner garage building, and work on the office of the firm on Cross street has been discontinued. This will give them considerable more room for storage.
