Cutoff looms for county

ATLANTA (UPI) — Elliot L. Richardson, secretary of health education and welfare has notified Congress of a possible cutoff of federal funds to Beaufort County, S.C., schools for failure to comply with the 1964 Civil Rights Act, HEW said here.

Richardson emphasized, however, the move was purely a "procedural one." He said it was hoped the county would comply with the law before any federal funds would be stopped.

An acceptable plan is expected to go into operation by mid-month, in which case, Richardson told Congress, the termination would be lifted.

Ireland dulls palace color

LONDON UPI) — Khaki-clad Royal Artillery troops took over guard duty at Buckingham Palace last week becaue of a shortage of the regular red-coated and bearskin-hatted Palace Guards who are serving in northen Ireland and overseas.

It was the third time this year that troops of other regiments have been detailed to guard the royal family's London residence because the regular guards units were not available. In November, a unit of Gurkhas, the British Army's renowned soldiers from Nepal, are scheduled to take over at the palace.
