What Nixon failed to mention

"President Nixon's message was apparently designed to call upon the spirit of greatness in America.

"A nation cannot be great unless its leaders reflect the quality of greatness.

"Mr. Nixon does not.

"During the course of his long presentation there was not a single reference to the status of black Americans, Mexican-Americans and other minorities.

"It is that he has decided to completely ignore this grave internal problem? The members of the Congressional black caucus who attended did not at any time applaud the Presidents message.

"It appeared from the message that Mr. Nixon was talking in terms of neo-isolationalism in so far as this nation's relationship with the other nations of the world is concerned.

"He announced a 10 percent cutback in foreign aid. Our retreat on the foreign aid fund occurs at a time when the black nation can maximally utilize foreign aid.

"Is it not curious that this nation which rebuilt Germany with foreign aid.

"This message was to have been a call for greatness on the part of America.

"However, the tune was played on a tin trumpet, the melody was one of discord and the player was lacking in greatness."

restored Japan with foreign aid and initiated the massive Alliance for Progress in South America decided cut its foreign aid program as the African nations seek to build political strength and economic stability?

Directors Hobson, Vidmar quit Md.'s Social Services

Director and Assistant Director of the Social Services Administration of the Maryland Department of Employment and Social Services on Wednesday announced their resignations effective Oct. 19.

Director Raleigh C. Hobson, 60, of the 6700 block Maxalea Rd. and Assistant Director James A. Vidmar, 48, of the 3400 block Meadowdale Dr., have accepted positions with the Social Security Administration of the United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare in the Woodlawn offices.

Both Hobson and Vidmar told the AFRO they have no future with Maryland's Social Services Administration.

Since September, 1970, said Hobson, the Social Services Administration has lost its administrative capacities and now is only an advisory board.

Presently in Congress, said Vidmar, is a bill on welfare reform which, when passed, will federalize the activities of every state's social welfare programs.

Vidmar with 20 years so cial welfare experience is leaving his $26,432 job with the state for over $27,000.

With a state salary of $29,355, Hobson said he had reached the top salary likely with the state. He will be earning $29,907 with the federal government and will be eligible for at least two more levels in pay. Both will assume their new responsibilities Oct. 20.

Mrs. Rita C. Davidson, Secretary of the Maryland Department of Employment and Social Services, has accepted the resignations of Hobson and Vidmar.

In a letter to Mr. Hobson Mrs. Davidson said, "Your eight years of dedicated service as Director of the Social Services program in Mayland must be a source of very real satisfaction. You can be assured that your administration has made a great impact on the lives of Marylanders who came to our Department for help."

Mrs. Davidson said that Mr. Vidmar has srown in his six years of service with the Department that he is a dedicated administrator in the field of social work whose ideas have made a lasting impact on the social services program of Maryland.

Youth faces criminal court for 7 robberies

A 20-year-old man appearing in Juvenile Court on Wednesday, for crimes he committed as a juvenile, was told by Judge Robert I. H. Hammerman he will be tried as an adult.

In delivering the decision during the waiver of custody hearing, Judge Hammerman stated since the young man was almost of legal adult age, with the exception of a few months when the crimes were committed, he should be tried in criminal court as an adult.

The youth is presently being held on $25,000 bail and is facing seven different charges, including robbery and assault with a portedly stolen during the seven robberies which began in January, 1969.

These robberies allegedly occurred in the 4700 block Frederick Ave. 2800 block N. Charles St. and 800 block St. Paul St.

Another youth is also charged in the robberies which took place within a year's time.

$1,000 bail set for babysitter

Bail has been set at $1,000 for the 16-year-old boy charged with beating a 2-year-old boy to death while babysitting with him early Monday morning.

Marither Johnson, 1200 block Nolan Ct., appeared as an adult for the 9 a.m. bail hearing on Wednesday held in the Southeastern District Court before Judge Jerome Robinson.

According to police reports the victim, Troy Barksdale, 1300 N. Aisquith St., was found unconscious by his mother, Mrs. Rose Archable, 20, at 4:15 a.m. after she had returned from visiting a relative with a friend. Mrs. Birdie McKelvin, 1200 block N. Jefferson St.

Mrs. Archable reportedly left her son in the care of the Johnson youth and Mrs. McKelvin's husband, Leroy McKelvin at the Nolan Ct. address.

The infant was pronounced dead on arrival at Johns Hopkins Hospital at 4:30 a.m.

According to police, the infant was originally believed to have died of natural causes, however an autopsy revealed he had been beaten to death.

According to police, Mr. McKelvin stated he was awakened by his nephew, Mr. Johnson, sometime after 4:00 a.m.; who stated he had found the infant lying on the living room floor.

Mr. McKelvin further stated his nephew told him the baby was not breathing and was unconscious. A short time later the mother returned and called the ambulance for her son.

Birthday Tribute

GRIMES — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear daughter, VALERIE JEANNETTE, on her birthday September 8, 1969, who passed away August 29, 1970.
We do not need a special day,
To bring you to our mind;
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear daughter,
On this, her Birthday Morn.
Mother and Father,
LOUISE and FRED GRIMES

McCOY — A Birthday Tribute of love to our dear son, DAVID M. McCOY on his birthday September 10th, who passed away April 5, 1970:

Happy Birthday David Dear
In your Heavenly home above.
Although we're apart again this year
We send you all our love.
Your birthday was so special
With all the fun we used to share
But the loneliness is hard to take
When we gaze at your empty chair.
We're always thinking of you
Although we're far apart
But our love is strong and will always be.
Happy Birthday Dear Sweetheart.
LOVING MOTHER and DAD

McCOY — A Birtday Tribute of love to our brother, DAVID M. McCOY, on his birtday September 10th, who passed away April 5th, 1970:
His Message.
Come to my Heavenly Garden and see, in perfect bloom
The flower you loved so dearly and thought I plucked too soon.
Then you will know My reason
Though you know it not today
Why in his promising childhood
I took your brother away.
Loving Sisters —
DIANE and DONNA

In Memoriam

BANKS — A tribute of love to my husband, JOHN, who departed this life September 13th, 1968:
Do not ask me if I miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Oft I think I hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er me
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near me
Though he left me two years ago.
LOVING WIFE

To the memory of our father, JOHN BANKS, who passed away September 13th, 1968:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend,
We kept the watch with you, dear father
Yes, even to the end.
The depth of sorrow, we cannot tell
Of the loss of one we loved so well.
A silent thought, a secret tear,
Keeps his memory ever dear.
LOVING CHILDREN

CANN — In loving memory of my dear grandfather, JAMES T., who passed away September 8, 1967:
Today our hearts are heavy
Our thoughts are all of thee
On how we miss you Papa dear
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart
But no, it isn't true
For four long years have passed
And our hearts still ache for you.
GRANDDAUGHTER, CONSTANCE FULTON and GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN

CORNISH — In memory of my wife, BESSIE CORNISH who passed September 14th, 1970:
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand
In Heaven, that happy life.
once more.
Loving Husband —
LOUIS CORNISH

In Memoriam

CANN — In loving memory of my dear husband, father and grandfather, JAMES T. who passed away September 8, 1967:
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered peace be thine
His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are passed
His ever patient worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Wife, LUVENIA
CHILDREN and GRANDCHILDREN

GATES — In loving memory of my dear wife, PAULINE GATES, who passed away September 12, 1970.
I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart,
And tho' God in His wisdom has torn us apart;
In your home up in Heaven you must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend;
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.
LOVING HUSBAND

GILLIAM — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, CECIL LORENZO GILLIAM, who passed away September 8, 1966:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend,
We think of you often, and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
WIFE and CHILDREN

GRIFFIN — In memory of our mother and grandmother, MARY GRIFFIN, who passed away September 5th, 1970:
We often sit and think of her wherever we are all alone
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own;
Lake ivy on the withered oak, when all other things decay,
Our love for her will still keep green, and never fade away.
Children — RUTH, EURE, WILLIE MAE, ELLA, LUVIS
LEE and GRANDCHILDREN

HAYNES — In loving memory of our loved one, NORA HAYNES, who passed away September 9, 1967:
We've missed the sound of your footsteps
And your voice since you have gone
And though we no longer see you,
In our minds you still live on
And so we smile in the day time
But some nights our hearts are sore;
As we think of the dear one God took away
To His distant and golden shore.
Sisters — Mrs. NANCY ALSTON,
Brother — ARTHUR BOONE
MARY EDMONDS
GRANDCHILDREN, NEPHEWS and NIECE

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my husband GILBERT D. JOHNSON, who departed this life September 9th, 1966:
I've missed the sound of your footstepe.
And your voice since you have gone,
And though I no longer see you,
In my mind you still live on
And so I smile in the daytime,
But some nights my heart is sore;
As I think of the dear one God took away
To His distant and golden shore.
Loving Wife

JONES — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, WILLIAM JOSEPH, who passed away September 13, 1970:

You are always in our thoughts
No matter where we go,
Always in our hearts, dear Son and Brother
Because we loved you so.
Mother and Father,
MR. and MRS. ROBERT JOHNSON
SISTERS and BROTHERS

ROBINSON — In memory of my dear husband HENRY ROBINSON, who passed away August 31, 1970:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife — LOSSIE ROBINSON

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my mother, and our loved one VICTORIA LAWRENCE ROBINSON, who departed this life September 8th, 1970:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To Mother, who did not say "Good-bye
Before you closed your eyes,
For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal

Beloved DAUGHTER and FAMILY

In Memoriam

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear husband, MOSES F. SMITH, who passed away September 11, 1969:
You fought the fight so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend,
I kept on watch with you, dear husband,
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain
God grant some day we'll meet again.
Loving Wife —
LILLIAN F. SMITH

WILSON — In loving memory of my dear wife, MAGGIE WILSON, who passed away September 8, 1970:

I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart,
